

shall, subject to the above provisions, be determined by the Master and resident Fellows.

No one shall be allowed to compete for a scholarship or exhibition before commencing residence in the University, if his age exceeds nineteen years on the first day of the academical year in which the examination for such scholarship or exhibition is held. The maximum emolument of such entrance scholarship or exhibition shall be eighty pounds (£80) a year, inclusive of room rent and all allowances. The tenure shall be for not more than two years unless it be prolonged at some time during such two years by a resolution of the Master and resident Fellows.

The Master and resident Fellows shall elect the scholars and exhibitioners, regard being had to the moral character and learning of the candidates; but they shall not be required to fill up any vacant scholarship if in their opinion there be no competent candidate.

The Master and resident Fellows shall determine the length and other conditions of tenure of the several scholarships and exhibitions, subject with regard to entrance scholarships and exhibitions to the above limitations, provided that no one shall continue to hold a scholarship or exhibition beyond the proper time for proceeding to the degree of Master of Arts. They may also, subject to the above provision, prolong the tenure of any particular holder of a scholarship, promote a deserving scholar to a scholarship of greater value, or give two scholarships to the same scholar.

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-third day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

Privy Council Office, November 27, 1896.

THE following Statute passed on the fourteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, by the Governing Body of New College, Oxford, and sealed on the twenty-ninth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

New College, Oxford.

STATUTE to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877, 40 and 41 Vict. cap. 48, and approved by the Queen in Council, on the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two in relation to New College in the University of Oxford in the matter of marriage and residence of Tutorial Fellows such amending Statute being duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the fourteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six and passed by the votes of not less than two-thirds of those present and voting.

Statute III Clause 11 to be omitted and the following new clause to be substituted:—

“11. Every Tutorial Fellow, not being married at the time of his election, shall vacate his Fellowship by marriage, if such marriage shall take place within seven years from the day of his election. Every Tutorial Fellow shall reside in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, unless the Warden and Fellows at a stated General Meeting shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least four Fellows, being Tutors or Lecturers in the College resident in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms. So long as that number is complete a Tutorial Fellow vacating his Fellowship by marriage shall not be incapable of being elected to fill the vacancy so created, if the Warden and Fellows should desire to retain his services as a Tutor or Lecturer. Residence in a private house forming part of the College Buildings shall not be deemed to be residence in rooms of the College for purposes of this clause.”

Seal of the Warden and Scholars of New College, Oxford, affixed on the twenty-ninth of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the presence of

H. A. L. Fisher, Sub-Warden.
