The Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890.
Special Resolution.

The Harrierville Gold Mining Company Limited.
Passed 20th November, 1895.
Confirmed 5th December, 1895.

AT an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Members of the above Company, held at the offices of the said Company, No. 6 Queen-street-place, in the city of London, on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1895, the following Special Resolutions were duly passed, and at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the Members of the said Company, held at the said offices of the Company, on Thursday, the 5th day of December, 1895, the said Special Resolutions were duly confirmed, that is to say:—

Resolutions.—1. "That the Harrierville Gold Mining Company, Limited, be wound up voluntarily, and that John Garland, of No. 6 Queen-street-place, London, E.C., Secretary of the Company, be, and is hereby appointed Liquidator for the purpose of such winding up.

2. "That it is desirable in such liquidation to reconstruct the Company, and that the following Scheme of Reconstruction be, and the same is approved, viz.:—

(a) "A New Company to be formed to be called the 'Harrierville Company, Limited,' or by some other suitable name, with a capital of £30,000, divided into 150,000 shares of 4s. each, with a Memorandum and Articles of Association, which have already been approved by the Directors of this Company.

(b) "All the undertaking, property, assets, liabilities and rights of action in this Company, to be made over and transferred to the New Company, and under section 161 of the Companies

Act, 1862, the transfer to be in consideration of:—

(1) "The allotment to the Liquidator of this Company or to his nominee or nominees of 146,330 shares of 4s. each, credited with 2s. paid up on each share, or an allotment of so many of such 146,330 shares as the Liquidator shall apply for, or cause application to be made for within ix calendar months from the date of the Agreement referred to in the third of these Resolutions, or within such extended time as the New Company may agree on with the Liquidator.

(2) "The New Company undertaking all the liabilities of this Company and its Liquidator, including the Liquidator's statutory obligations.

(3) "The New Company paying the costs and expenses of and incidental to the winding-up and reconstruction of this Company (including the remuneration to the Liquidator), and the carrying this Scheme into effect.

(4) "Every Member of this Company complying with the conditions hereinafter contained, shall in respect of each fully paid share held by him in this Company, be entitled to receive from the Liquidator either by transfer or by nomination and allotment at the Liquidator's option, one of the said 146,330 shares in the New Company. The conditions are as follows:—Every Member desiring such shares, and whose registered address is within the United Kingdom, shall within fourteen days after the date of a notice, which will be sent to the Members in accordance with this Company's regulations, and every Member whose address is outside the United Kingdom, shall within three months after the date of a similar notice (and in this respect time shall be of the essence of this Agreement), transmit, as the Liquidator shall in such notice direct, a written application for the number of shares to which he is entitled, addressed to the New Company in the form and manner prescribed by the Liquidator; and in default of such application as aforesaid within the prescribed period, such Member shall be deemed to have absolutely waived and abandoned his right to exchange his shares in this Company for shares in the New Company, and all rights whatever to such new shares in respect of his holding in this Company. The Liquidator is hereby directed to dispose of such of the said shares as shall not be so applied for as aforesaid, and in making such disposition he shall not be treated as a Trustee for or in any fiduciary relation to the said Members or to the New Company but shall have full discretionary power of selling and transferring the same to any person or persons at such prices, if any, and on such terms and conditions as the Liquidator may think fit, and it shall not be necessary to first offer such surplus shares to the shareholders of this Company, and the New Company shall be entitled to retain all shares not applied for by the Liquidator or his nominee within six months from the date of the Agreement referred to in the third of these Resolutions. If the Liquidator shall obtain any premium for the shares to which Members of this Company, other than dissentients, would have been entitled had they applied for the same as aforesaid, such premiums, less the costs and expenses of realization, shall belong to such Members, provided that if any of such Members shall fail to claim his share of the proceeds within the time to be fixed by the Liquidator for that purpose, the Liquidator may pay the amount thereof to the New Company. Every Member shall pay the sum of 6d. per share on application, and the remaining 1s. 6d. per share as and when required, in calls of not more than 6d. each, and made payable at intervals of not less than three months. Every Member applying as above shall, on the form of application above-mentioned, agree to pay the above amounts, and shall, on allotment, deliver up to the Liquidator his certificate for shares in this Company.

3. "That the draft Agreement already prepared, and expressed to be made between this Company and its Liquidator of the one part, and the New Company of the other part be, and the same is hereby approved, and the Liquidator be, and he is hereby authorized in pursuance of section 161 of the Companies Act, 1862, and of all other powers (if any) enabling him in that behalf to enter into an Agreement with such New Company, when incorporated, in the terms of the said draft, and to carry the same into effect with such, if any, modifications as he may deem expedient.

4. "That in the event of the Liquidator not being able to carry through the reconstruction with or without any such modifications as he may deem it expedient or be empowered to consent to, the winding up of the Company be carried through by him in the ordinary course."

Dated this 5th day of December, 1895.
