

parishes of Otterbourne, Compton, Hursley, and Saint Faith, or some of them.

7. To enable the Corporation from time to time to construct and maintain all such culverts, drains, sluices, byewashes, tanks, banks, walls, and approaches as may be necessary or convenient in connection with the before-mentioned works or any of them.

8. To enable the Corporation to deviate from the lines and levels of the proposed works to any extent defined by the Bill or prescribed by Parliament.

9. To empower the Corporation to purchase or acquire by compulsion or agreement, or to take on lease any lands (including in the word "lands," where used in this Notice, houses, buildings, and easements), and any rights or easements in, on, over, or connected therewith which they may require for the purposes of the proposed works, or other purposes of the intended Act or their Undertaking. And the Bill will or may enable the Corporation to acquire compulsorily easements or wayleaves in, through, under, or over lands in lieu of so acquiring those lands.

10. To empower the Corporation to stop up, alter, divert, or interfere with, temporarily or permanently, all highways, roads, paths, passages, railways, canals, brooks, streams, springs, bridges, sewers, mains, pipes, electric and telephonic apparatus and all other works, which it may be convenient so to stop up, alter, divert, or interfere with in the execution or for the purposes of the intended Act.

11. To authorise the Corporation to hold any lands which they may acquire under the authority of the intended Act free from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or of the existing Acts of the Corporation with respect to superfluous lands, and to acquire by compulsion or agreement any mines or minerals under any such lands, notwithstanding the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to mines.

12. To enable the Corporation to make compensation to any parties injuriously affected by the exercise of the powers conferred by the Bill or prescribed by Parliament, either in money or water, as the circumstances of the case may require.

13. To empower the Corporation, and any other corporation, or any county, urban district, rural district, or parish council, and any public authority or body, and any company within or without the limits for the time being of the Corporation for the supply of water to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements for or in relation to the supply of water in bulk by the Corporation to such other corporation, and to such council, authority, body, company, and person, and to enable the contracting parties respectively for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, to apply their funds, rates, and revenues, and any moneys they are authorised to raise, and which are not required for the purposes for which they were authorised, and to borrow further moneys, and to levy rates and charges, and to confirm, with or without alteration, any such contract or agreements which may have been already or which during the progress of the Bill may be made, and the Bill will or may authorise the Corporation for the purposes aforesaid to exercise the powers of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking-up of streets for the purpose of laying pipes.

14. To authorise the Corporation, for the purposes of the Bill, to apply their existing funds, rates, and revenues, and any moneys they are still authorised to raise, and to enlarge their existing borrowing powers, and to raise additional moneys on mortgage, or by the creation and issue of Corporation stock (at varying rates of interest, and redeemable at different periods), on the security of all or any of their funds, rates, and revenues, and to provide for the repayment of borrowed moneys, and to levy new and additional rates, and to vary existing rates, and to confer, vary and extinguish exemptions therefrom.

15. To empower the Corporation to make and enforce by-laws and regulations to prevent waste of water and for all purposes of the Bill to which by-laws are applicable.

16. The Bill will alter, vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects, and confer other rights and privileges, and will, so far as is necessary or expedient therefor, alter, amend, and repeal the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the following local Acts, namely:—

The Southampton Waterworks Act, 1836; the Southampton Marsh Act, 1844; the Southampton Improvement Act, 1844, 7 & 8 Vict., cap. lxxv.; the Southampton Waterworks Amendment Act, 1850; the Southampton Marsh and Markets Act, 1865; the Southampton Corporation Act, 1885; the Southampton Order, 1895; and every other Act and Order relating directly or indirectly to the Corporation, the South Hants Waterworks Act, 1876, and every other Act, directly or indirectly, relating to the Company; and will incorporate with itself, either by reference or in extenso, and with or without modification, such of the provisions, as may be deemed expedient, of the said Acts, and of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Public Health Acts, and the Local Loans Acts, 1875 and 1885, the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863.

Duplicate plans and sections showing the lines, situation, and levels of the said works respectively, and the lands, houses, and other property in or through which they will be made, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands and other property, and a copy of this Notice will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Southampton, at his office at Winchester, and on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each parish in or through which the intended works will be made, and a copy of this Notice will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence, and in the case of any extra-parochial place, with the clerk of some parish immediately adjoining such extra-parochial place, at his residence, and as regards any of the before-mentioned parishes or places which is a rural parish for which a Parish Council has been elected, also with the clerk (if any) of the Parish Council of every such parish, at his residence, and if in any such parish there be no clerk of such Council, then with the chairman of that Council at his residence.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1896.

GEORGE B. NALDER, Town Clerk,
Southampton.
