RULES PUBLICATION ACT, 1893.

THE following Rules of the Supreme Court are published pursuant to the above-mentioned Act :

Copies of the Rules may be obtained from the Queen's Printer.

LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANIES (PAYMENT INTO COURT) ACT, 1896.

1. An assurance company desiring to make a payment into Court under the Act shall cause an affidavit, by its Secretary, or other authorized officer, to be filed, intituled "In the matter of the Policy No. , effected with [here give the name of the company] and in the matter of the Act," and setting forth :—

(a.) A short description of the policy and a statement of the persons entitled thereunder, according to the terms of the policy, with the names and addresses of such persons, so far as the same are known to the Company.

(b.) A short statement of the notices received by the Company claiming an interest in or title to the money assured, the dates when such notices were received, the dates of withdrawal of such notices, if any, as have been withdrawn; and the names, and, except as to notices withdrawn, the addresses, so far as the same are known to the Company, of the persons by whom such notices have been given.

(c.) A statement that, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, no sufficient discharge can be obtained otherwise than by payment into Court under the Act.

(d.) The submission by the Company to pay into Court such further sum, if any, whether for interest or otherwise, as the Court or a Judge may direct, and to pay any costs which the Court or a Judge may consider under the circumstances of the case ought to be paid by the Company.

(e.) An undertaking by the Company forthwith to transmit to the Paymaster any notice of claim received by the Company after the making of the affidavit, with a letter referring to the title of the affidavit.

(f.) The place where the Company may be served with any petition, summons, order, or notice of any proceeding relating to the money.

2. The Company shall not deduct any costs or expenses of or incidental to the payment into Court.

3. No payment shall be made into Court under the Act where any action to which the Company is a party is pending in relation to the policy or the moneys thereby assured except by leave of the Judge to be obtained by summons in the action.

4. The Company shall forthwith give notice of such payment, by prepaid letter through the post, to the several persons appearing by the affidavit to be entitled to or interested in the money assured and paid into Court, or to have given notice of claim to the Company, except where the notice has been withdrawn, and except so far as the name or address of any such person is unknown to the Company.

5. Any person claiming to be entitled to or interested in the money paid into Court may apply in the Chancery Division, by petition or, where the amount does not exceed £1,000, by summons in respect thereof.

6. No petition or summons relating to the money shall be answered or issued unless the applicant has named therein a place where he may be served with any petition or summons, or notice of any proceeding or order relating to the money.

7. Unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise direct, the applicant shall not, except when he asks for payment of a further sum or costs by the Company, serve such petition or summons on the Company, but shall serve the same on or give notice thereof to every person appearing by the affidavit on which payment into Court was made to be entitled to, or interested in, or to have a claim upon the money, or who has given any further notice which has been transmitted to the Paymaster as aforesaid.

8. These Rules shall come into operation on the 1st day of August, 1895.

9. These Rules may be cited as the Rules of the Supreme Court (Life Assurance Companies), 1896.

Signed and certified to be urgent the 29th of July 1896.

RULES PUBLICATION ACT, 1893.

THE following draft Rule of the Supreme Court is published pursuant to the above-mentioned Act:

Copies of the Rule may be obtained from the Queen's Printer.

Rules of the Supreme Court.

ORDER XVI.—Rule 1.

Substitute the following for the first sentence of the existing Rule ending with the word "alternative":—

All persons may be joined in one action as plaintiffs, in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction or series of transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly severally or in the alternative, where if such persons brought separate actions any common question of law or fact would arise; provided that, if upon the application of any defendant it shall appear that such joinder may embarrass or delay the trial of the action, the Court or a Judge may order separate trials, or make such other order as may be expedient. And judgment may be given for such one, &c.

In the Matter of the Bankruptcy Acts, 1883 and 1890.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the Board of Trade on the 31st day of March, 1890, George Wreford was appointed to be an Official Receiver of the Bankruptcy District of the High Court, and by such Order it was (inter alia) directed that as regards all Bankruptcy proceedings in which the initial of the first surname of the debtor or debtors was any of the letters A to De, the said George Wreford should be constituted Official Receiver of the estate of the debtors in such proceedings.

And whereas the said George Wreford has resigned his said office of Official Receiver. Now therefore the Board of Trade do hereby appoint Edwin Leadam Hough to be Official Receiver of Debtors' Estates for the said Bankruptcy District of the High Court, in succession to the said George Wreford, as from the 31st day of July, 1896, being the date on which the said George Wreford vacates his said office. And it is hereby further ordered:

(a.) As regards the bankruptcy proceedings instituted under the Bankruptcy Act, 1883, which at the said last-mentioned date are pending in the High Court, and in which the said George Wreford was or is constituted Official or Interim Receiver, that the said Edwin Leadam Hough shall be the Official Receiver of the estates of the debtors in such proceedings, and discharge the duties of Official Receiver in relation to such estates in immediate succession to the said George Wreford, in addition to the similar duties already devolving on the said Edwin Leadam Hough in respect of bankruptcy proceedings in which the initial of the first surname of the debtor or debtors is any of the letters Ke to Ri.

(b.) As regards all bankruptcy proceedings which from and after the vacation of his office by the said George Wreford shall be instituted in or be transferred to the High Court under the Bankruptcy Acts, 1883 and 1890, that the said Edwin Leadam Hough shall, in respect of the said bankruptcy proceedings in which the initial of the first surname of the debtor or debtors is any of the said letters A to De and Ke to Ri, be the Official Receiver who shall be constituted Official Receiver of the estates of the debtors in such proceedings.

Dated this 30th day of July, 1896.

Chas. T. Ritchie, President.

FORESHORE AT WICKLOW.

REMOVAL OF MATERIALS PROHIBITED.

WHEREAS the Board of Trade, acting in pursuance of "The Harbours Act, 1814," as amended by "The Harbours Transfer Act, 1852," find it necessary for the protection of the port of Dublin to prohibit the taking or removing of any shingle or ballast from the shore at Wicklow, between points 250 yards and 1,550 yards, respectively, north of the west end of the Steam Packet Pier at Wicklow, being within the said port:

Now the Board of Trade do hereby, by this Order, prohibit the taking or removing of any shingle or ballast from the shore at Wicklow between the points above-mentioned.

Courtney Boyle,

Secretary to the Board of Trade.

Dated the 24th day of July, 1896.

NOTE.—Any person removing shingle or ballast in contravention of this Notice is liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding £10.
