Whitehall, March 10, 1896.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to The Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Provost and College Masters and Scholars of Eton, humbly desire to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our deep sympathy on the sad occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G.

It is, we trust, a source of consolation to Your Majesty and Your Majesty's Royal Daughter in Her bereavement to feel that the late lamented Prince met His death in the discharge of His duty to Your Majesty and His adopted country, and that the high spirit and devotion to duty, which is characteristic of His Royal Highness's family, has received fresh illustration and an additional record from the last acts of His Royal Highness's life. It is an occasion which has drawn out in an especial degree the respectful sympathy and dutiful loyalty of Your Majesty's subjects.

While humbly assuring Your Majesty how deeply we share these feelings, we join in earnest prayer that God will strengthen and support Your Majesty and Your Majesty's bereaved Daughter with the consolations and blessings which alone can alleviate this heavy trial.
