

representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz. :—

BLAENAU FESTINIOG.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church and churchyard of St. David, Blaenau Festiniog, in the county of Merioneth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 13th day of March next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said 13th day of March.

C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, February 2, 1895.

THE following Statute, made by the Governing Body of Exeter College, Oxford, on the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 :—

That in Statute II § 4 the words "The Rectorship shall be tenable for life" shall be struck out.

That in the same Statute and Clause after the words "not exceeding £500 a year for life" shall be inserted the words "At the age of seventy-five the Rector shall be entitled to retire on a pension of £500 a year for life, and shall retire, unless a majority of two-thirds of the Fellows present at a College Meeting specially summoned decide that his retirement would be prejudicial to the interests of the College. At any College meeting summoned to consider this question the Rector himself shall not be present, and the voting shall be by ballot. At the age of eighty the Rector shall in any case retire, and shall be entitled to a pension of £500 a year for life, and the Rectorship shall become vacant."

That in the same Statute and Clause after the words "corporate revenues of the College" shall be added the words "unless there shall be at the disposal of the College any special funds available for the payment of this pension."

That in Statute III § 15 after the words "further terms not exceeding five years" shall be added the words "After the age of sixty-five no Tutorial Fellow shall be re-elected except by the votes of a majority of two-thirds of those present at a College Meeting held for the purpose of deciding the question of his re-election; nor shall he in any case be re-elected after the age of seventy. But whenever a Tutorial Fellow shall not be re-elected after he has served a sufficient number of years to entitle him to a Pension, he shall if duly qualified for a Pension, either receive the Pension to which he is entitled under these Statutes, or, if there be not sufficient income from the Pension Fund for this purpose, continue to hold his Fellowship without discharging any duties as Tutor or Lecturer until the income of the Pension Fund shall be sufficient for the payment of his pension. Whenever the income of the Pension Fund shall be sufficient for this purpose his Fellowship shall at once become vacant."

That in the same Statute and Clause after the words "the question of his re-election" shall be added the words "at such College Meetings the voting shall be by ballot."

That in Statute III § 27 after the words "or a Professorship" shall be inserted the words "in this or any other University."

That in Statute IV § 5 after the words "to be a Fellow of the College" shall be added the words "No Tutorial Fellow shall retain a Tutorship after the age of sixty; but, so long as he holds his Tutorial Fellowship, he shall, subject to the provisions of these Statutes, hold the office of Lecturer, and shall perform such duties as are assigned to him by the Educational Council."

That in Statute V § 2 at the end of the clause shall be added the words "It shall also be permissible for the College, if in the judgment of the Electors there be no candidate duly qualified for election to a Stapledon Scholarship, to decide that the Stapledon Scholarship or Scholarships then vacant shall be turned into an Exhibition or Exhibitions, not exceeding in value the value of the Scholarship or Scholarships then vacant. Such Exhibitions shall have the same limitations in respect of birth, place of education, and tenure, as the Stapledon Scholarships, but shall not be limited in respect of age."

That in Statute V § 3 for the words "further term of two years" be substituted the words "further term not exceeding two years."

That in the same Statute and Clause in place of the sentence beginning with the words "at the end of two years" and ending with the words "advisable so to do" be substituted the following sentence, viz., "At the expiration of any term for which a Scholar has been re-elected the Rector and Fellows may, if they think it advisable so to do, continue his Scholarship for a further term or terms, provided that every Scholar shall in any case vacate his Scholarship at the end of five years from his matriculation."

That in Statute V "King Charles the First's Trust" § 2 for the words "shall be eighty pounds" shall be substituted the words "shall not exceed eighty pounds."

The College Seal was ordered to be affixed to the above Amendments at a meeting of the Rector and Fellows, being the Governing Body of the College, specially summoned, on the twenty-fifth day of January, 1895.
