Privy Council Office, January 15, 1897.

THE following Statute, made on the twenty-eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, by the Governing Body of Queen's College, Oxford, and sealed on the ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

At a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the Queen's College in the University of Oxford, held on the twenty-eighth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and specially summoned for the purpose, the following Statute altering the Statutes made by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Commissioners, appointed under Act 40 and 41 Victoria cap. 48, for the said College, was made by the College under the said Act, the same being passed unanimately by the persons present.

The Statute.

1. IN Statute II, after Clause 21, to insert the following clause:—

"22. If an Official Fellow has served the College as Tutor, Lecturer or Senior Bursar for twenty-five years, he shall be entitled on ceasing to hold his Official Fellowship to hold an Ordinary Fellowship; and every such Fellow shall on ceasing to hold his Official Fellowship be admitted to an Ordinary Fellowship without public notice of the vacancy and without examination and without any period of probation, and shall be entitled to hold his Ordinary Fellowship for life, and although he be or shall become married, and although he be or shall become in possession of any property, pension or office which would in ordinary cases render the possessor ineligible; provided that if at any time there are more than three Fellows holding or entitled to hold Ordinary Fellowships under these provisions, the three seniors for the time being among such Fellows, and no more, shall receive or be entitled to receive the emoluments of an Ordinary Fellowship; provided also that if any Fellow under these provisions is holding an Ordinary Fellowship without emolument, his Fellowship shall not be counted in the number of Fellowships for the purposes of Clause 1 of this Statute.

"If any Fellow who under the provisions of this clause holds an Ordinary Fellowship is appointed to an Official Fellowship, he shall on becoming an Official Fellow cease to hold an Ordinary Fellowship, but for purposes of seniority shall retain his position on the list of Fellows who, as aforesaid, hold or are entitled to hold an Ordinary Fellowship.

"In computing the years of service of an Official Fellow every term shall be taken into account in which he has served the College as aforesaid, although he may not have been at the time a Fellow of the College.

"For the purposes of this clause the word Lecturer shall not be taken to include Occasional Lecturers."

2. Clauses 22 to 25 to be numbered 23 to 26.

3. In Statute XIII to strike out Clause 4 and to substitute the following clause:—

"4. (a.) A Fellow who under the provisions of Statute II 22 is holding an Ordinary Fellowship without emolument, shall be entitled to receive from the Pension Fund a payment at the rate of two hundred pounds a year.

"4. (b.) A Fellow who under the provisions of Statute II, 22 is holding an Ordinary Fellowship (whether with or without emolument) shall be entitled to a payment from the Pension Fund of one hundred and fifty pounds a year, which payment shall be increased by ten pounds for each additional year of service as Tutor, Lecturer or Senior Bursar, beyond twenty-five: provided that no such payment shall exceed two hundred pounds a year."

4. Ibid. Clause 5 to be numbered 5 (a) and Clause 6, to be numbered 5 (b).

5. Ibid. in Clause 5 (a) for "twenty-five" to substitute "twenty-four."

6. Ibid. after Clause 5, to insert the following clause:—

"6. (a.) If any Fellow who under the provisions of Statute II, 22, is holding an Ordinary Fellowship (whether with or without emolument) shall cease to be a Fellow, or shall become an Official Fellow, he shall thereupon cease to receive any payment from the Pension Fund."

"6. (b.) If any person who under the provisions of Clause 5 is receiving a payment from the Pension Fund, shall become an Official Fellow or shall be elected to and accept a Headship or Fellowship in any other College within the University or the University of Cambridge, he shall thereupon cease to receive such payment."

7. After Clause 6, to insert the following clause:—

"7. Any person who is receiving a payment from the Pension Fund, who shall be instituted to an ecclesiastical benefice, or who shall be admitted to any appointment or office, and who shall retain such benefice, appointment or office for twelve calendar months from the day of his institution or admission thereto, shall if the annual value of such benefice (being a benefice with cure of souls) clear of deductions (except for property or income-tax), or if the annual income derivable by him from such appointment or office or from any benefice without cure of souls, or from any two or more of the above-mentioned sources (including or not including a benefice with cure of souls) clear of deductions as aforesaid shall exceed three hundred pounds a year, cease to receive any payment from the Fund at the expiration of such twelve calendar months; provided always that if such person shall thereafter cease to be disqualified as aforesaid for the receipt of a payment from the Fund, he shall thereupon become entitled to receive the same payment as before from the Fund, but shall be placed last on the list of those persons who at the time when he becomes again entitled to receive such payment shall also be entitled to receive payment from the Fund.

"In construing this clause, in any case in which the sources of income may have been acquired at several times, the latest time at which any of such sources of income shall have been acquired, shall be considered the time of the acquisition of the whole thereof."

"It shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows to require from any such person any information which they may deem necessary for enabling them to enforce the provisions of this clause."

8. Clauses 7 and 8 to be numbered 8 and 9.

9. Ibid. in Clause 9, after the words 'every
