Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Supreme Court.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Order, there shall be one Judge of the Supreme Court who shall be appointed by Her Majesty by warrant under Her Royal sign-manual.

He shall be at the time of his appointment a member of the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland, of not less than seven years' standing.

2. For the purposes of this Order the Secretary of State may, from time to time, appoint a fit person, being either a Judge of the Supreme Court of a British possession or of Cyprus, or a person qualified to be Judge of the Supreme Court at Constantinople, to be an Additional Judge of the Supreme Court.

3. Every appeal from the Court for Egypt, under the Ottoman Orders in Council, shall be heard and determined by the Judge and Additional Judge of the Supreme Court.

4. Any person aggrieved by any final order of the Supreme Court in a civil suit or proceeding, whether in the original or appellate jurisdiction of that Court, and not being an order made on an appeal from the Court for Egypt, may within fifteen days after the order is made apply by motion to the Supreme Court for a rehearing, and the cause or matter in which the order was made shall be set down for rehearing, and shall be reheard before the Judge and the Additional Judge of the Supreme Court.

Articles 257 and 258 of the Order of 1873, which relate to applications by motion to the Supreme Court for leave to appeal to Her Majesty the Queen in Council, shall apply only to final orders of the Supreme Court made after such rehearing as is provided for by this Article, and the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court under those Articles shall be exercised by the Judge.

For the purposes of this Article, "final order" includes any rule or order having the effect of a final or definitive judgment, decree, or sentence.

5. There shall be attached to the Supreme Court a Registrar and so many officers and clerks as the Secretary of State from time to time thinks fit.

The Registrar shall be appointed by Her Majesty, and shall hold by Commission from Her Majesty the appointment of Legal Vice-Consul.

He shall be either a member of the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland, or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court in England or Ireland, or a Writer to Her Majesty's Signet, or a Solicitor in the Supreme Courts in Scotland.

He shall, subject to any directions of the Judge; hear and determine by summary trial such criminal charges as may, under the Ottoman Orders in Council, be properly so heard and determined, and for this purpose shall have all the jurisdiction, power, and authority of Judge.

6. In case of the death or illness, or the absence or intended absence from the Consular district of Constantinople, of the Judge of the Supreme Court, or the Registrar, Her Majesty's Ambassador may appoint a fit person to be Acting Judge or Acting Registrar as the case may be.

Jurisdiction in Lunacy.

7. The jurisdiction in lunacy conferred by Article 89 of "The Ottoman Order in Council, 1873," upon the Supreme Court shall, so far as the same relates to Egypt, be exercised by the Court for Egypt, concurrently with the Supreme Court, but subject to the same rights of appeal to the Supreme Court as in civil suits and proceedings.

8. A Provincial Court shall, as far as circumstances permit, have with respect to British subjects and protected persons all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of persons of unsound mind as for the time being may be exercised in England by the Masters in Lunacy under the provisions of "The Lunacy Act, 1890," and any Act amending the same.

In any such case the Provincial Court may of its own motion, or on the application of any person interested, take or authorize such steps as to the Court may seem necessary or expedient for the immediate protection of the person and property of any person appearing to the Court to be of unsound mind, and may from time to time revoke, or vary, or supplement any order or proceeding taken in the matter.

Subject to the provisions of this Article, a Provincial Court shall not proceed in any such matter except under and according to the directions of the Supreme Court.

General Provisions, Repeal, &c.

9. Any reference to Her Majesty's Consul-General at Constantinople, or to his Consulate-General, contained in any Order in Council relating to the Ottoman dominions, shall be read as if "Consul" and "Consulate" were substituted therefor respectively.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, in the words following, that is to say;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish (some-time consolidated chapelry) of Saint John the Evangelist Masbrough in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Masbrough which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of Divine worship.

"And whereas by an indenture bearing date the twenty-first day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend Theophilus Percy Ring the rector or incumbent of the rectory and parish church of Rawmarsh in the said county and diocese of York of the first part the Right Honourable Farrer Baron Herschell Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and as such the patron (on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown) of the said rectory of Rawmarsh of the second part the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William

Dalrymple Lord Archbishop of York the Ordinary of the said rectory of the third part and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fourth part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature) the said Theophilus Percy Ring (with the consent of the said Farrer Baron Herschell Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain as such patron as aforesaid and of the said William Dalrymple Archbishop of York as the Ordinary aforesaid) did grant convey and confirm unto and to the use of the minister for the time being of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as a minister shall have been appointed and licensed thereto and so soon as such district shall have become a new parish then to the incumbent of such new parish and his successors the pieces or parcels of land hereinafter described (that is to say) all those twenty-seven several pieces or parcels of land (with the messuages or dwelling houses erections and buildings thereon) situate respectively in the parish of Acton in the county of Middlesex which are particularly described in the first schedule annexed to the said indenture and are also delineated and further described upon the plan drawn upon and forming part of the same indenture subject nevertheless to the several leases the particulars whereof and the yearly rents amounting altogether to three hundred pounds and eighteen shillings which are reserved thereby are set forth in the Second Schedule to the said indenture.

"And whereas the said pieces or parcels of land with the messuages or dwelling-houses erections and buildings thereon subject to the leases aforesaid producing a yearly rental of three hundred pounds and eighteen shillings have been so granted conveyed and confirmed as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted and of the nomination of the minister thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Dalrymple Archbishop of the said diocese of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Masbrough which is described in the Schedule hereunder written and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Northfield.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and of the nomination of the minister thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Farrer Baron Herschell Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown and by his successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The district of Northfield being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint John the Evangelist Masbrough in the county of York and in the diocese of York which is bounded upon the greater part of the north-west by the new parish of Greasborough in the said county and diocese upon the north-east by the new parish of Christ Church Park Gate in the same county and diocese upon the south-east partly by the new parish of Saint Stephen Eastwood and partly by the parish of Rotherham both in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south and upon the remaining part of the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Rotherham from the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Masbrough aforesaid at the centre of the bridge over the River Don called Rotherham Bridge which connects Bridge Gate in Rotherham with Bridge-street in Masbrough and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eight and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with George-street and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eight and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Glasshouse-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of ten and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Tenter-street and extending thence still north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of sixteen and a quarter chains or thereabouts to the south-eastern end of the bridge over the line of the Midland Railway which is called or known as Robin Hood Bridge and which connects Tenter-street with Roger-street and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the said bridge to a point over the middle of the line of the Midland Railway aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of St. John the Evangelist Masbrough from the new parish of Greasborough aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Masbrough out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

C. L. Peel.
