PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Clement situate in the parish of Saint Peter Bradford in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary Laister Dyke in the said county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and of such new parish respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Clement situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed this representation and caused his episcopal seal to be affixed thereto) and with the consents of the Reverend George Edward Tate, Clerk in Holy Orders vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mary Kippington in the county of Kent, and Prebendary of Wells, of the Very Reverend Robert Payne Smith, Dean of the Metropolitan Church of Christ at Canterbury, of the Venerable John Richardson Archdeacon of Southwark, of Number 163 Tulse-hill in the county of Surrey, of the Reverend Handley Carr Glyn Moule, Clerk in Holy Orders, Principal of Ridley Hall in the county of Cambridge, and of the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone Clerk in Holy Orders minister or perpetual curate of Saint John's Chapel Hampstead in the county of Middlesex and Honorary Canon of Christ Church Oxford, (commonly known as the Simeon Trustees) as the patrons both of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford, and of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Clement situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Clement, Bradford.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Clement Bradford, comprising:—

“I. All that portion of the parish of Saint Peter Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is bounded upon the north-west and upon the north by the new parish of Saint Augustine Undercliffe, Bradford in the said county and diocese, upon the north-east and upon the south-east by the new parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mary Laister Dyke, in the same county and diocese (including the hereinafter described portion thereof) and upon the remaining sides, that is to say upon the south-west and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke from the parish of Saint Peter Bradford aforesaid, at the point where the old footpath which leads (or used to lead) from the Leeds-road to the Leeds and Bradford Old-road, crosses Harewood-street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of forty-two chains or thereabouts (thereby for the latter and greater part of the way following the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Bradford, in the county and diocese aforesaid) to the junction of such street with the Leeds and Bradford Old-road aforesaid and with Undercliffe-street, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance
