AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-fifth and forty-sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "The Militia Act, 1882," it is, amongst other things, enacted that Her Majesty may, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order the calling out of all or any part of the Militia to be dispensed with:

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to dispense with the calling out of the undermentioned units of Militia:—

The Glamorgan Artillery, Western Division,
Royal Artillery,
The Royal Monmouthshire Militia Engineers,
Fortress Forces, Royal Engineers,
The Fourth Battalion Devonshire Regiment,
and

The Third Battalion Welsh Regiment, and to direct that there shall be no training and exercise thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby dispense with the calling out of the four Militia units referred to, and doth order and direct that there shall be no training and exercise thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and that this Order be published in the London Gazette.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-second day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three: After reciting (amongst other things) that by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act 1855," it was enacted that in any case in which any Lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, had been or should be thereafter erected or placed on or near the coasts of any British Possession by or with the consent of the Legislative Authority of such Possession, Her Majesty might by Order in Council fix such dues in respect thereof to be paid by the owner or master of every ship which passes the same or derives benefit therefrom as Her Majesty might deem reasonable, and might in like manner from time to time increase, diminish, or repeal such dues, and that from the time specified in such Order for the commencement of the dues thereby fixed, increased, or diminished, the same should be leviable throughout Her Majesty's dominions in manner thereinafter mentioned:

And reciting that Lighthouses had, by and with the consent of the Legislative Authority of the Colony of Ceylon, been constructed and placed on the Great Basses Rock and on the Little Basses Rock in the said Colony, and a light had been exhibited from each of such Lighthouses:

And reciting that it was proposed to construct a Lighthouse on the Island of Minicoy between the Maldive and the Laccadive Islands, and to exhibit a light therefrom:

And reciting that the Legislative Authorities of India, Ceylon, the Straits Settlements, and Mauritius had given such consents as were necessary either to the erection of the Lighthouses or to the collection of dues in respect thereof:

And reciting section 10 of "The Public Works Loans Act, 1881," which provided (amongst other things) that so long as any money was due to the Public Works Loan Commissioners on account of any loan under that section, the dues payable in respect of the Great Basses Lighthouse and the Little Basses Lighthouse, or the Minicoy Lighthouse should be altered only with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:

And reciting that it was expedient that provision should be made for the payment of such of the said dues as might be payable in India, Ceylon, the Straits Settlements, and Mauritius, including the Seychelles Islands, in the currency of the respective countries in which they are payable:

And reciting that the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury had signified their consent to the dues specified in the two Schedules annexed to the Order now in recital:

And reciting that the several classes of ships therein particularly specified would pass the said Great Basses Lighthouse and the said Little Basses Lighthouse, and would derive benefit therefrom:

And reciting that the several classes of ships therein also particularly specified would pass the said Minicoy Lighthouse and would derive benefit therefrom:

Her Majesty, by the said Order now in recital, was pleased to direct that from and after the date of such Order the dues specified in the Schedule marked A, therunto annexed, should be levied
