FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACTS, 1878 to 1891.

WHEREAS by Section 8 (1) of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1891, it is enacted that:—
 "Where the Secretary of State certifies that in his opinion any machinery or process or particular description of manual labour used in a factory or workshop (other than a domestic workshop) is dangerous or injurious to health, or dangerous to life or limb, either generally or in the case of women, children, or any other class of persons, or that the provision for the admission of fresh air is not sufficient, or that the quantity of dust generated or inhaled in any factory or workshop is dangerous or injurious to health, the Chief Inspector may serve on the occupier of the factory or workshop a notice in writing, either proposing such special rules or requiring the adoption of such special measures as appear to the Chief Inspector to be reasonably practicable and to meet the necessities of the case."

Now I, the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby certify that in my opinion such processes as are named in the Schedule hereunder, are dangerous or injurious to health.

M. W. Ridley.
