THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

WAREHAM FAIRS.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:—

A representation has been duly made to me by the Town Council of Wareham that Fairs, of which such Council are owners, have been hitherto held in the borough of Wareham, in the county of Dorset, on the third Tuesday in April and the second Tuesday in September in each year, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fairs should be held on the third Tuesday in April and the second Thursday in September in each year.

On the 10th day of October, 1896, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate before that day any objections they may desire to offer to the above proposal.

M. W. Ridley.

Whitehall, September 8, 1896.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

LEICESTER (HUMBERSTONE GATE) FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Council of the borough of Leicester, that Fairs, of which such Council are owners, have been held in Humberstone Gate, in the said borough of Leicester, on the 12th day of May and six succeeding days, and on the 10th day of October and six succeeding days in each year; and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fairs should, for the future, be held for four days (exclusive of Sunday), commencing on the second Thursday in the months of May and October in each year respectively.

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I should take the same into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873."

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the time for the holding of the said Fairs should be altered as proposed:

Now therefore I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act 1873," do hereby order that the Fairs which have been hitherto held in Humberstone Gate, in the borough of Leicester, on the 12th day of May and six succeeding days, and on the 10th day of October and six succeeding days in each year, shall, for the future, be held for four days (exclusive of Sunday) commencing on the second Thursday in the months of May and October in each year respectively.

This Order shall not come into force until after the ensuing October Fair.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 8th day of September, 1896.

M. W. Ridley.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 11TH SEPTEMBER 1896.)

WANDSWORTH DISTRICT (SWINE-FEVER) ORDER OF 1896.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Restriction on Movement of Swine out of or into Scheduled District.

1. Swine shall not be moved out of or into the District described in the Schedule to this Order and hereinafter referred to as the Scheduled District, except as expressly authorized by this Order.

Movement of Swine out of Scheduled District for Immediate Slaughter.

2.—(1.) Swine (not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place and their movement not being prohibited by Notice of an Inspector of a Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board) may be moved out of the Scheduled District in a suitable vehicle to a slaughter-house in the county of London for the purpose of immediate slaughter with a Movement Licence of the London County Council which Licence shall be in force for not more than two days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place or premises from which and the slaughter-house to which the swine are to be moved.

(2.) The swine shall, before the movement is commenced, be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

(3.) The swine moved out of the Scheduled District under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence required by this Article, and shall be moved by the nearest available route and shall be slaughtered after their arrival at the slaughter-house without unnecessary delay.

Cleansing and Disinfection of Vehicle used for Movement of Swine.

3.—(1.) Any vehicle which has been used for the conveyance of swine under the preceding Article, shall immediately after each occasion of such use be cleansed and disinfected by and at the expense of the owner of the vehicle as follows:

(i.) The floor of the vehicle and all other parts thereof with which the swine, or their droppings, have come in contact shall be scraped and swept, and the scrapings and sweepings, and all dung, sawdust, litter, and other matter shall be effectually removed therefrom; then

(ii.) The same parts of the vehicle shall be thoroughly washed or scrubbed or scoured with water; then

(iii.) The same parts of the vehicle shall have applied to them a coating of limewash.

(2.) The scrapings and sweepings of the vehicle, and all dung, sawdust, litter, and other matter removed therefrom, shall forthwith be well mixed with quicklime, and be effectually removed from contact with animals.

Movement of Swine into Scheduled District.

4.—(1.) Swine may be moved into the Scheduled District with a Movement Licence of the London County Council which Licence shall be in force for not more than four days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place or premises from which and the place and premises to which the swine are to be moved, and shall only be granted on a Declaration of the owner of the swine or of his agent authorized in writing for this purpose which Declaration shall be countersigned by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District from which the swine are to be moved, who shall so far as practicable previously satisfy himself as to the correctness of the Declaration.

(2.) The Declaration shall be to the effect—

(a.) that the swine to be moved have been on the premises from which they are to be moved for a period of at least twenty-eight days immediately before the granting of the Licence, and that no other pig has been brought on to those premises within such period; and

(b.) that the swine are not affected with swine-fever, and have not during the period of twenty-eight days as aforesaid been in any way exposed to the infection of swine-fever; and

(c.) that the swine are not in a Swine-Fever Infected Place and their movement is not prohibited by Notice of an Inspector of a Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board.

(3.) The swine moved into the Scheduled District under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence and Declaration required by this Article, and shall be moved by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay.

Movement of Swine between 7 P.M. and 5 A.M. Prohibited.

5. It shall not be lawful for any person to move any swine along a highway or thoroughfare within the Scheduled District between the hours of 7 P.M. and 5 A.M.

Saving for Regulations of Local Authority.

6. Movement of swine under this Order is subject to any Regulation made by a Local Authority under any Order of the Board for prohibiting or regulating the movement of swine into the District of the Local Authority, but nothing in any such Regulation shall permit the movement of swine in contravention of this Order.

Movement of Swine by Licence of Board.

7. Notwithstanding anything in this Order, a licence for the movement of swine may be granted by an Inspector of the Board or a person authorized by the Board to grant the same, but such Licence will only be granted where the Board, after inquiry, are satisfied that exceptional circumstances render the granting thereof necessary or expedient.

Granting of Movement Licences.

8.—(1.) The London County Council may appoint fit and proper persons for the purpose of granting, subject to the provisions of this Article, Movement Licences for the purposes of this Order.

(2.) Provided that a Movement Licence granted under this Order shall not be available if granted by the owner of the swine to be moved, or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee of the swine, or by the occupier of the farm or premises or slaughter-house from or to which the swine are to be moved, or by any individual member of an Executive Committee or Sub-Committee of the Council.

Delivery of Declarations.

9.—(1.) A Licence granted under this Order for the movement of swine into the Scheduled District is not available except when accompanied by the Declaration on which it is granted.

(2.) The person granting such Licence under this Order shall, for the identification of the Declaration produced to him, mark the same by signing his name thereon, with the date of the production thereof to him.

(3.) The person granting such Licence shall deliver the Declaration produced to him, when so marked, with the Licence, to the person receiving the Licence from him.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

10.—(1.) Any person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Licence, if any, necessary for the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Any person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

11. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

12.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, or of the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(2.) If a pig is not marked as required by this Order, the owner, consignee, or other person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(3.) If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of this Order in respect of the cleansing and disinfection of any vehicle used for the movement of swine, the owner, or other person for the time being in charge of the vehicle, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(4.) If any person, with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates, or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate, any mark painted on any pig as required by this Order, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(5.) If a pig is not slaughtered as required by this Order, the person to whom the Licence is granted, and the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person failing to cause the same to be so slaughtered, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(6.) If a person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Interpretation.

13. In this Order—

“The Board” means the Board of Agriculture;
 “Swine-Fever Infected Place” means a place for the time being declared to be infected with swine-fever under any Order of the Board;
 Other terms have the same meaning as in the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Commencement.

14. This Order shall come into operation on the twenty-first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

No. 505.—UNITED STATES—MARYLAND.

Potomac River—Lights and Fog Signal near Lower Cedar Point.

THE United States Government has given notice that, on 5th September, 1896, the provisional fixed white light shown near the site of Lower Cedar Point Lighthouse, on Yates Shoal, would be discontinued, and the permanent light would be exhibited from a new structure, erected on the foundation of the old lighthouse.

Lower Cedar Point Light is a fixed white light, with a red sector visible from West to N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W., the south-eastern edge of which passes close eastward of the Tenth mid-channel buoy (black and white in vertical stripes) off Bluff Point, and there intersects with the southerly edge of the red sector shown from Cob Point Bar Lighthouse.

The light is elevated 38 feet above high water, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 11 miles.

The lighthouse consists of an iron, pile foundation, painted brown, on which stands a square, frame dwelling, with green blinds and brown roof, and a black lantern above.

Approximate position, lat. 38° 20' 25" N., long. 76° 59' 30" W.

Also that, during thick or foggy weather, a bell at this lighthouse will be struck by machinery once every twelve seconds.

Also that, on the same date, a fixed white lantern light, elevated 29 feet above high water, will be shown above the cage on Lower Cedar Point Beacon, situated with Lower Cedar Point bearing N. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., distant 8 cables; and Lower Cedar Point Lighthouse N.W. by N.

Bank of England, September 10, 1896.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice—

That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday, the 17th instant, at twelve o'clock precisely, to consider of a Dividend.

This will also be one of the Half-yearly General Courts appointed by the Supplemental Charter dated the 19th August, 1896, which has been accepted by the Court of Directors in pursuance of the authority conferred upon them by the General Court of the 19th December last.

At this Court it will be proposed to make an additional Bye-law with a view of carrying out the provisions of Clause 4 of the above-mentioned Supplemental Charter, viz. :—

“ Clause 4—(1.) A member of the Bank of England shall not be qualified or admitted to vote in any General Court of the Bank of England in respect of any stock until such member has been possessed thereof for at least six calendar months, unless such member acquired the stock by transmission on death or by marriage.

“(2.) A member of the Bank of England shall be qualified and admitted to vote in a General Court of the Bank of England, although the stock in respect of which he is a member is held by him in trust for another person.

“(3.) Where stock stands in the joint names of two or more members of the Bank of England, such one of those members as is nominated by them in a manner provided by any Bye-law made by a General Court of the Bank of England, or if none of them is so nominated, the one whose name stands first in the register of members shall be qualified and admitted to vote in respect of such stock in like manner as if the stock stood in his name alone.”

G. F. GLENNIE, Secretary.

N.B.—By the original Charter it is provided that no person is qualified to vote at a General Court who does not hold £500 or more stock.

ORDER ON APPLICATION TO APPROVE COMPOSITION OR SCHEME.

Debtor's Name.	Address.	Description.	Court.	No. of Matter.	Date of Order.	Nature of Scheme or Composition sanctioned or Order made.
Willis, Frederick Cooper	2, Pump-court, Temple, in the city of London	Barrister-at-Law ...	High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy	599 of 1895	Sept. 1, 1896	Debtor out of his earnings as a Barrister since the date of the Receiving Order to provide funds to be paid to the Official Receiver in the manner hereinafter mentioned until by means of such funds his unsecured creditors are paid in full. All sums received for fees earned by debtor shall, whether earned before or after the commencement of this Scheme, be paid to Mr. Frederic Marshall, of 4, Lincoln's-inn-fields, who shall at the expiration of each successive three months from the approval of this Scheme by the Court, transmit to the Official Receiver a statement (verified on oath if so required) showing the receipts and disbursements made, and pay over to the Official Receiver the proportion of such fees as hereafter mentioned for distribution among the creditors. Debtor will insure his life in the Atlas Insurance Company for £4,000 and forthwith assign the policy to the Official Receiver. The said Mr. F. Marshall shall pay over to the Official Receiver at the expiration of the said successive periods of three months, an amount equal to one-third of the net amount of the fees so received during such period, which net amount shall be the gross amount of fees after deduction of Counsel's clerks' fees and expenses of Counsel's chambers, the third to be subject to reduction as hereinafter provided. The moneys received by the Official Receiver from Mr. F. Marshall, or (in the event of debtor dying before the debts are paid in full) from the proceeds of the said policy of life assurance, shall be applied and administered by the Official Receiver as follows:—(1) In payment of one-half the annual premium required for keeping up the life assurance policy. (2) In payment to the said F. Marshall of a remuneration for his services. (3) In payment of preferential claims. (4) In payment of all proper costs, charges, fees, percentages and expenses. And (5) in payment of Dividends to the creditors until they have received 20s. in the pound on their admitted proofs. With respect to the fees received by debtor during the period between Receiving Order and the commencement of this scheme, the following proviso shall have effect:—The said F. Marshall shall transmit a statement concurred in by debtor, and verified on oath if required, showing the gross amount of receipts in respect of fees, and the necessary disbursements during such period, and the amount representing one-third of the net amount thus ascertained shall be paid over by Mr. F. Marshall to the Official Receiver as follows:—namely, one-twelfth part to be paid over to the Official Receiver at the same time as each periodic payment of one-third of the net fees before mentioned is made, and in addition thereto, until the whole of such one-third of the said net amount has been paid. Debtor to pay one-half of the life assurance premium, and, failing to do so, moneys shall be provided by Mr. F. Marshall out of funds in his hands, and shall be chargeable by him upon the two-thirds of the net fees held in trust for the debtor as aforesaid. When debtor shall have paid the whole of the preferential claims and the official costs, and upon paying the life assurance premiums as they fall due, the amount of the net fees to be paid over to the Official Receiver at the period of three months next succeeding such completed payments, then and thereafter shall be reduced from one-third to one-fourth of such net fees. Bankruptcy annulled, and the property of the bankrupt, at present vested in the Official Receiver as Trustee, be and the same is hereby re-vested in the said debtor
