C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of July, 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints Penarth situate within the limits of the parish of Penarth in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Penarth, of the parish of Cogan in the said county and diocese, and of the parish of Llandough-juxta-Cardiff in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Penarth of the said parish of Cogan, and of the parish of Llandough-juxta-Cardiff aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints Penarth situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Right Honourable Robert George, Baron Windsor the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Penarth, with the consent of the Most Honourable John Patrick Marquess of Bute and Earl of Dumfries, Knight of the most Ancient and most Noble Order of the Thistle, who as tenant for life under the will of the late John Crichton Stuart, Marquess of Bute and Earl of Dumfries, is the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Cogan, and also of the rectory of the said parish of Llandough, subject to an assignment of the next presentation to the two last-mentioned rectories to the Reverend William Henry Cleaver now Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Pulham Saint Mary in the county of Norfolk, and to the Reverend Lewis Jones now Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Cadoxton-juxta-Neath in the county of Glamorgan aforesaid, and with the consents of the said William Henry Cleaver and of the said Lewis Jones (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Penarth, of the said parish of Cogan and of the said parish of Llandough which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints Penarth situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints Penarth.’

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints Penarth comprising:—

“I. All that part of the parish of Penarth in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff, which is bounded upon the south by the parish of Lavernock in the said county and diocese upon the west and upon the north-west partly by the parish of Cogan and partly by a certain detached portion of the parish of Llandough-juxta-Cardiff both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the north-east and upon the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Cogan from the parish of Penarth aforesaid at a point distant eight chains or thereabouts due west from the junction of Maughan-street with Windsor-road at the centre of the culvert which carries the line of the Penarth and Cadoxton Branch of the Taff Vale Railway over the stream flowing from Ivy Cottage towards Cogan and extending thence first south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of one mile and forty-five chains or thereabouts to a point a little to the south-east of the place called Lower Penarth upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Penarth from the parish of Lavernock aforesaid.

“II. All that contiguous part of the said parish of Cogan which comprises the houses known as Grove-terrace and which is bounded upon the north-west and upon the south by the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Penarth aforesaid upon the east and upon the north partly by the said portion of the parish of Penarth and partly by the above-mentioned detached portion of the parish of Llandough-juxta-Cardiff and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Penarth from the parish of Cogan aforesaid at the point opposite to Ivy Cottage aforesaid where the public footpath leading from Arcot-street and Windsor-road towards Cornetswell intersects the road called or known as Grove-terrace at its northern end, and extending thence
