

sum as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine, and the Council may decide that the tuition fee of any Open Entrance Scholar after the first two years, or of any Open Undergraduate Scholar, shall be paid out of the Exhibition Fund, if, in their opinion, the Scholar stands in need of such assistance. Provided that when any Open Undergraduate Scholarship is prolonged the Council may reduce the emoluments of the same.

17. If at any election to Scholarships a candidate who is eligible to an Eton Scholarship shall be elected to an Open Scholarship, he shall be entitled to tuition free during his tenure of the Scholarship, together with rooms rent-free until he takes his first degree, in addition to the pecuniary emoluments mentioned in section 16 of this Statute; and the Council may assign rooms rent-free to any such Scholar after taking his first degree, if he shall, with their permission, reside in College.

18. If at any election to Scholarships a candidate who is eligible for an Eton Scholarship be elected to an Open Scholarship, then and in every such case one of the Eton Scholarships then offered shall for that turn be treated as an Open Scholarship, and the emoluments of such Scholarship shall be the same as those of an Open Scholarship; provided that for the purpose of sections 1 and 22 of this Statute, such Scholarship shall be counted as an Eton Scholarship.

19. If at any election the whole number of Eton Entrance Scholarships then offered be not awarded one or more Exhibitions, to be called Eton Exhibitions, shall under regulations to be determined from time to time by the Governing Body be awarded to candidates receiving education at Eton School, if candidates of sufficient merit offer themselves. The emoluments of such Exhibitions shall be not less than £40 each for two years, provided that the whole sum so awarded at any election shall not exceed the pecuniary emoluments for one year of the Eton Scholarships then offered and not awarded.

20. The Governing Body may, from time to time, make regulations as to the principles on which the Council shall prolong Undergraduate Scholarships and fix the pecuniary emoluments of the same.

21. (a) Any Candidate for an Entrance or Undergraduate Scholarship may signify in writing to the Provost his wish not to receive the emoluments of the same if elected thereto, and he may thereupon be elected to an Honorary Scholarship.

(b) Any Scholar may at any time signify in writing to the Provost his wish not to receive the pecuniary emoluments of his Scholarship during his tenure of the same, and thereupon such emoluments shall be paid into the Exhibition Fund, and he shall thenceforth be entitled an Honorary Scholar.

(c) Any Scholar may signify in writing to the Provost his wish not to receive the pecuniary emoluments of his Scholarship during any period of his tenure of the same, and thereupon such emoluments shall not be paid to him during such period, but shall be paid into the Exhibition Fund.

22. If under the foregoing provisions of this Statute the number of Eton Scholarships or Open Scholarships be in any year increased beyond twenty-four, then not more than six such Scholarships shall be offered in any subsequent year until their number is again reduced to twenty-four.

23. If at any time it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Visitor that, owing to any cause, the revenues of the College are, or without the exercise of the power hereby conferred would be likely to become insufficient to meet the charges created by these Statutes, without injury to the general interests of the College, it shall be lawful for the Visitor, on a petition in writing presented to him by order of the Governing Body at a Congregation specially summoned for that purpose, to direct that any Eton or Open Scholarship shall be kept vacant and that the number of Scholarships to be offered under Sections 15 and 16 of this Statute shall be reduced, or that the charges created by these Statutes in respect of Scholarships shall be diminished for such limited period as shall seem desirable in the interests of the College.

24. Every person elected to a Scholarship before the day on which this Statute shall come into operation shall hold such Scholarship, and any other Scholarship to which he may be subsequently elected, for the same period and on the same conditions, and the emoluments of such Scholarship or Scholarships shall be the same as if the Statute under which he was first elected had continued in operation.

Given under our Common Seal this thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

Privy Council Office, December 12, 1894.

THE following Statutes, made by the Governing Body of King's College, Cambridge, on the twenty-seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and sealed with the Common Seal of the College, on the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

STATUTES to alter Statutes made by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 27th day of October 1894 and passed at such meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

WHEREAS by Statute E Chapters II and V made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge it is enacted as follows:

CHAPTER II.

1. The Fellows shall be elected from among the Graduate members of the College, who shall not have completed six years from the twenty-fifth day of March in the academical year in which they commenced residence in the University.

2. Provided that a Congregation may at any time, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, direct that all or any
