 1895. T. No. 999.

In the matter of the Trusts of the will of Benjamin Tongue deceased. And in the matter of the Trustee Act 1893 sec. 25 and 26.

TAKE notice that an originating summons was issued in this matter on the 2nd day of July 1895 (to which summons you the said Louis Rhodes and others are respondents) upon the application of William Wilson Frank Wilson Elizabeth Olive Wilson Spinster and Julia Wilson Spinster beneficiaries under the said will for an Order. 1. That without prejudice to the rights of any parties arising out of the specific appropriation of investments to satisfy particular legacies given by the testator's will the said William Wilson and Frank Wilson may be appointed Trustees of the said will of the said Benjamin Tongue deceased in substitution for Frederick Marrows deceased George Penrose deceased and the respondent Louis Rhodes. 2. That the hereditaments and premises respectively comprised in the Indentures of Mortgage mentioned in the schedule to such originating summons or such of the said hereditaments as now remain subject thereto respectively may be vested in the said William Wilson and Frank Wilson for all the estate therein now vested in the respondent Louis Rhodes upon the trusts of the said will but subject to any equity of redemption subsisting therein under the said respective mortgages. 3. And that the right to sue for the moneys secured by the said Indentures of Mortgage respectively and all interest in respect thereof and for the sum of £1,152 4s. 1d. standing in the joint names of the respondents Louis Rhodes and Charles Watson Hill at the Bank of Messrs. Smith Ellison and Co. of the city of Lincoln and such other moneys if any as are standing in such names in such bank and any interest in respect thereof and any chose in action subject to the trusts of the said will and any interest in respect thereof may be vested in the said William Wilson and Frank Wilson as such Trustees. 4 That such further or other Order may be made as to the Court shall seem fit and 5. That the costs of such application may be provided for. Take notice also that by an Order made in the said matter dated 12th day of July 1895 it was ordered that service of the said originating summons by advertisement of notice thereof and of the said Order once in the London Gazette and twice in the Daily Telegraph and Daily News newspapers be deemed good and sufficient service of the said originating summons upon you the said respondent Louis Rhodes. And it was ordered that the time for appearance to the said originating summons be eight days from the day on which the last thereinbefore mentioned advertisement shall appear. Take notice also that if you the said respondent Louis Rhodes do not enter an appearance within the time above mentioned such Order will be made and proceedings taken as the Judge may think just and expedient. An appearance may be entered by you either personally or by Solicitor at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand London.
