In the County Court of Warwickshire holden at Birmingham. No. 1 of 1897.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts 1862 to 1890 and in the Matter of Palmer Lawley and Lewis Limited.

BY an Order made in the above matters by His Honour Judge Whitehorne dated the 15th day of March 1897 upon the petition of Charles William Faulkner (trading as C. W. Faulkner and Co.) it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the above named Company be continued but subject to the supervision of the Court and that any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up may be adopted as the Judge shall think fit and the persons thereafter named and called the Committee of Inspection consenting to act in manner thereafter mentioned and without remuneration. The Court did direct that the Liquidator appointed to conduct such winding up may exercise all the powers conferred upon him by the above Statutes without the sanction or intervention of the Court in the same manner as if the Company were being wound up altogether voluntarily subject until further order to the restrictions hereinafter imposed upon him that is to say:—(a.) The Liquidator shall not without the sanction of the majority of the following persons Messieurs Morell of 41 Jewin-street in the city of London Manager to the Petitioner Edward Jones (of Scotland-passage in the city of Birmingham Printer's Furnisher) Misch of the firm of Misch and Stock of Cripplegate-street in the city of London John Edward Hunt of 65 Old Bailey in the city of London Secretary to John Dickinson and Co. Limited and Louis Themans of Jewin-street aforesaid Cashier to Davidson Brothers, (being a Committee of Inspection) or of the Court carry on the business of the Company or bring or defend any legal proceedings or exercise any of the powers conferred by sec. 159 of sec. 160 of the Companies Act 1862. (b.) The Liquidator shall not without the sanction of a majority of the Committee of Inspection or of the Court sell or enter into any contract for the sale of the Company's business or assets. (c.) The Liquidator except in cases of urgency shall not without the sanction of a majority of the Committee of Inspection or of the Court employ a Solicitor or other Agent to take any proceedings or do any business which the Liquidator is unable to take or do himself. (d.) Nothing in the said Order contained shall be deemed to in any way restrict the acts of the Liquidator as Receiver and Manager in the Debenture Holders' action. And it was further ordered that the Liquidator be at liberty to pay out of the assets of the Company the actual out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred by the aforesaid persons acting as aforesaid subject to the approval of the Registrar of the Court. And it was further ordered that in the event of any or either of the aforesaid persons dying or refusing or becoming from any cause whatever unable to act that the Registrar of the Court shall upon application made to him for that purpose appoint some person or persons to fill the vacancy in the said Committee thereby occasioned. And it was further ordered that the Committee of Inspection the creditors the contributories the Liquidator and all other persons interested are to be at liberty to apply to the Court or to the Registrar thereof as there may be occasion. And it was ordered that the said Liquidator do on the 17th day of May next and on the same day of each succeeding third calendar month furnish to the said Committee of Inspection a report in writing as to the position of and the progress made with the winding up of the said Company and with the realization of the assets thereof and as to any other matters connected with the winding up as the said Committee or the Court may from time to time direct. And it was ordered that no bills of costs charges or expenses or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidator or any remuneration charges or expenses of such Liquidator or of any manager accountant auctioneer broker or other person
