

SUPPLEMENT
TO
The London Gazette
Of TUESDAY, the 3rd of MARCH.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4, 1896.

Pay Office, Supreme Court of Judicature, Royal Courts of Justice, March 4, 1896.

THE Supreme Court Funds Rules of 1886 (Rule 101) provide that on or before the 1st day of March in every third year the Paymaster shall prepare, in such form and with such particulars as the Treasury may from time to time direct, a list or statement of the accounts in the books of the Pay Office to the credit of which there stood on the 1st day of September then next preceding any funds not less than £50, which have not been dealt with, otherwise than by the continuous investment or placing on deposit of dividends, during the 15 years immediately preceding the last-mentioned date. The said list or statement shall be filed in the Central Office, and a copy thereof shall be inserted in the London Gazette and exhibited in the several Offices of the Court.

In pursuance of the above Rule, the following Alphabetical List of Accounts that have not been dealt with since 1st September, 1877 (with cross-references to the sub-titles of the several accounts), is published for general information, viz. :—

The Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice ..	pages	1351 to 1533
The Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice (including the late Common Pleas and Exchequer Divisions and Courts)	pages	1534 to 1536
The Probate, Divorce, and Admiralty Division of the High Court of Justice	page	1536
The Funds formerly in the hands of the Queen's Remembrancer	page	1536

In order to remove misconception which appears to exist as to the magnitude of the funds represented by this list, it may be stated that, of the Balances standing to the credit of the accounts, one-half do not exceed £150, and only one-sixteenth exceed £1,000.

Attention is also directed to the following particulars with respect to the mode of procedure by which any action is to be taken, or any information obtained, relating to these funds :—

(1.) The only authorized list of such funds is that included in the present Supplement to the London Gazette of March 4, 1896 (of which copies may be obtained from Messrs. T. and J. W. Harrison, 47, St. Martin's-lane, London, W.C., at the price of One Shilling each).

The public are cautioned against relying upon any information other than that derived from official sources, or upon the statements of persons styling themselves "unclaimed money agents," who profess to act on behalf of the Court of Chancery, and exact a high percentage on any sum recovered through their means. The Supreme Court of Judicature has no such agents.

* Applications (to Messrs. T. and J. W. Harrison) for copies of the Gazette to be sent abroad must enclose stamps to cover postage, in addition to the cost of the Gazette.
