

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1895.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of November, 1895.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Marquess of Lansdowne.

WHEREAS by section eighteen of "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is among other things enacted, that, if by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British Possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, direct that such law or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act;

And whereas by an Act of the Governor-General of India in Council entitled "The Extradition (India) Act, 1895," it is provided that "all powers vested in, and Acts authorized or required to be done by, a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, are hereby vested in, and may in British India be exercised and done by, any Presidency Magistrate or District Magistrate in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said Acts";

And whereas it is further provided by the said Extradition (India) Act, 1895, that the said Act shall come into force on such date as the Governor-General in Council shall, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint in this behalf, provided that no such date shall be appointed until Her Majesty shall have been pleased by Order in Council to direct that the said Act shall have effect in British India as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870, and such Order shall have been published in the "Gazette of India";

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Acts contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Extradition (India) Act, 1895, shall have effect in British India without modification or alteration as if it were part of the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873.

And the Right Honourable Lord George Hamilton, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of November, 1895.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Marquess of Lansdowne.

WHEREAS by section two hundred and eighty-four of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is enacted that, where the legislature of any British Possession provides for the survey of, and grant of certificates for, passenger steamers, and the Board of Trade report to Her Majesty the Queen that they are satisfied that the certificates are to the like effect, and are granted after a like survey, and in such manner as to be equally efficient with the certificates granted for the same purpose in the United Kingdom under the said Act, Her Majesty in Council may:—

- (1.) Declare that the certificates granted in the said British Possession shall be of the same force as if granted under the said Act; and
- (2.) Declare that all or any of the provisions of Part III of the said Act which relate to passenger steamers' certificates shall, either without modification or with such modifications as to Her Majesty may seem necessary, apply to the certificates granted in the said British Possession; and
- (3.) Impose such conditions and make such regulations with respect to the certificates, and to the use, delivery, and cancellation thereof, as to Her Majesty may seem fit, and impose fines not exceeding fifty pounds for the breach of those conditions and regulations.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the Legislature of the British Possession of Tasmania has provided for the survey of, and grant of certificates for passenger steamers.

And whereas the Board of Trade have reported to Her Majesty that they are satisfied that such certificates are, as regards sea-going passenger steamers, to the like effect, and are granted after a like survey, and in such manner as to be equally efficient with the certificates granted for the same purpose in the United Kingdom under the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1894.
