

The London Gazette.

Numb. 2677

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 6. to Thursday July 9. 1691.

Rome, June 23.

THE Affairs of the Conclave continue much in the same state we told you in our last, the Cardinals being divided, that they cannot yet come to an Election; The Zealots made this last week a fresh effort for the Promotion of Barberigo, and at one of the Scrutinies he had 35 Voices, among which were 8 of Altieri's Party; The French seemed one while to favour Barberigo, in which their design was only to give the Spaniards a handle, and thereby withdraw their Voices from him, but not taking effect, they have since openly declared against him. Acciaoli is now much spoken of, as a Person that is acceptable both to the Spaniards and the French, and well liked by the Zealots in case they cannot prevail for Barberigo. The Gallies of Sicily are gone with Soldiers to Final, a Spanish Garison on the Coast of Tuscany.

Turin, June 23. The Duke of Schonberg arrived here on the 18th instant, being received with great marks of Honour and Respect. The Governor of Milan is likewise come hither, and has given his Royal Highness new assurances of great Supplies. The Garison of Coni, which is besieged by the French under the command of the Marquis de Feuquieres, makes a very brave defence, and has repulsed the Enemy in several attacks, with the loss of a great many of their men, insomuch that Monsieur Catinat found it necessary to send them a Reinforcement. Six thousand Germans are expected here by the end of this month.

Milan, June 27. We are assured, that the Treaty with the Duke of Mantua is ratified; and that there are 1000 men already at work to demolish Gazzolo. The Imperial and Bavarian Regiments, that are coming to the assistance of the Duke of Savoy, advance with all the diligence possible, and the foremost of them are daily expected at Cune. Upon the news of the approach of these Succors, Monsieur Catinat keeps in his Posts on the Po, without attempting the Relief of Cozal, as 'twas said he design'd. But the Marquis de Feuquieres with part of the Army besieges Coni, where he meets with a vigorous Resistance.

Venice, June 29. The Senate have made choice of General Digenfelt to command the Land Forces of this State, and he will set out very speedily for the Levant.

Vienna, July 1. On Friday last we received Letters from Sir William Hussy, Ambassador from Their Majesties of Great-Britain to the Ottoman Port, dated the 15th of the last month at Adrianople; They give an account of his arrival at Adrianople the latter end of May, having been received in all the places through which he passed with extraordinary Honours, particularly at Belgrade the Seraphier waited upon him to his Bark, a thing unusual in Turkey, and scarcely ever before known. On the 29th of May the Grand Signior and the Grand Visier arrived at Adrianople; The Visier stayed not in the Town but went straight to his Tents, which were pitched at a League and a half distant from it; He did not wait for Sir William's Compliment, as is usual, but sent the Chiaus Bassa to let him know, that his stay would be but short, and to invite him to an Audience, to which he was conducted with more marks of Respect and distinction than have been formerly shewn to other Ambassadors, the Turks all the way as he went saluting him with Wishes for the Success of his Mediation: The Visier likewise received the offer of it with great satisfaction, applauding the Generous Friendship of the King of England, in interposing to stop the Bloody Effects of this long War, and expressing a great Readiness to conclude a Peace upon reasonable Terms. After this Audience, Sir William Hussy, at the Visier's desire, dispatched Count Lodewick Marciho, (who went from hence with his Excellency as Secretary of the Embassy) to give this Court an account of his Reception, and what the Grand Visier had said to his Proposals. This Express made the Voyage in 13 days, being attended by a Chiaus to Belgrade, where the Seraphier, to express the Satisfaction he had in his Errand, presented him with the Sabre he wore by his Side. Since his coming hither several Conferences have been held upon this Subject, and 'tis said, that in 2 or 3 days Prince Louis will go to the Army with full Power to Treat and Conclude the Peace. Sir William Hussy writes likewise, that the Visier intended to move the next day towards Sophia, and that it was likely he should follow him. We hear from Buda, that the Turks are all retired beyond the Save.

Frankfort, July 8. By Letters from the Palatinate we have advice, that the Confederate Army had passed the Rhin. Yesterday arrived here the Elector Palatine, with the Elestoreis and their whole Court, in their Journey towards Dusseldorp, being received by the Barghers in Arms, and a discharge of all the Cannon round the Town.

Cologne, July 10. We have an account from Mantua, that the French have taken the Castle of Algheser without that City, the Garison of 60 men were slain upon Articles, after they had spent all their Powder, and killed above 100 of the Enemy, and amongst the rest two Generals. The French Army, since the discovery of their Correspondence with the Imperial Commission at Mentz, are decamped from Neder-Ulm, and are marched to Creutzmarch, where the Marschal de Lorge has posted himself, having countermanded the 4 Regiments which were sent on the first instant from Neder-Ulm, to reinforce the Marquis de Bluffers on the Muse. A Party of the Garison of Montroyal has within this 2 or 3 days burnt several Villages in the Country of Eyffelt. The Troops of Nisibours marched on the 7th instant from Juliers towards Dueren.

Paris, July 6. The news of the great disorder things are in at Constantinople gives this Court no small disturbance, apprehending the Turks will be obliged to conclude a sudden Peace, or else that the Germans will have an opportunity of making great Progresses this Campaign in Hungary. The advices too from Piedmont do not please us; They say, that the Besieged in Coni, among whom are a great many Vaudois and French Protestants under the command of Colonel Julien, do very bravely defend themselves, having killed a great many of our men in the attack of a Half Moon, which we took twice, and was as often retaken by the Besieged; and the Letters from the Camp of the 28 past tell us, that they had made a Sally with 2000 men, and had regained all their Outworks with the loss of above 1000 of our Men, and divers Officers. They write from our Army in Germany, that the Marschal de Lorge had sent a Detachment of 2 Battalions, 2 Regiments of Horse, and one of Dragoons, with 10 Pieces of Cannon, towards the Muse.

Brussels, July 11. The King of England lyes still with the Confederate Army at Gembours, but the Great Cannon

non being by this time arrived at Namur, it is believed His Majesty will decamp in 2 or 3 days. The Duke of Luembourg quitted on the 8th instant his Camp at Estienne St. Pierre, and marched to Saignes, where he still continues. On the 9th our Governor-General, with a Detachment from the Confederate Army, came and encamped within a League of this City, where he will form a Body of 10000 men to be drawn out of the neighbouring Garrisons. From Leige of the 8th they write, that the Troops of Brandenburg, which are still in that Country, with those of Neubourg and Hesse Cassel, were drawing together under the command of the Marechal de Camp Le Baron de Fleming. The Marquis de Boufflers was still encamped near Charlemont. We hear, that a very dangerous Conspiracy has been lately discovered at Bruges, which was carried on by one of the Burghers and his Accomplices, in order to betray that place to the French, and that the Conspirators are all seized. The Letters from Madrid of the 27th past inform us, that the Comte d'Orpèda, was commanded to retire from the Court, and that the King had made the Comte de Margat, the Marquis d'Aquilar, the Duke de Palmarin, the Duke de Montaño, the Marquis de Esorgemans, Don Pedro de Ronquillo his Ambassador in England, and the Marquis de Villa Franca of the Council of State.

From the King's Camp at Gembours, July 12. Yesterday arrived at Namur part of our Artillery from Masstricht, and the rest will be there to morrow, (the whole Train consisting of 70 great Cannon, besides lesser Pieces and Mortars,) after which 'tis believed we shall decamp from hence in a day or two. The French Army lies between Mons and Saignes, their Head Quarter being at the last of these places. Two or three days ago a Spy was taken in our Camp, who, as such, is sentenced to be Hang'd, but not yet Executed, there being some reason to believe, that he can make considerable Discoveries, upon which he has been twice Examined.

By an Express from Vienna we have an account, of Sir William Huffey's arrival at Adrianople, and the great Inclination the Grand Visier had expressed to a Peace, a Project whereof was sent to the Emperor for his Approbation; And Prince Louis of Baden was thereupon going to Hungary with full Power to conclude it:

Hague, July 13. You have already had an account, that the French had besieged Comi ever since the 15th of the last month; 'Tis a Town situated at the end of the Plains of Piedmont towards the Mountains of Nice, and though it is but slightly fortified, yet hath made a very vigorous defence by the Valour and good Conduct of the Comte de Bernex and the Marquis de Voguer, who threw themselves into the place with a Reinforcement of 1500 men in the view of the Enemy. The Duke of Savoy, to relieve so many brave men, detached on the 26th past Prince Eugene of Savoy with 3000 Horse, and 1000 Hussars, with orders to favour the place; This we had an account of by Letters of the 27th from Turin; and this day by those from Paris we have advice, that the Marquis de Lequesne, who commanded at the Siege of Comi, upon the notice he received, that Prince Eugene was coming with a Body of Troops to the Relief of the Town, had halted the Siege, and was retired with 15 much halfe and precipitant, that he had been forced to leave behind him 2000 sick and wounded men, with part of his Cannon, 20000 Barrels of Bread, and 500 Sacks of Corn; The French lost above 1200 Men in this Siege. And these Letters they likewise, that the Vaudou had taken a great Convey of Provisions that was going from Pignerol to Montfieur Carin's Camp at Carignan. The Letters from Vienna of the first instant give a prospect of a speedy Peace with the Turks, telling us, that an Express was arrived there from the English Ambassador at Adrianople with the Project of it, and that Prince Louis was thereupon going to Hungary with full Power to conclude it. The Letters from Germany say, that the Confederate Army had passed the Rhine at Manheim.

London, July 8. On Sunday last the Most Reverend Father in God Dr. John Sharp Lord Archbishop of York, and the Right Reverend Fathers in God Dr. John Moore Lord Bishop of Norwich, Dr. Richard Cumberland Lord Bishop of Peterborough, and Dr. Edward Fowler Lord Bishop of Gloucester, were Consecrated at St. Mary le Bow by the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Bishops of Windsor, Salisbury, Worcester, Ely, and Bristol, with the usual Order and Solemnity; The Ceremony of the Bishop of Ely's Translation, with that of the Confirmation of the other Bishops before-mentioned, having been performed the Thursday before at the said Church of St. Mary le Bow with the accustomed Formalities.

Whereas several Tinmen, and others, having been employed by the Patentees for the New-Lights, and thereby attained to the skill of making of Candles, do pretend to furnish divers persons with the said Lights, to the prejudice of the Patentees, (who have expended great sums of Money in contriving and perfecting this useful Invention) and to the deceit of the Persons dealing with them; and likewise have falsely pretended, that they are employed on, and act for, the Patentees: These are to certify, that no Persons will be employed by the Patentees, but such as have an Authority under their Hands and Seals; and that the Patentees do meet at Stationers-hall within Ludgate every Tuesday and Friday at 6 in the Afternoon, where all Persons may be accommodated with the said Lights.

Advertisements.

 The Essays or Counsels, Civil and Moral, of Sir Francis Bacon, Lord Verulam, Viscount St. Alban, with a Table of the Colours of Good and Evil: Wherunto is added, The Wisdom of the Ancients. Sold by James Knapton at the Crown in St. Pauls Church-yard.

At Rolis Coffee-house on the North-side of St. Pauls Church, on Monday next the 13th instant, will be sold by Auction an excellent Collection of Gr. Lat. and English Books in all Faculties, especially Civil Law, Common Law, and History, being the Library of an excellent Civilian deceased; also a choice Collection of Plays and good Pamphlets will be sold in bundles, and bound in Volsomes. Catalogues are given at Mr. Munday's Court-hill, Mr. Bullards in St. Pauls Church-yard, at the Coffee-houses near Doctors-Commons, Mr. Goodwills against St. Dunstons Church in Fleet-street, Mr. Partridges at Charing-crois, and at the place of Sale.

Whereas a Robbery was lately committed at Sir Edmund Warrford's house at Severhampton in Wiltshire, and one David Hill, formerly a Servant of the said Sir Edmund Warrford, being suspected to be concerned in the said Robbery, he is a Kentish young man near Canterbury, being well made, with a downish Lock, black Eyes, a round whitish Face, blackish Hair, and a large Scar on his Cheek near his Mouth. Whoever secures him, and gives notice to Mr. John Frazell at the White-Dragon between Finsbury Rents and Grays-Inn-Gate in Holborn, London, shall have 5 Guineas Reward, and Charges.

Whereas Robert Gerish of Broughton, a short well-set man, marked with the Small-pox, aged about 30; John Symms of the same, middle statured, with light colored bushy Hair, aged about 40; Robert May of Semington, a well-set man, with short light colored Hair, having but one Eye, aged about 25; John Parker alias Merchant Parker, of Bath, a short well-set man, with brown Hair, aged about 40; Richard Slade, late of Bristol, Tapster, a well-set man, curled black Hair, a high forehead, aged about 40; Richard Sampson, a pretty tall thin man, with blackish curled Hair, pale faced, and a down Look, aged about 40; John Gay, a tall well-set man, with straight brown Hair, long Visaged, and a pale Countenance, aged about 40; John Hayward, middle statured, well-set, a long pale Visage, with fringed brown Hair, aged about 25; Anthonie Firley, a short well-set man, with light-brown Hair, aged about 30; William Pake, a little thin meagre-look'd man, aged about 40; and John Gerish, a tall man, with curled reddish Hair, aged about 20; have (several others) broke open the House of Bernard Pevier of Crates in Wiltshire, Etc, and taken from thence several Sums of Money. Whoever secures them, and gives notice to Mr. Robert Sloper of Clements-Inn near the Strand, London, shall have 5 Guineas Reward for each, and Charges.

A Tall slim Youth, with lank light-brown Hair, aged about 18, of a fresh Complexion, with a long Roman Nose, Servant to Mr. John Young of Westminster, Dancing-master; Kidney on the 4th instant with 95 Guineas, on a white Neck with hands, with a Blood-Spavings on the inside of his hind Legs, and a Horn Mare. Whoever secures him, and gives notice to the Buffalo-Head Tavern in King-street, Westminster, shall have 5 Guineas Reward, and Charges.

Drop the 3d instant, between the Cross-Keys in Holborn at the Temple-Gate, a Gold Pendulum Minute-Watch, ask by Jacobus Markwick, London. Whoever brings it to Mr. Markwick at the Black-Boy against St. Dunstons Church in Fleet-street, shall have 3 l. Reward: Or if bought, their Money again, and reasonable Charges.

Newcastle Cut-Glass, good and sizable, may be had at 100 per Hundred Foot. Apply your selves to John Tynard at the Glass Warehouse near the Old-Swan-Stairs before Noon, or at the Barbadoes Coffee-house in Exchange-Alley in Exchange-T