

rehearing as is provided for by this Article, and the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court under those Articles shall be exercised by the Judge.

For the purposes of this Article, "final order" includes any rule or order having the effect of a final or definitive judgment, decree, or sentence.

5. There shall be attached to the Supreme Court a Registrar and so many officers and clerks as the Secretary of State from time to time thinks fit.

The Registrar shall be appointed by Her Majesty, and shall hold by Commission from Her Majesty the appointment of Legal Vice-Consul.

He shall be either a member of the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland, or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court in England or Ireland, or a Writer to Her Majesty's Signet, or a Solicitor in the Supreme Courts in Scotland.

He shall, subject to any directions of the Judge; hear and determine by summary trial such criminal charges as may, under the Ottoman Orders in Council, be properly so heard and determined, and for this purpose shall have all the jurisdiction, power, and authority of Judge.

6. In case of the death or illness, or the absence or intended absence from the Consular district of Constantinople, of the Judge of the Supreme Court, or the Registrar, Her Majesty's Ambassador may appoint a fit person to be Acting Judge or Acting Registrar as the case may be.

Jurisdiction in Lunacy.

7. The jurisdiction in lunacy conferred by Article 89 of "The Ottoman Order in Council, 1873," upon the Supreme Court shall, so far as the same relates to Egypt, be exercised by the Court for Egypt, concurrently with the Supreme Court, but subject to the same rights of appeal to the Supreme Court as in civil suits and proceedings.

8. A Provincial Court shall, as far as circumstances permit, have with respect to British subjects and protected persons all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of persons of unsound mind as for the time being may be exercised in England by the Masters in Lunacy under the provisions of "The Lunacy Act, 1890," and any Act amending the same.

In any such case the Provincial Court may of its own motion, or on the application of any person interested, take or authorize such steps as to the Court may seem necessary or expedient for the immediate protection of the person and property of any person appearing to the Court to be of unsound mind, and may from time to time revoke, or vary, or supplement any order or proceeding taken in the matter.

Subject to the provisions of this Article, a Provincial Court shall not proceed in any such matter except under and according to the directions of the Supreme Court.

General Provisions, Repeal, &c.

9. Any reference to Her Majesty's Consul-General at Constantinople, or to his Consulate-General, contained in any Order in Council relating to the Ottoman dominions, shall be read as if "Consul" and "Consulate" were substituted therefor respectively.

10. The following provisions are hereby repealed:—

In "The Ottoman Order in Council, 1873," Articles 10 to 12; Article 34 from "or may direct" to the end of the Article; Article 48; in Article 89 the words "in itself exclusively"; and in Article 266 the words "or Assistant Judge."

In "The Ottoman Order in Council, 1882," Articles 5 and 6.

In Article 2 of "The Ottoman Order in Council, 1890," the word "Assistant."

In Article 2 of "The Ottoman Tribunals Order in Council, 1891," the words "Consul-General or other person for the time being acting as the Principal."

In Regulation 1 of the Regulations respecting Assessors before Ottoman Tribunals, made pursuant to "The Ottoman Tribunals Order in Council, 1891," and approved by the Secretary of State on the second December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, the words "Consul-General and."

11. This Order may be cited as "The Ottoman Dominions (Courts) Order in Council, 1895," and shall be construed as one with the Ottoman Orders in Council, 1873, 1882, and 1890.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Kimberley, K.G., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, in the words following, that is to say;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish (some-time consolidated chapelry) of Saint John the Evangelist Masbrough in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Masbrough which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of Divine worship.

"And whereas by an indenture bearing date the twenty-first day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend Theophilus Percy Ring the rector or incumbent of the rectory and parish church of Rawmarsh in the said county and diocese of York of the first part the Right Honourable Farrer Baron Herschell Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and as such the patron (on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown) of the said rectory of Rawmarsh of the second part the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William
