Marks.

(2) Law of Evidence ; (3) Law of the Constitution ; (4) Criminal Law ; (5) Law of Real Property ; and of these five subjects Candidates shall be at liberty to offer any four, but not more than four ... 500

Candidates will be at liberty to offer themselves for examination in any or all of these subjects. No subjects are obligatory.

The marks assigned to Candidates in each branch (except in Mathematics and English Composition) will be subject to such deduction as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that "a Candidate be allowed no credit at all for taking up a subject in which he is a mere smatterer."

3. Application for permission to attend one of these Examinations must be made in the writing of the Candidate, at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

4. A fee of £6 will be required from every Candidate attending an Examination.

5. Out of the list resulting from each Examination will be filled (provided there be Candidates duly qualified) :—

(a.) All the vacancies in Class I which may have been reported to the Civil Service Commissioners up to the date of the announcement of the result of the Examination :

(b.) Any additional vacancies occurring within six months from the date of the announcement of the result of the Examination, which the Head of the Department may desire to have so filled.

Candidates will be allowed to choose, according to their place on the list, among the vacancies (a) for which they are duly qualified ; or they may elect to wait for the chance of a vacancy (b). When vacancies (b) occur, they will be offered in rotation to the qualified Candidates then on the list, who will be free to decline them without forfeiting their claim to subsequent vacancies (b).

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for Clerkships (Class I) in the Civil Service will be held in London, under the foregoing Regulations commencing on the 3rd August, 1896.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 10th of July, an application in the Candidate's own handwriting on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
