POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK REGULATIONS, 1894.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of the Post Office Savings Bank Act, 1861, and of all powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Treasury, made the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations, 1893 (hereinafter referred to as "the Principal Regulations").

And whereas owing to the passing of the Finance Act, 1894, certain of the provisions of "the Principal Regulations" in relation to the payment of duties upon deposits standing in the Post Office Savings Bank in the names of deceased depositors, are no longer in accordance with the present law in relation to the payment of duties on the property of deceased persons, and it is therefore expedient to amend "the Principal Regulations" in relation to the matters aforesaid.

Now I, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, under and by virtue of all powers and authorities vested in me in that behalf do, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

Title.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations, 1894, and these and "the Principal Regulations" may be cited as the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations, 1893 and 1894.

Construction.

2. These Regulations shall be read and construed as one with "the Principal Regulations," and shall take effect accordingly.

Repeal.

3. Regulation 74 of "the Principal Regulations" is hereby repealed.

Estate Succession and Legacy Duties.

4.—(1.) If the total property of any deceased depositor exceeds £100, after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, any sum which may under these Regulations be paid to a survivor in the account (not being a Trustee) whose name has been added to the account at the request of such deceased depositor, or otherwise than to the legal personal representative of the depositor shall, notwithstanding such payment, be for the purposes of Estate Duty treated as passing under the will or intestacy of the deceased depositor.

(2.) The Postmaster-General shall, before making any payment in respect of deposits standing to the credit of a deceased depositor (either alone or jointly with any other depositor (not being a Trustee) whose name has been added to such account at the request of such deceased depositor), to any one but the legal personal representative of such deceased depositor, require a Declaration by the claimant, or one of the claimants, or by the survivor, or survivors in the account (or other evidence to the Postmaster-General's satisfaction), that the total estate of the deceased depositor, including the amount of such deposits, does not after deduction of debts and funeral expenses exceed the value of £100.

(3.) In every such case as aforesaid, where the total estate of the deceased depositor, including such deposits, but after deduction of debts and funeral expenses exceeds £100, the Postmaster-General shall, before making any payment to any survivor in the account, or to any person other than the legal personal representative of the deceased depositor, require production of a certificate from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue of the payment of the Estate Duty, and of a duly stamped receipt for the Succession or Legacy Duty, payable in respect of such deposits, or of a certificate stating that no Succession or Legacy Duty is payable.

Operation of Regulations.

5. These Regulations shall come into operation on the day of the advertisement thereof in the London Gazette, and shall apply to all depositors dying on or after the 2nd day of August, 1894.

Arnold Morley, Postmaster-General.

General Post Office, London.

October 24, 1894.

Approved on behalf of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Francis Mowatt.

October 30, 1894.

(SWINE-FEVER.)

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. From and after the commencement of this Order the provisions of the Markets and Fairs (Swine-Fever) Order of 1894 dated the tenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four shall not extend or apply to either of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order, and the Order of the Board of the same date applying the provisions of the said Markets and Fairs Order to certain Districts and parts of Districts named in the Schedule to that Order shall be read and have effect as if neither of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order were included in the Schedule to that Order.

2. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the Markets and Fairs (Swine-Fever) Order of 1894, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, such Order before the commencement of this Order.

3. This Order shall come into operation on the twelfth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this fifth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

T. H. Elliott,
Secretary.
