Act, the draft of an Order in Council for fixing the Light Dues payable by vessels proceeding from ports in the United Kingdom through the North Sea and Baltic Canal, or to ports therein or coming through the said canal, or from ports therein to ports in the United Kingdom.

And notice is hereby further given that, in accordance with the provisions of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, copies of the proposed draft Order in Council can be obtained by any public body, within forty days of the date of this notice, at the Privy Council Office, Whitehall.

St. James's Palace, December 16, 1895.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint General Sir Michael Anthony Shrapnel Biddulph, G.C.B., to be one of Her Majesty's Gentlemen Ushers Daily Waiters, in the room of Admiral the Honourable Sir James Robert Drummond, G.C.B., deceased.

Whitehall, December 10, 1895.

THE Queen has been pleased to grant unto William Beswick Myers, of Gristhorpe, in the parish of Filey, in the county of York, and of Avenue-road, in the parish of Hampstead, in the county of London, Gentleman, a Member of the Institution of Civil Engineers, Lord of the Manor of Gristhorpe, Her Royal licence and authority that he may take and henceforth use the surname of Beswick in addition to and after that of Myers, and bear the arms of Beswick; the said arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in the said College of Arms.
