AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of November, 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist situate in the parish of Bovey Tracey, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Bovey Tracey which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Bovey Tracey.’

“And with the like consent of the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical

Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Bovey Tracey being:—

“All that part of the parish of Bovey Tracey in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter which is bounded upon the south-west and upon the south by the parish of Ilsington in the said county and diocese and upon all other sides that is to say upon the east upon the north and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Ilsington from the parish of Bovey Tracey aforesaid at a point on the south-western side of the road which leads from Newton Abbot to Bovey Tracey distant thirty yards or thereabouts south-east of the milestone indicating a distance of four miles from Newton Abbot and one mile from Bovey Tracey and extending thence first eastward to a point in the middle of the last-mentioned road and then north-westward along the middle of the same road for a distance of forty-two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries such road over the stream which flows from Newpark Wood and passing a little to the south of Wifford Lodge and Wifford Wood joins the River Bovey, and extending thence first north-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing first the road leading from Teigngrace to Bovey Tracey and then the More-
