In Parliament.—Session 1895.

Liverpool Electric Supply (Transfer).

(Sale of Undertaking of Company to Corporation of Liverpool; Provisions with respect to Debts and Liabilities, Contracts, &c.; Winding Up and Dissolution of Company, Distribution of Assets, &c.; Power to Corporation to Borrow; Amendment of Acts, and other purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session for an Act (hereinafter called the intended Act) to effect the following or some of the following among other objects and purposes, and to confer the powers or some of them herein-after mentioned:—

To empower the Liverpool Electric Supply Company Limited (hereinafter called the Company) to sell, and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Liverpool (hereinafter called the Corporation) to purchase the Undertaking of the Company upon such terms and for such considerations as have been or may be agreed upon, or as may be provided by the intended Act, and to confirm or give effect to any agreement in that behalf which may have been or may be entered into between the Company and the Corporation before the passing of the intended Act.

To empower the Corporation upon such sale and transfer to exercise, enjoy, perform, fulfil, and discharge (subject to any modifications which Parliament may prescribe or may be provided for by the intended Act) all or some of the rights, powers, privileges, authorities, obligations, debts, liabilities, claims, and demands of the Company, whether in relation to their own or any other Undertaking, or the purchase or sale of lands and other property, and to confer on the Corporation all or any of the powers of the Electric Lighting Acts 1882 and 1888, and of any Order made under those Acts relating to the Company and now in force or any such Order which may be made and confirmed during the present session of Parliament for the execution of works, for levying of charges, or any other matters which the Company are now empowered to do, make, or to put into force or execution, and to make such alterations in any such powers rights and privileges as the intended Act may prescribe.

To make provision for, and as to the receipt payment recovery distribution and application of the purchase money, or other consideration payable upon such sale and transfer and of any other moneys belonging to the Company or to which they may be entitled; and to make all usual and necessary provisions for and in connection with the winding up of the Company.

To provide for the dissolution of the Company.

To make provision until such dissolution for the continuance in office of the Directors and officers of the Company for the purposes of the winding up and dissolution, and to provide that the Corporation shall on the completion of the transfer take into their employment upon such terms and conditions as the intended Act may prescribe any officers and servants of the Company; and to provide that no officer or servant so taken into the Corporation's employment shall be bound to contribute to the superannuation fund of the Corporation, if he shall intimate to the Corporation his desire not to be so bound.

To empower the Corporation to borrow money for the purposes of the intended Act, and for all or any of the purposes of the Undertaking, and the exercise of the powers duties and obligations to be transferred to them and to raise any such moneys by the issue of mortgages or other securities under the Liverpool Corporation Act 1893 and by the creation and issue of stock under the Liverpool Corporation Loans Act 1894 or by either of such means, or to authorize the Corporation to exercise for the purposes aforesaid the borrowing powers conferred by the Electric Lighting Act 1882; and to provide for the repayment of moneys so borrowed by means of an accumulative Sinking Fund or otherwise as the intended Act may provide.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which may interfere with or prevent the carrying out of any of the objects of the intended Act and to confer all such other powers rights and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the purposes aforesaid or of the intended Act.

To vary alter amend extend enlarge or repeal so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the intended Act, the provisions of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned and of the Electric Lighting Acts 1882 and 1888, the Liverpool Electric Lighting Order 1891, the Liverpool Electric Lighting Order 1892, and any other Acts or Orders relating to the Company or Corporation.
