To all to whom these presents shall come, We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS by the provisions of the Saint Mary's Hospital (Newcastle-upon-Tyne) Act 1888, it is enacted that so soon as the Master of the hospital shall cease to hold office, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, should prepare a scheme for the constitution of a new parish, to be called by the name of Saint Mary the Virgin, by the taking from any of the ecclesiastical districts or parishes adjacent to the chapel of Saint Mary the Virgin (Newcastle-upon-Tyne) such portions as we shall think expedient, having regard to the spiritual requirements of such districts or parishes.

And whereas copies of this scheme, together with copies of the map or plan hereunto annexed, have been transmitted by way of notice to the Lord Bishop of Newcastle and to the patrons and incumbents of the two cures affected by this scheme.

And whereas the said Lord Bishop of Newcastle and the said patrons and incumbents have severally replied to such notices, and have made no objections to this scheme.

And whereas more than one month has elapsed since the date of the issue of such notices.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, do hereby order and direct that, as from the date of the publication of this scheme in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than this scheme when so gazetted, all those portions of the said new parish of Saint Paul, High Elswick, and of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Low Elswick, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and are set forth and described on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured respectively pink and green, shall together be formed into, and shall be constituted, a new parish for all spiritual purposes, by the name of "the New Parish of Saint Mary the Virgin" (Newcastle-upon-Tyne), and shall have all the rights and privileges of a new parish created under the New Parishes Acts 1843, 1844, and 1856 as amended by any subsequent Act.
