Whitehall, April 30. 1691.

HIS Majesty in Council has been pleased to Order the Embargo to be taken off from all Ships Trading Coastwise; And from any other Ships for whom Bonds shall be first given not to Trade to any Parts in Enmity with Their Majesties, or to the Parts hereasier specified, viz. To any part of America, the Dominions of Spain and Portugal, the Streights, or the Levant, before the time that shall be directed for the Departure of the Convost for these Trades; And Orders are likewise to be given to the Lords fustices and Commissioners of the Revenue of Ireland, that Bonds to the same effect be taken from Ships going out of the Ports of that Kingdom.

Vienna, April 19. Prince Louis of Baden is not jet arrived from Bohemia, but daily expected; His Equipage is preparing; And the Imperial Forces, that are to ferve in Hungary, are marching from their Everal Quarters, the General Rendezvous being appointed about the middle of the next month har Buda; And in the mean time a flying Camp bisming on the Draws to cover Esseck:

Hamburgh, April 27. The Duke of Zell is arri-ved at Hanouer to confer with his Brother the Duke of Hanouer, and intends very suddenly to return to Flanders. They write from Berlin, that the Elector of Brandenburg was going to Crossen, to take a review of the 6000 men which he sends to the Emperor's affishance in Hungary.

Dublin, April 25. We are preparing to take the Field with all imaginable application; Our Recruits arrive apace; and Lieutenant-General Gink'e, with the other General Officers that are now here, hold frequent Confultations about opening the Campagne. Deferters come daily over to us, who fay, that there is a great fearcity of Provisions in all the Enemies Quarters; that many dye for want, as well in the County of Limerick as in Connaught, and that they had drawn their Foot out of Kerry, for that they could not subssit there any longer. These accounts of the great wants of the Irish Army, are confirmed by all the other advices we have from their Quarters.

By Letters from Corke we have an account, that upon notice that a confiderable number of the Rebels were come near to Macromp, one of our Frontier Garisons, a Party of 80 Horse, 150 Dragoons of the Army, and as many of the Militia, was detached under the command of Major Kirke; They marched out on the 19th in the evening, and came up with the Rebels by break of day, who took to the Woods and Bogs, where our Men for some hours pursued them, killed 20, and took 5 Prisoners, and brought off some Horses and Cattel. The same Letters tell us, that the Rapperies coming fome time before in a strong Party to Curraglass near Tallough; had taken away some Horses belonging to Colonel Denop's Regiment, and 4 Troopers, whereupon the Colonel gave orders for the taking up several of the Irish Inhabitants about that place, with a Declaration, That if they did not procure the Homes and Men to be brought back by a day prefixed, they should be hanged; which had that good effect, that both Horses and Men were by the time appointed brought back to the place where they were taken, together with fome of the Perfons who were Acto . .: the Robbery.

From Mullingar we are told, that 300 Respectes, who lay in wait about Kennegad, had felectioned Sacks of Meal that were going thither with a finite Guard, who faved themselves; but that upon addition thereof a Party of that Garifon went only returned part of the Meal, and killed several of the Persons ries, with their Captain. Yesterday conserved three Persons from Limitale, who are restricted Rebels, even the Officers themselved account great want of Ciothes and Provided accounts Limericke they have lived above the least several contents.
