

a site for a church to be erected within and for the above proposed district when duly constituted and has also provided and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a part of a sum of two thousand pounds as a guarantee for the erection of the said proposed church.

“And whereas the Reverend Rathbone Hartley of Simpson Hill Heywood aforesaid, Clerk in Holy Orders, has provided and paid to the credit of our account as aforesaid the remaining and major part of the said sum of two thousand pounds.

“And whereas the said church site has been so conveyed and the said sum of two thousand pounds has been so provided and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district and when it shall have become a new parish then of the said new parish should be assigned in the manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas the said Ellinor Kay and the said Rathbone Hartley have nominated to us the person to whom they desire that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish should be assigned the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme all that part of the said new parish of Saint Martin, Castleton Moor which is described in the Schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of All Souls, Castleton.’ And with the like consent we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district of All Souls Castleton and when it shall have become a new parish then of the said new parish shall be assigned to and be vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester and his successors for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of All Souls, Castleton being:—

“All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Martin, Castleton Moor within the original limits of the parish of Rochdale in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded upon the south-west partly by the new parish of Saint Mary Birch and partly by the new parish of Saint Luke Heywood both in the said county and diocese, upon the north-west partly by the last-named new parish partly by a certain detached portion of the parish of Middleton in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by the new parish of Saint Michael Bamford in the same county and diocese, upon the north and upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Clement Spotland in the said county and diocese upon the east by the new parish of Saint Alban Rochdale in the said county and diocese and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Alban Rochdale from the new parish of Saint Martin, Castleton Moor aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Sudden Brook about three chains to the south-east of the south-eastern side of the building known as the Marland Dye Works and due north of the centre of the culvert which carries Bury-road over the stream called or known as Red Sea Brook and extending thence in a direction due south and in a straight line for a distance of six and a quarter chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the Reservoir situate to the west of Littlefields Cotton Mill) to the southern end of the said culvert on the southern side of Bury-road aforesaid and extending thence first southward and then south-westward to and along the middle of the said Red Sea Brook for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts to the point at the southern corner of the close numbered two hundred and fourteen upon the map of the Ordnance Survey on the $\frac{1}{25000}$ scale published in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three and upon the map hereunto annexed where the said Red Sea Brook issues from a pipe or culvert and extending thence still south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts (thereby passing to the south-east of Chamber House) to the point opposite to the north-eastern end of the buildings and premises called or known as France Hill where the road or footpath leading from the Plough Inn at Marland past Matthew Moss Farm branches into two roads or footpaths both leading into Chadwick-lane and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the middle of the western branch of the same road or footpath for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Chadwick-lane aforesaid and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to a point distant one mile in a direct line from Saint Luke's Church Heywood upon the boundary which divides the Local Board District of Castleton-by-Rochdale from the municipal borough of Heywood which boundary here coincides with the boundary between the Middleton and Heywood Parliamentary Divisions of South-East Lancashire as laid down in the seventh schedule to ‘The Redistribution of Seats Act 1885’ and extending thence southward along the said municipal and parliamentary boundary for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts (thereby passing between the house called or known as Heys and the house called or known as Wilderness) to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Martin Castleton Moor from the new parish of Saint Mary Birch aforesaid.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the new parish of Saint Martin Castleton Moor out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron has signified his assent to such scheme.

And whereas the Reverend Joseph Chadwick Bates the Incumbent of such new parish has offered certain objections to the said scheme,

And whereas notwithstanding such objections the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and
