

[This Order is published in substitution for that which appeared in the London Gazette of the 12th instant.]

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of March, 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:-

In the Parish Churchyard of Hellingly, in the county of Sussex, until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

In the Parish Churchyard of Pattishall, in the county of Northampton, until the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.
