

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas Bradley comprising:—

“I. All those two contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Christ Church Woodhouse and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint John the Evangelist, Bay Hall, both in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield, which, taken together comprise and are co-extensive with the hamlet of Bradley in the township of Huddersfield within the ancient limits of the parish of Huddersfield in the said county and diocese.

“II. And also all that contiguous portion of the parish of Kirkheaton in the county and diocese aforesaid which is bounded upon the north-west, partly by the above-described portion of the new parish of Christ Church Woodhouse (or in other words by the River Colne) and partly by the parochial chapelry of Hartshead-cum-Clifton in the county and diocese aforesaid (or in other words by the River Calder) upon the north-east by the new parish of Christ Church Battysford (or in other words by the last-named river) and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the east, upon the south-east and upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Battysford from the parish of Kirkheaton aforesaid at a point in the middle of the said River Calder at the centre of the ford called or known as Battye Ford which connects Wards End with Wood-lane and extending thence generally southward along the said ford and along the middle of Wood-lane aforesaid for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to the junction of the last-named lane with Helm-lane, and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Paul-lane and extending thence first southward and then westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bog Green-lane, and extending thence due westward and in a direct line for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing Colne Bank-lane) to a point upon the eastern bank of the River Colne aforesaid at a bend in the river opposite to its junction with the stream which connects the same river with Sir John Ramsden's Canal, and extending thence that is to say, from the said point on the eastern bank of the said river north-westward and in a straight line for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to the point in the middle of the same river where the boundary which divides the said parish of Kirkheaton from the new parish of Christ Church Woodhouse aforesaid is met by the boundary which divides the hamlet of Deighton in the township of Huddersfield aforesaid from the hamlet of Bradley aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Wakefield.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Compton Dundon in the Cathedral Church of Wells and now vested in us.

“Whereas at the date of the passing of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the said prebend was vacant and all the lands and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became by virtue of and on the passing of the said Act absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant but are now in our possession but some portions thereof are on account of their character or situation unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands and hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign all or any of the said lands and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said prebend and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the
