

of Saint David's as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said parish of Llanfynydd in testimony whereof he has signed this representation and caused his Episcopal seal to be affixed hereto and with the consent of the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and as such the patron (on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown) both of the vicarage of the said parish of Llanybyther and of the vicarage of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Llanybyther of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel and of the said parish of Llanfynydd which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church situate at Abergorlech as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Abergorlech.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Abergorlech comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Llanybyther in the county of Carmarthen and in the diocese of Saint David's which is bounded upon the north-east and upon the east by the hereinafter described portion of the parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel upon the south and upon the south-east by the River Cothi or in other words by the parish of Llanfynydd (including the hereinafter described portion thereof) upon the west by the parish of Llanfihangel-Rhôs-y-Corn all which said parishes are situate in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Llanfihangel-Rhôs-y-Corn from the parish of Llanybyther aforesaid at the point where the river called or known as Nant y Ffin is joined by the stream or watercourse which flows from a well a little to the west of the house called or known as Hendergini along the south-eastern side of the wood called or known as Allt-Esgair-onen-fawr and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said stream or watercourse for a distance of fifty-seven chains or thereabouts to the said well which well is situate within a few feet of the road which leads from the house called or known as Esgair-onen-fawr past the northern side of the said house called or known as Hendergini into the road which leads from Pont Nant y Ffin to Lliidiart-Nenog and extending thence first northward to, and then eastward along, the middle of the said roadway for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the said road leading from Pont Nant y Ffin to Lliidiart-Nenog and extending thence northward along the middle of the said road for a distance of forty-four chains or thereabouts to the point where it is joined by the road or footpath leading from the house called or known as Esgair-onen-fâch and extending thence north-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of fifty-four chains or thereabouts to a point where the River Gorlech is joined by the stream or watercourse which flows from near the house called or known as Llain Farc upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Llanybyther from the parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel aforesaid.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel which is bounded upon the south partly by the parish of Talley in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by the hereinafter described portion of the said parish of Llanfynydd upon the west and upon the south-west by the above described portion of the parish of Llanybyther and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the north and upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Llanybyther from the parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel aforesaid at the hereinbefore described point where the River Gorlech is joined by the stream or watercourse flowing from the house called or known as Llain Farc as aforesaid and extending thence eastward and in a straight line for a distance of one mile and eleven chains or thereabouts to the point a little to the east of the house called or known as Acheth-ganol where the footpath leading from the house called or known as Acheth-uchaf divides into two branches the northern branch leading past the northern side of the said house called or known as Acheth-ganol and the southern branch leading past the southern side of the same house towards the house called or known as Acheth-isaf and extending thence south-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to the point where the footpath leading from the house called or known as Esgair-Gorlech joins the road leading from Abergorlech to Llansawel and extending thence still south-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of sixty-two chains or thereabouts to the point where the River Cothi is joined by the stream flowing from the wood called or known as Allt-Cwm-seiri upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel from the parish of Talley aforesaid.

"III. And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Llanfynydd which is bounded upon the north-west and upon the north by the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Llanybyther upon the north-east partly by the hereinbefore described portion of the parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel aforesaid and partly by the parish of Talley aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-east upon the south and upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Talley from the parish of Llanfynydd aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries the road leading from the house called or known as Blaen-waun past the houses called or known respectively as Blaendyffryn and Blaen-dulas towards Llanfynydd over the stream called or known as Nant Ffraine and extending thence generally south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of one mile and eleven chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads past the houses called or known as Dolau-gleision, Macs-Ifan, and Pant-y-dderwen, respectively and extending thence first generally westward and then generally northward along the middle of the last described road for a distance of one mile and seventy-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Abergorlech to Llanfynydd and extending thence south-westward