

situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Hamstead.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Hamstead, comprising:—All those two contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint John, Perry Barr, and of the parish of Handsworth both in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the centre of Brook Bridge which carries over the River Tame the road called or known as Newton-road and leading from West Bromwich towards Sutton Park, at the point where the boundary dividing the parish or parochial chapelry of West Bromwich in the said county and diocese from the parish of Handsworth aforesaid joins the boundary dividing the last-named parish from the parish of Great Barr in the same county and diocese and extending thence first north-eastward and then generally eastward along the said boundary (thereby generally following the course of the said road) to the point at the intersection of such road by the road from Walsall to Birmingham where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Barr from the new parish of Saint John, Perry Barr aforesaid and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby continuing to follow the course of the said Newton-road leading from West Bromwich towards Sutton Park as aforesaid) to a point at the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries such road over the stream which flows from the fish-pond in Great Barr Park through Holly Wood towards Perry Barr and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of fifty-three chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries Brick Kiln-lane over the same stream and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of sixty-two chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing at Tower Hill the said road from Walsall to Birmingham and also crossing at Tower Hill Bridge the Tame Valley Canal) to the junction of the said lane with Rocky-lane at or near to the Manor House Hamstead and extending thence south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John Perry Barr from the parish of Handsworth aforesaid or in other words crossing the Grand Junction Line of the London and North Western Railway) to the centre of Stone Bridge which carries the Old Walsall-road over the River Tame aforesaid and extending first generally northward then generally westward and then again northward along the middle of the said river for a distance of one mile and seventy-two chains or thereabouts to a point near the Old Forge Corn Mill on the boundary which divides the said parish of Handsworth from the parish or parochial chapelry of West Bromwich in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence first northward and then generally north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby continuing to follow the middle of the said river) to the first described point at the centre of Brook Bridge aforesaid where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said parish of Handsworth from the parish of Great Barr aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 15th day of October, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the Parish Churchyard of Roade, in the county of Northampton, until the fifteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

In the Parish Churchyard of Hellingly, in the county of Sussex, until the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.
