

gravely offend against discipline or good order; or be neglectful in observing the Statutes, Orders, and Rules of the College, in every such case, it shall be the duty of the Master on being apprised thereof, to investigate the matter, proceeding as is directed in Chapter xxvi with regard to a Fellow.

2. A Scholar who is deprived of, or suspended from, his Scholarship shall have the same right of appeal to the Visitor as a Fellow.

CHAPTER XLI.

Benefactions and Endowments.

The Master and Fellows shall have power to make orders from time to time for the application to the instruction of Students of the College in Divinity, or in the Greek or Hebrew language, of the endowments for Readers or Lecturers and Preachers in the College provided by the following Benefactors; that is to say, Mr. Rysley, Sir Walter Mildmay, Dr. Hawford, Mr. Wentworth, Mr. Bunting, and Mr. Burrell.

CHAPTER XLII.

Exhibitions for Students coming from Special Schools.

1. In the cases of Exhibitions or emoluments where it is provided that a preference should be shown to Students coming from special Schools, the Master and Fellows shall have power to examine the candidates, and, rejecting the unworthy, to elect only those who show themselves duly qualified.

2. If in any case either no candidate, or no candidate whom the Master and Fellows consider duly qualified, from the Special School or Schools present himself, the Master and Fellows shall have power for that turn to throw open the Exhibition or emolument, and elect some duly qualified person in the same manner as they elect the Scholars of the College.

3. The Students holding such Exhibitions or emoluments shall be subject to the same rules, and be liable to be deprived or have the receipt of their emoluments suspended in the same manner as the Scholars of the College.

CHAPTER XLIII.

Members not on the Foundation.

1. The Master and major part of the Fellows in residence at any time may admit persons, of whose good character and sufficient learning they have assurance, to be members of the College.

2. It shall be the duty of every person so admitted to obey the Master in all things lawful and honest, to show due respect to the Fellows, behave himself in a becoming manner, and observe the Statutes and Ordinances of the College in all things.

3. He shall pursue the course of study provided for him in the College and in the University; shall attend the required lectures and examinations, and proceed to the degree which he seeks when he is of sufficient standing for it.

4. He shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter XL, as to the Correction and Removal of Scholars, in all respects except that he shall have no right of appeal to the Visitor.

5. The Master and Fellows shall have power to determine from time to time the payments to be made by all such persons for the use of rooms, for commons, and for all other advantages which they may be allowed to enjoy in College.

CHAPTER XLIV.

College Servants.

1. The Butler, the Cook, the Porter, the Gardener, shall be chosen by the Master and Fellows; the rest of the Servants shall be appointed by the Master. The amount of money to be paid out of the College revenues, or by the Fellows, Scholars, and Students individually, to each of these Servants as fair wages for their work, shall be determined by the Master and Fellows as they think right and equitable.

2. If the Master or a majority of the Fellows so determine a Servant shall be removed from his post by the Master: and a Servant so removed shall have no right of appeal to any authority whatsoever.

CHAPTER XLV.

Presentation to Benefices.

In presenting to the several Benefices in the patronage of the College, the Master and Fellows shall have regard to the Master and Fellows, the former Fellows, the Chaplain or former Chaplains, and other present or former Officers, or former Scholars of the College, but it shall not be necessary to present one of such persons, and none of them shall have any claim to any such presentation on the ground of seniority or any other ground.

CHAPTER XLVI.

Commemoration of Benefactors.

The Commemoration of the Foundress and other Benefactors shall be celebrated according to the following manner:—

Quotannis, die et hora congruis per magistrum assignandis, magister, socii, discipuli, pensionarii in capellam convenient, et commemoratio fiat dominæ Margaretæ, Collegii fundatricis, principis illustrissimæ et eximia pietate insignitæ, aliorumque benefactorum, quorum munificentia Collegium locupletatum fuerit vel exornatum; et cuncti Deo gratias agant, qui tanta per illos beneficia contulerit, et Eundem orent ut ipsorum quoque corda ad Dei gloriam illustrandam honorem Christi Iesu amplificandum, et in Eius fidei incrementum Divini Spiritus gratia incendat.

CHAPTER XLVII.

Notice of Address.

Every Fellow shall leave with such person as the Master and Fellows may appoint an address at some place within the United Kingdom to which notices intended for him should be sent; and in all cases in which by these Statutes notice is required to be given to any Fellow, it shall be sufficient that a notice be sent to such address by post or otherwise.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

Change in the Value of Money.

No alteration in the specific sums mentioned in these Statutes shall be made in consequence of any change in the value of money or for any other reason, except by Statute made in accordance with the provisions of the fifty-fourth and fifty-fifth sections of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

CHAPTER XLIX.

The Visitor.

The Visitor of the College shall be the Chancellor, or if he be absent the Vice-Chancellor, of the University; but if on any occasion of visitation the Master of the College be the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's College shall be the Visitor for that occasion only.

Upon every occasion of visitation the Visitor shall take to himself as Assessors the two Senior Graduates of Divinity then present in the University, and no judgment of the Visitor shall be valid without the assent of one of the said Assessors. Provided, however, that no one who is or has been a member of the College shall act as such Assessor.
