Every member under the age of fifty-five years at the date of his becoming a member, and every member hereafter appointed a pilot, shall be at liberty to retire from the service on attaining the age of sixty-five years, and upon such retirement his contributions shall cease, and he shall become entitled to receive a Pension at the rate of two pounds twelve shillings per annum for every complete year of service as pilot, calculated from the day of his becoming a member, or of such other amount as the General Committee shall from time to time, having regard to the financial position of the Society, determine. Provided always that in no case shall the amount of a Pension exceed one pound per week, unless the General Committee shall otherwise determine.

9. If through failure of health any member retires from the service before he becomes entitled to a Pension, upon such retirement his liability for contributions shall cease, and he shall become entitled to the following benefits:—

(a.) If such retirement takes place when the Retiring member has completed fifteen years in the service, he shall (subject as hereinafter provided) receive during his life a Retiring Allowance at the rate of one pound fourteen shillings and eightpence per annum for every complete year of service as pilot, calculated from the date of his becoming a member, or of such other amount as the General Committee shall from time to time, having regard to the financial position of the Society, determine.

(b.) If such retirement takes place when the Retiring member has completed ten years in the service he shall (subject as hereinafter provided) receive during his life a Retiring Allowance at the rate of seventeen shillings and fourpence per annum for every complete year of service as pilot, calculated from the date of his becoming a member, or of such other amount as the General Committee shall from time to time, having regard to the financial position of the Society, determine.

(c.) Provided that if any member in receipt of such Retiring Allowance as aforesaid shall re-enter the service or recover in health so far as to be capable of earning his own livelihood, wholly or partially, as before his retirement, the General Committee may revoke or reduce his Allowance accordingly while he is under the age of sixty-five. Provided also that no Retiring Allowance shall be increased by reason of the retiring member subsequently attaining the age of sixty-five years or otherwise.

(d.) In cases other than aforesaid, members retiring from the service from ill-health may be refunded all or part of the payments made by them to the Fund, but without interest, if the Managing Committee so recommend, and if the General Committee shall in their absolute discretion determine that the financial position of the Fund is such as to amply justify such return; such refunding to be made in such manner or by such instalments as the General Committee shall determine.

10. If a member shall be temporarily disabled by accident occurring whilst in the discharge of duty, or shall be temporarily disabled from performing his duty by sickness, he shall be entitled on the recommendation of the Managing Committee to receive a Sick Allowance, the amount and period of such Allowance to be in all cases determined by the General Committee.

14. If a member dies before he shall become a pensioner, his Personal Representatives shall be paid an amount equal to two-thirds of all sums contributed by him to the Fund, but without interest, after deducting therefrom all sums which the member shall have received by way of Allowances or otherwise.

15. If a member die after becoming a pensioner, or while he is in receipt of a Retiring Allowance, but before the payments to him by way of Pension or Retiring Allowance or otherwise have reached a sum equal to two-thirds of the amount of his contributions, the difference between such sum and the aggregate payments made to him by way of Pension or Retiring Allowance or otherwise, shall be paid out of the Fund to the Personal Representatives of such member, but without interest.

16. The sums payable under any of these Regulations to the Personal Representatives of a deceased member shall be paid to his executors or administrators, if any, but if Probate or Letters of Administration be not produced to the clerk to the Fund within one month from the date of the death of such member, then the amount payable under these Regulations to his Personal Repre-

17. If a member shall be broken and dismissed as a pilot, or retire from the service on account of gross misconduct or neglect of duty, or on account of having committed or abetted dishonesty or fraud, he shall forfeit all his contributions and lose all benefit whatsoever from the Fund. The Managing Committee shall, after having made enquiry and investigation, have full power to determine, and shall be absolute judges, whether any member has or has not been dismissed or has retired from the service on account of misconduct, neglect of duty, or dishonesty, or of fraud, or abetting the same. Provided that the Managing Committee may, in exceptional cases, if they consider any extenuating circumstances exist, grant to a member so broken and dismissed, or retiring as aforesaid, such a sum, not in any case exceeding one-half of the amount of his contributions, without interest, as in their discretion they may think fit, such grant to be made in such manner and by such instalments as the Managing Committee shall determine.

"And whereas we have undertaken to pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act, the sum of seventy-nine pounds, so long as the said capital monies shall continue and remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said ground rents of fifty-four pounds and ten shillings per annum have been so secured as aforesaid, and the said capital sum of two thousand six hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners should, out of the common fund created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, grant to the said proposed district or new parish when duly constituted a capital sum of seven hundred pounds in respect of which there shall be paid by us to the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish when duly licensed thereto as aforesaid and to his successors a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned and described.

"And whereas the said annual grant of twenty-one pounds will be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us the said Commissioners under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Lord Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Wadsley and of the said parish of Ecclesfield which are more particularly described in the Schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Hillsborough and Wadsley Bridge.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the same shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised jointly by the Reverend Sir John Robert Laurie Emilius Laurie of Maxwellton Moniaive North Britain Baronet Clerk in Holy Orders Francis Augustus Bevan of number fifty-four Lombard-street in the city of London Banker, the Reverend William Hagger Barlow of the Vicarage, Upper-street Islington in the said county of Middlesex Clerk in Holy Orders, John Deacon of number twenty Birchin-lane in the said city of London Banker and the Reverend Henry Elliott Fox of Saint Nicholas's Rectory Durham in the city of Durham Clerk in Holy Orders and their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the second day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Sub-chantry of the Cathedral church of Salisbury and now vested in us.

“Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the said Acts and bearing date the eighteenth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four and duly published in the London Gazette on the third day of March in the same year all the lands tithes and other hereditaments then belonging to the said Sub-chantry (excepting a certain portion thereof described in the Schedule to such Order and excepting also any right of patronage) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas the said lands tithes and hereditaments which so became vested in us as aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant but are now in our possession (with the exception of certain lands which by another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the thirteenth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and duly published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of the same month were transferred to the Dean and Chapter of Salisbury) but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands tithes and hereditaments so in our possession as aforesaid or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands tithes and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands tithes and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign all or any of the said lands tithes and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Sub-chantry and so in our possession as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rentcharges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

And whereas by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish herein-after mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that he was of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in so far as it affects burials in the parish of Stanwell, in the county of Middlesex, should be varied, and that the following directions should be substituted for those contained in the said Order, with respect to burials in the church and churchyard of that parish:

QUARANTINE PROCLAMATION.

State of Louisiana, Executive Department.

Baton Rouge, April 19, 1895.

At the request of the Board of Health of the State of Louisiana, embodied in a resolution adopted by that body at a regular meeting held on April 11, 1895, and by virtue of the authority in me vested by law, I, Murphy J. Foster, Governor of the State of Louisiana, do hereby issue this, my proclamation, to take effect from and after the 1st day of May, A. D. 1895, that all vessels, together with their crews, passengers, baggage, and cargoes, arriving at the several quarantine stations of Louisiana, shall be subjected to inspection and sanitation according to the following schedule, to wit:—

First Class—Vessels arriving from non-infected ports.

Second Class—Vessels arriving from suspected ports. (Inter-tropical American and West Indian and Brazilian ports and other ports which may be considered suspicious by the Board of Health.)

Third Class—Vessels arriving from ports known to be infected.

Fourth Class—Vessels which, without regard to port of departure, are infected; that is to say, vessels which have yellow fever, cholera, or other contagious or infectious disease on board at the time of arrival, or have had same on voyage.

Vessels of the first class to be subjected to necessary maritime sanitation at the Mississippi.

River Quarantine Station without detention of either vessels or persons longer than may be necessary to place such vessels in perfect sanitary condition.

Vessels of second and third classes to undergo the same treatment as those of the first class, together with detention for observation for such length of time after completion of disinfection as the Board of Health may determine.

All vessels arriving from ports known or suspected to be infected with cholera, shall be subjected to maritime sanitation and such detention as the Board of Health may determine.

Vessels arriving from ports and places belonging to the second, third, and fourth classes, as set forth in the above schedule, shall not be allowed to pass the Rigolets, the Atchafalaya, or Lake Charles Quarantine Station, or other quarantine stations which may hereafter be established, without having undergone proper maritime sanitation at the Mississippi River Quarantine Station.

Vessels engaged in the tropical fruit trade, whose sanitary condition and health record are satisfactory, may be allowed to pass the Mississippi River Quarantine Station after inspection, subject, however, to such regulations and sanitary treatment as the Board of Health may prescribe.

Quarantine officers at the several stations in this State are specially charged and required to strictly enforce the execution of this proclamation, and the Board of Health in the city of New Orleans is requested to prosecute vigorously all violators of the same, as well as of the quarantine laws and regulations of this State.

Given under my official signature and the seal of the State of Louisiana, at Baton Rouge, this 19th day of April, A.D. 1895.

MURPHY J. FOSTER,
Governor of Louisiana.

By the Governor:
T. S. ADAMS, Secretary of State.

At a meeting of the Board of Health of the State of Louisiana, held April 24 1895, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in accordance with the Governor's proclamation of quarantine, the period of detention of vessels from infected or suspected ports having no sickness on board shall be three (3) full days from time of completion of disinfection.

This regulation to apply to all vessels not otherwise provided for and continue in full force during the quarantine season, unless modified by action of this Board.

Resolved, That hereafter full quarantine restrictions will be imposed on all vessels whose officers wilfully attempt deception in regard to any case of sickness, or material capable of carrying infection, or wilfully disregard the rules and regulations of the Board of Health; and such detention will be imposed thereafter on every vessel on which any officer who has previously attempted to practise deception is found in any official capacity.

Resolved, That vessels from tropical quarantined ports, where a United States medical officer is stationed, such vessels carrying a crew, each of which is acclimated - i.e., has had yellow fever, may be given pratique to come to New Orleans immediately after disinfection at the Mississippi River Quarantine Station, under the following additional conditions: They shall bring no passengers from such ports. They shall not be moored at any wharf in any quarantined port, but lie in the open bay: cargoes to be lightered.

Only the captain and purser, or officer necessary to enter and clear the vessel, shall be allowed to go on shore at quarantined ports. Crews shall not be allowed to sleep on deck while in such ports. They must bring certificates from the United States medical officer that there has been no unnecessary communication between the ship's crew and the shore, and that they leave such port in perfect sanitary condition. No bedding or household effects will be allowed to be brought from any infected port at any season of the year.

Special Instructions to Owners, Agents, Masters of Vessels, and Passengers.

The Louisiana State Board of Health recommends the following suggestions to agents, owners, masters of vessels, and passengers for the purpose of facilitating the work of quarantine officers and reducing the period of detention to a minimum:

1. That vessels should be stripped during the quarantine season of all woollen hangings, carpets, curtains, and such-like materials, and upholstered furniture as far as practicable. Hair or moss mattresses to be replaced by wire or wicker beds.

2. That, as far as possible, vessels trading with tropical ports should be manned with acclimated crews.

3. Masters of vessels, ship and consular agents are earnestly requested to instruct passengers from quarantinable ports to dispense, as far as possible, with baggage which may be injured by wetting, or heat (230° F.) while undergoing disinfection. Such passengers are especially warned against bringing furs, silks, skins, laces, velvets, and other fabrics of delicate texture, as they will be compelled to assume all risks of injury.

While in ports infected with yellow fever, vessels should be anchored out in the harbour, when this is possible, and the crew prohibited from going ashore, especially at night.

5. When practicable, cargoes should be loaded in such a manner as to allow access to the pumps, and also to allow the quarantine officers to pump out and wash the bilge.

6. For the purpose of avoiding delay and expense at quarantine, owing to the necessity of shifting of cargo for the object of disinfection, it is recommended that there be constructed in all vessels from quarantined ports, an open framework shaft, fifteen inches in diameter, from the centre of each hatch, through which the fumigating pipe may be introduced down to the dunnage of the vessel.

7. Special attention should be given to cleanliness of vessels and persons, and provision should be made for all possible ventilation of the entire vessel. The best disinfectant, and instructions for using same, can be obtained by application to the Board of Health or any of its officers.

8. Masters should, before arrival, see that the bilge is thoroughly pumped out and cleansed, and that the entire vessel be put in such good sanitary condition as to permit of the least possible detention. Fruit vessels, particularly, should be kept thoroughly cleansed for the purpose of avoiding delay at the quarantine station.

9. Vessels observing the above recommendations will receive special consideration at the quarantine station, detention and cost of cleaning, disinfecting, etc., being materially lessened thereby.

WILL. R. HARNAN, M.D., Secretary.
S. R. OLLIPHANT, M.D., President.
