

Revocation.

1.—(1.) The Order described in the First Schedule to this Order is hereby revoked to the extent in that Schedule mentioned.

(2.) Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the Swine-Fever (Infected Areas) Order of 1894, No. 2 and the Order described in the First Schedule to this Order before the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, those Orders before the commencement of this Order.

Movement of Swine.

2.—(1.) Swine shall not be moved by land or by water into or out of any District named in the Second Schedule to this Order otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2.) Provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to interfere with or apply to movement from any place in a District named in the Second Schedule to this Order to any place in any other District named in such Schedule.

Movement of Fat Swine for Slaughter into Districts to which this Order applies.

3. Fat swine may for the purpose of being slaughtered be moved from a place not within a District named in the Second Schedule to this Order, such place not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place, to premises within any such District with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the District in which the place to which the swine are to be moved is situate in manner and under the conditions following—

(i.) The Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place from which and the premises to which the swine are to be moved for slaughter.

(ii.) The swine, before the movement is commenced, shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

(iii.) The swine after the movement has commenced shall not be exposed at any sale in England or Wales or Scotland.

(iv.) The swine moved under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence required by this Article.

(v.) The swine moved under this Article shall be slaughtered within four days after their arrival at the premises specified in the Licence; and the Local Authority of the District into which the swine are moved shall take such steps as are necessary to insure that the swine are moved to the specified premises and are slaughtered there within such four days.

(vi.) The swine while being moved under this Article and until they are slaughtered shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all swine not marked for slaughter under this Order.

Movement of Fat Swine for Slaughter out of Districts to which this Order applies.

4. Fat swine may for the purpose of being slaughtered be moved from a place in a District named in the Second Schedule to this Order, such place not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place, to premises not within any such District with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the District in which the place to which the swine are to be moved is situate in manner and under the conditions following—

(i.) The Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place from which and the premises to which the swine are to be moved for slaughter.

(ii.) The swine, before the movement is commenced, shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

(iii.) The swine after the movement has commenced shall not be exposed at any sale in England or Wales or Scotland.

(iv.) The swine moved under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence required by this Article.

(v.) The swine moved under this Article shall be slaughtered within four days after their arrival at the premises specified in the Licence; and the Local Authority of the District into which the swine are moved shall take such steps as are necessary to insure that the swine are moved to the specified premises and are slaughtered there within such four days.

(vi.) The swine while being moved under this Article and until they are slaughtered shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all swine not marked for slaughter under this Order.

As to Movement of Swine by Railway through Districts to which this Order applies.

5. For the purposes of this Order, swine shall not be deemed to be moved into or out of a District named in the Second Schedule to this Order where they are moved through such District by railway from a place outside such District to another place outside such District without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked or rebooked within such District.

Movement of Swine by Licence of Board.

6. Notwithstanding anything in this Order, swine may be moved in any circumstances with a Licence of an Inspector of the Board or of a person authorized by the Board to grant the same, which Licence will only be granted where the Board, after inquiry, are satisfied that exceptional circumstances render the movement necessary or expedient.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Disinfection of Places and Things.

7.—(1.) The Local Authority of any District named in the Second Schedule to this Order may make such Regulations as they think fit for the following purposes or any of them.

For providing for the cleansing and disinfection of any sty or other place which has been used for swine while affected with or suspected of swine-fever, and any utensil, pen, hurdle, or other thing used for or about such swine, and any wood-work with which such swine have come in contact, and for prescribing the mode
