WHEREAS by section four hundred and twenty-four of "The Merchant Shipping Act 1894" it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty in Council that the Government of any foreign country is willing that the collision regulations (being regulations which by Section four hundred and eighteen of the said Act Her Majesty is empowered to make by Order in Council on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade for the prevention of collisions at sea) should apply to the ships of that country when beyond the limits of the British jurisdiction, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that those regulations shall, subject to any limitations of time conditions and qualifications contained in the Order, apply to ships of the said foreign country, whether within British jurisdiction or not, and that such ships shall for the purpose of such regulations be treated as if they were British ships:

And whereas by section four hundred and thirty-four of the said Act Her Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make rules as to signals of distress:

And whereas by section seven hundred and thirty-four of the said Act it is provided that where it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any foreign country is desirous that any of the provisions of that Act which do not apply to the ships of that country, should so apply and there are no special provisions in the said Act for that application, Her Majesty in Council may order that such of those provisions as are in the Order specified shall (subject to the limitations, if any, contained therein) apply to the ships of that country, and to the owners, masters, seamen, and apprentices of those ships, when not locally within the jurisdiction of the government of that country in the same manner in all respects as if those ships were British ships:

And whereas by section seven hundred and thirty-eight of the said Act it is provided that, subject to any special provisions of that Act, upon the publication of any Order in Council which Her Majesty has power under that Act to make, the Order shall, as from the date of the publication or any later date mentioned in the Order, take effect as if it were enacted by Parliament:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the fourteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and expressed to be made in pursuance of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act 1862" and, as to the first part thereof, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, and, as to the second part thereof, with the consent of the Governments of the several foreign countries mentioned in the Second Schedule thereto, Her Majesty was pleased to direct, first, that, on and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty the regulations (being Regulations for preventing Collisions at Sea) appended to an Order in Council of the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three and the additions to the said regulations contained in an Order in Council of the thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight should be annulled and that there should be substituted for the said regulations and additions respectively, the regulations contained in the First Schedule thereto, second, that the said regulations contained in the said First Schedule thereto should, from and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, apply to ships of the countries mentioned in the Second Schedule thereto whether within British jurisdiction or not.

And whereas by several Orders in Council subsequently made, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that the regulations contained in the First Schedule to the said Order in Council of the fourteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine should apply to the ships of the countries specified in the said several Orders whether within British jurisdiction or not but subject to the modifications mentioned in the said several Orders or any of them :

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the eleventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and expressed to be made in pursuance of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," and on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that on and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the regulations contained in the Schedule thereto (being Regulations for preventing Collisions at Sea and as to Signals of Distress) should so far as regards British ships and boats, be substituted for the regulations contained in the First Schedule to the hereinbefore recited Order in Council of the fourteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine :

And whereas by several Orders in Council subsequently made, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that the regulations contained in the said Schedule to the said Order in Council of the eleventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four should apply to the ships of the countries specified in the said several Orders whether within British jurisdiction or not, but subject to the modifications mentioned in the same Orders or any of them and that such regulations subject as aforesaid, should as regards the ships and boats of the said several countries in the said several Orders now in recital specified to which the regulations contained in the First Schedule to the hereinbefore recited Order in Council of the fourteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine applied by virtue of any Order in Council, be substituted therefor :

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twenty-seventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six and expressed to be made in pursuance of section four hundred and eighteen of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," and on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade Her Majesty was pleased to direct that, on and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven the Regulations for preventing collisions at sea contained in the said recited Order in Council dated the eleventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, except the Article numbered ten in such Regulations, should be annulled, and the Regulations for preventing collisions at sea contained in Schedule I thereto annexed should be substituted therefor (with the exception aforesaid) and come into operation as regards British ships and boats, and by the same Order and in pursuance of section four hundred and thirty-four of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," Her Majesty was further pleased to direct that on and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven the Regulations or Rules as to signals of distress contained in the Schedule to the said Order in Council dated the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, should be annulled and the rules as to signals of distress contained in Schedule II to the Order now in recital annexed should be substituted therefor and come into operation as regards British ships and boats.

And whereas the provisions of sub-section two of section seven hundred and thirty-eight of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," have been complied with in regard to the said lastly hereinbefore recited Order in Council.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty in Council that the Governments of the several countries specified in Schedule III hereto are willing that the said Regulations contained in Schedule I to the said recited Order of the twenty-seventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six and in Schedule I to this Order should apply to the ships of those countries when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction :

And whereas it has also been made to appear to Her Majesty that the Governments of the same countries are also desirous that the rules made in pursuance of the provisions of section four hundred and thirty-four of "The Merchant Shipping Act 1894" (being the rules contained in Schedule II to the said recited Order of the twenty-seventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six and in Schedule II to this Order) in so far as they do not apply to the ships of those countries, should so apply.

And whereas the Government of China is desirous that the application of such Regulations and rules shall be limited to war and merchant ships of foreign type :

And whereas the operation of this Order immediately on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, is urgent, this Order shall come into operation on and after that date ; and shall be a Provisional Order within the meaning of "The Rules Publication Act 1893 :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by section four hundred and twenty-four of "The Merchant Shipping Act 1894," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, on and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven the Regulations for preventing collisions at sea contained in Schedule I to the said Order of the twenty-seventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and in Schedule I to this Order annexed, shall apply to the ships of the said several countries specified in Schedule III hereto annexed, whether within

British jurisdiction or not, and that such ships shall for the purpose of such Regulations be treated as if they were British ships, to the intent that such Regulations shall, on and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven as regards the ships of the said several countries specified in Schedule III hereto annexed to which the said Regulations for preventing collisions at sea contained in the said recited Orders of the fourteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and the eleventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four apply by virtue of any Order in Council, be substituted therefor: Provided that this Order shall not affect the application of Article ten of each of such sets of Regulations in so far as the same is applicable to the ships of any of such countries:

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by virtue of the power vested in Her by section seven hundred and thirty-four of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct that, on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, the Rules as to signals of distress contained in Schedule II to the said recited Order of the twenty-seventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and in Schedule II to this Order, shall apply to the ships of the several countries specified in Schedule III hereto annexed, and to the owners, masters, seamen and apprentices of those ships, when not locally within the jurisdiction of the Government of that country, in the same manner in all respects as if those ships were British ships:

Provided always that as regards Chinese ships such Regulations for preventing collisions at sea and such rules as to signals of distress shall apply to ships of foreign type whether war ships or not, but not otherwise.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE I.

Preliminary.

These rules shall be followed by all vessels upon the high seas and in all waters connected therewith, navigable by sea-going vessels.

In the following rules every steam-vessel which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing vessel, and every vessel under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a steam vessel.

The word "steam vessel" shall include any vessel propelled by machinery.

A vessel is "under way" within the meaning of these rules, when she is not at anchor, or made fast to the shore or aground.

Rules concerning Lights, &c.

The word "visible" in these rules, when applied to lights, shall mean visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere.

ARTICLE 1. The rules concerning lights shall be complied with in all weathers from sunset to sunrise, and during such time no other lights which may be mistaken for the prescribed lights shall be exhibited.

ARTICLE 2. A steam vessel when under way shall carry—

- (a.) On or in front of the foremast, or if a vessel without a foremast, then in the fore part of the vessel, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the breadth of the vessel exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, so, however, that the light need not be carried at a greater height above the hull than forty feet, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, viz., from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles.

- (b.) On the starboard side a green light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

- (c.) On the port side a red light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side; and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

- (d.) The said green and red side-lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

- (e.) A steam vessel when under way may carry an additional white light similar in construction to the light mentioned in subdivision (a). These two lights shall be so placed in line with the keel that one shall be at least 15 feet higher than the other, and in such a position with reference to each other that the lower light shall be forward of the upper one. The vertical distance between these lights shall be less than the horizontal distance.

ARTICLE 3. A steam vessel when towing another vessel shall, in addition to her side-lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, and when towing more than one vessel shall carry an additional bright white light six feet above or below such lights, if the length of the tow, measuring from the stern of the towing vessel to the stern of the last vessel towed, exceeds six hundred feet. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position as the white light mentioned in Article 2 (a), except the additional light, which may be carried at a height of not less than fourteen feet above the hull.

Such steam vessel may carry a small white light abaft the funnel or aftermast for the vessel towed to steer by, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam.

ARTICLE 4.—(a.) A vessel which from any accident is not under command shall carry at the same height as the white light mentioned in Article 2 (a), where they can best be seen, and, if a steam vessel, in lieu of that light, two red lights, in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, and of such a character as to be visible all round the horizon at a distance of at least two miles; and shall by day carry in a vertical line one over the other not less than six feet apart, where they can best be seen, two black balls or shapes each two feet in diameter.

- (b.) A vessel employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable shall carry in the same position as the white light mentioned in Article 2 (a), and if a steam vessel, in lieu of that light, three lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart. The highest and lowest of these lights shall be red; and the middle light shall be white, and they shall be of such a character as to be visible all round the horizon, at a distance of at least two miles. By day she shall carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, where they can best be seen. three shapes not less than two feet in diameter, of which the highest and lowest shall be globular in shape and red in colour, and the middle one diamond in shape and white.

(c.) The vessels referred to in this Article when not making way through the water, shall not carry the side lights, but when making way shall carry them.

(d.) The lights and shapes required to be shown by this Article are to be taken by other vessels as signals that the vessel showing them is not under command and cannot therefore get out of the way.

These signals are not signals of vessels in distress and requiring assistance. Such signals are contained in Article 31.

ARTICLE 5. A sailing vessel under way, and any vessel being towed, shall carry the same lights as are prescribed by Article 2 for a steam vessel under way, with the exception of the white lights mentioned therein; which they shall never carry.

ARTICLE 6. Whenever, as in the case of small vessels under way during bad weather, the green and red side-lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept at hand lighted and ready for use; and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side, nor, if practicable, more than two points abaft the beam on their respective sides.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the colour of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with proper screens.

ARTICLE 7. Steam vessels of less than forty, and vesse's under oars or sails of less than twenty, tons gross tonnage, respectively, and rowing boats, when under way, shall not be obliged to carry the lights mentioned in Article 2 (a) (b) and (c), but if they do not carry them they shall be provided with the following lights:—

1. Steam vessels of less than forty tons shall carry—

(a.) In the fore part of the vessel, or on or in front of the funnel, where it can best be seen, and at a height above the gunwale of not less than nine feet, a bright white light constructed and fixed as prescribed in Article 2 (a), and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(b.) Green and red side-lights constructed and fixed as prescribed in Article 2 (b) and (c), and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least one mile, or a combined lantern showing a green light and a red light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on their respective sides. Such lantern shall be carried not less than three feet below the white light.

2. Small steamboats, such as are carried by sea-going vessels, may carry the white light at a less height than nine feet above the gunwale, but it shall be carried above the combined lantern, mentioned in subdivision 1 (b).

3. Vessels under oars or sails, of less than twenty tons, shall have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on one side and a red glass on the other, which, on the approach of or to other vessels, shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side.

4. Rowing-boats, whether under oars or sail, shall have ready at hand a lantern showing a white light, which shall be temporarily exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision.

The vessels referred to in this Article shall not be obliged to carry the lights prescribed by Article 4 (a), and Article 11, last paragraph.

ARTICLE 8. Pilot vessels, when engaged on their station on pilotage duty shall not show the lights required for other vessels, but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all round the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals, which shall never exceed fifteen minutes.

On the near approach of or to other vessels they shall have their side-lights lighted, ready for use, and shall flash or show them at short intervals, to indicate the direction in which they are heading, but the green light shall not be shown on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side.

A pilot-vessel of such a class as to be obliged to go alongside of a vessel to put a pilot on board, may show the white light instead of carrying it at the masthead, and may, instead of the coloured lights above mentioned, have at hand ready for use a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other, to be used as prescribed above.

Pilot-vessels, when not engaged on their station on pilotage duty, shall carry lights similar to those of other vessels of their tonnage.

ARTICLE 9.*

ARTICLE 10. A vessel which is being overtaken by another shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned vessel a white light or a flare-up light.

The white light required to be shown by this Article may be fixed and carried in a lantern, but in such case the lantern shall be so constructed, fitted, and screened that it shall throw an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twelve points of the compass, viz.: for six points from right aft on each side of the vessel, so as to be visible at a distance of at least one mile. Such light shall be carried as nearly as practicable on the same level as the side-lights.

ARTICLE 11. A vessel under one hundred and fifty feet in length, when at anchor, shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light in a lantern so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light visible all round the horizon at a distance of at least one mile.

A vessel of one hundred and fifty feet or upwards in length, when at anchor, shall carry in the forward part of the vessel, at a height of not less than twenty, and not exceeding forty, feet above the hull, one such light, and at or near the stern of the vessel, and at such a height that it shall be not less than fifteen feet lower than the forward light, another such light.

The length of a vessel shall be deemed to be the length appearing in her certificate of registry.

A vessel aground in or near a fairway shall carry the above light or lights and the two red lights prescribed by Article 4 (a).

ARTICLE 12. Every vessel may, if necessary in order to attract attention, in addition to the lights which she is by these Rules required to carry, show a flare-up light, or use any detonating signal that cannot be mistaken for a distress signal.

* This Article will deal with regulations affecting fishing-boats, and will be the subject of another Order, which will be submitted to Her Majesty for approval at a later date.

ARTICLE 13. Nothing in these Rules shall interfere with the operation of any special rules made by the Government of any nation with respect to additional station and signal lights for two or more ships of war or for vessels sailing under convoy, or with the exhibition of recognition signals adopted by shipowners, which have been authorized by their respective Governments and duly registered and published.

ARTICLE 14. A steam-vessel proceeding under sail only, but having her funnel up, shall carry in daytime, forward, where it can best be seen, one black ball or shape two feet in diameter.

Sound-Signals for Fog, &c.

ARTICLE 15. All signals prescribed by this Article for vessels under way shall be given:

1. By "steam-vessels" on the whistle or siren.
2. By "sailing-vessels and vessels towed" on the fog-horn.

The words "prolonged blast" used in this Article, shall mean a blast of from four to six seconds' duration.

A steam-vessel shall be provided with an efficient whistle or siren, sounded by steam or some substitute for steam, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstruction, and with an efficient fog-horn, to be sounded by mechanical means, and also with an efficient bell.* A sailing-vessel of twenty tons gross tonnage or upwards shall be provided with a similar fog-horn and bell.

In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain storms, whether by day or night, the signals described in this Article shall be used as follows, viz. :—

- (a.) A steam-vessel having way upon her, shall sound, at intervals of not more than two minutes, a prolonged blast.
- (b.) A steam-vessel under way, but stopped and having no way upon her, shall sound, at intervals of not more than two minutes, two prolonged blasts, with an interval of about one second between them.
- (c.) A sailing-vessel under way shall sound, at intervals of not more than one minute, when on the starboard tack one blast, when on the port tack two blasts in succession, and when with the wind abaft the beam three blasts in succession.
- (d.) A vessel, when at anchor, shall, at intervals of not more than one minute, ring the bell rapidly for about five seconds.
- (e.) A vessel, when towing, a vessel employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph-cable, and a vessel under way, which is unable to get out of the way of an approaching vessel through being not under command, or unable to manœuvre as required by these Rules shall, instead of the signals prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (c) of this Article, at intervals of not more than two minutes, sound three blasts in succession, viz. : one prolonged blast followed by two short blasts. A vessel towed may give this signal and she shall not give any other.

Sailing-vessels and boats of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to give the above-mentioned signals, but if they do not, they shall make some other efficient sound-signal at intervals of not more than one minute.

* In all cases where the Rules require a bell to be used, a drum may be substituted on board Turkish vessels, or a gong where such articles are used on board small sea-going vessels.

Speed of Ships to be Moderate in Fog, &c.

ARTICLE 16. Every vessel shall, in a fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain-storms, go at a moderate speed, having careful regard to the existing circumstances and conditions.

A steam-vessel hearing, apparently forward of her beam, the fog-signal of a vessel the position of which is not ascertained, shall, so far as the circumstances of the case admit, stop her engines, and then navigate with caution until danger of collision is over.

Steering and Sailing Rules.

Preliminary—Risk of Collision.

Risk of collision can, when circumstances permit, be ascertained by carefully watching the compass bearing of an approaching vessel. If the bearing does not appreciably change, such risk should be deemed to exist.

ARTICLE 17. When two sailing-vessels are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, viz. :—

- (a.) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.
- (b.) A vessel which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.
- (c.) When both are running free, with the wind on different sides, the vessel which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other.
- (d.) When both are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to leeward.
- (e.) A vessel which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other vessel.

ARTICLE 18. When two steam vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

This Article only applies to cases where vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision, and does not apply to two vessels which must, if both keep on their respective courses, pass clear of each other.

The only cases to which it does apply are when each of the two vessels is end on, or nearly end on, to the other; in other words, to cases in which, by day, each vessel sees the masts of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own; and, by night, to cases in which each vessel is in such a position as to see both the side-lights of the other.

It does not apply, by day, to cases in which a vessel sees another ahead crossing her own course; or by night, to cases where the red light of one vessel is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one vessel is opposed to the green light of the other, or where a red light without a green light, or a green light without a red light, is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead.

ARTICLE 19. When two steam-vessels are crossing, so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

ARTICLE 20. When a steam-vessel and a sailing-vessel are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam-vessel shall keep out of the way of the sailing-vessel.

ARTICLE 21. Where by any of these Rules one of two vessels is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course and speed.

Note.—When, in consequence of thick weather or other causes, such vessel finds herself so close that collision cannot be avoided by the action of the giving-way vessel alone, she also shall take such action as will best aid to avert collision. (See Articles 27 and 29.)

ARTICLE 22. Every vessel which is directed by these Rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, if the circumstances of the case admit, avoid crossing ahead of the other.

ARTICLE 23. Every steam-vessel which is directed by these Rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, on approaching her, if necessary, slacken her speed or stop or reverse.

ARTICLE 24. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, every vessel, overtaking any other, shall keep out of the way of the overtaken vessel.

Every vessel coming up with another vessel from any direction more than two points abaft her beam, i.e., in such a position, with reference to the vessel which she is overtaking, that at night she would be unable to see either of that vessel's side-lights, shall be deemed to be an overtaking vessel; and no subsequent alteration of the bearing between the two vessels shall make the overtaking vessel a crossing vessel within the meaning of these Rules, or relieve her of the duty of keeping clear of the overtaken vessel until she is finally past and clear.

As by day the overtaking vessel cannot always know with certainty whether she is forward of or abaft this direction from the other vessel, she should, if in doubt, assume that she is an overtaking vessel and keep out of the way.

ARTICLE 25. In narrow channels every steam-vessel shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fair-way or mid-channel which lies on the starboard side of such vessel.

ARTICLE 26. Sailing-vessels under way shall keep out of the way of sailing-vessels or boats fishing with nets, or lines, or trawls. This Rule shall not give to any vessel or boat engaged in fishing the right of obstructing a fairway used by vessels other than fishing-vessels or boats.

ARTICLE 27. In obeying and construing these Rules, due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation and collision, and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above Rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger.

Sound Signals for Vessels in Sight of one Another.

ARTICLE 28. The words "short blast" used in this Article shall mean a blast of about one second's duration.

When vessels are in sight of one another, a steam vessel under way, in taking any course authorized or required by these Rules, shall indicate that course by the following signals on her whistle or siren, viz. :—

One short blast to mean, "I am directing my course to starboard."

Two short blasts to mean, "I am directing my course to port."

Three short blasts to mean, "My engines are going full speed astern."

No Vessel under any Circumstances to neglect proper Precautions.

ARTICLE 29. Nothing in these Rules shall exonerate any vessel, or the owner, or master, or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper look-out, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case.

Reservation of Rules for Harbours and Inland Navigation.

ARTICLE 30. Nothing in these Rules shall interfere with the operation of a special rule, duly made by local authority, relative to the navigation of any harbour, river, or inland waters.

SCHEDULE II.

Distress Signals.

ARTICLE 31. When a vessel is in distress and requires assistance from other vessels or from the shore, the following shall be the signals to be used or displayed by her, either together or separately, viz. :—

In the daytime—

1. A gun or other explosive signal fired at intervals of about a minute;
2. The International Code signal of distress indicated by N C;
3. The distant signal, consisting of a square flag, having either above or below it a ball or anything resembling a ball;
4. A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus.

At night—

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so belonging to us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right

Reverend William Walsham Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Emmanuel Lockwood, of the said new parish of Saint Luke Miln's Bridge and of the said new parish of Rashcliffe which are described in the schedule hereunder written (all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed) shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Barnabas Crosland Moor.

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter named ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in so far as it affects burials in the borough of Plymouth; and the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in so far as it relates to burials in the parish of Tor Mohun, in the county of Devon, should be varied, by substituting for the directions contained in those Orders the directions hereinafter set forth:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following directions be substituted for those contained in the Orders in Council of the first May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and the fourth February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, so far as relates to burials in the borough of Plymouth, and the parish of Tor Mohun, viz. :—

SAINT ANDREW'S BURIAL-GROUND, WESTWELL STREET, PLYMOUTH.—That so much of the Order in Council of first May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, affecting burials in the borough of Plymouth as relates to Saint Andrew's Burial-ground, Westwell-street, Plymouth, be varied by substituting for it the following Order :—

THE following Statute, passed on the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, by the Governing Body of University College, Oxford, and sealed on the twenty-second day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 :—

University College, Oxford.

EX PARTE the Master and Fellows of the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College in the University of Oxford.

A Statute to amend Statute V framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria cap. 48) in relation to the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College in the University of Oxford duly made at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Master and Fellows being the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the twentieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven and passed at such Meeting by the unanimous votes of those present and voting and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council.

Whereas Statute V § 18 of the College Statutes enacts as follows: "Every Scholar or Exhibitioner who shall marry or accept a Fellowship in any College or cease to be a Member of the College, shall thereupon vacate his Scholarship or Exhibition."

And whereas the powers thus given for regulating the conditions under which Scholarships and Exhibitions are held appear inadequate to meet the case of those Scholars or Exhibitioners who, while observing the requirements of the College and University with regard to residence, cease to apply themselves to studies recognized in the schools of the University and thus frustrate the intention of the College in giving the Scholarships or Exhibitions.

We the said Master and Fellows of the said College desire to extend the powers of the College so as to cover these and similar cases, and for this purpose do hereby in exercise of the powers given to us by the fifty-fourth section of the said Act and by Statute VI framed by the Commissioners appointed by the said Act in relation to the said College alter and amend Statute V as hereinafter appears, that is to say :—

We alter and amend Statute V Clause 18 by inserting after the words "member of the College" the following words "or shall accept any post or position which in the opinion of the Master and Fellows is incompatible with the prosecution of the regular studies of the University."

Given under our Common Seal, this twenty-second day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

Privy Council Office, May, 18, 1897.

THE following Statutes, made on the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, by the Governing Body of Brasenose College, Oxford, and sealed on the twenty-sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

At a Meeting of the Governing Body of Brasenose College, Oxford, specially summoned under Statute XIX to consider proposed alterations of the College Statutes, and held on March seventeenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, it was resolved unanimously to make the following alterations:—

(1) Statute III, 11 (b).—At the end of the clause to add the following words: "for a Fellow whose term of service is under fifteen years, and £200 for a Fellow whose term of service is over fifteen and under twenty years."

(2) Statute III, 11 (c).—To strike out the words "receive the pension . . . Pension Fund," and substitute the following: "be retired on the pension corresponding to his term of service, or by a special vote of the Principal and Fellows may with his own consent retain in lieu of pension a Fellowship with a stipend of £250 payable out of the Pension Fund."

(3) Statute XII, 3.—To strike out the figures £40,000 and to substitute the following: "a sum producing an income of £1,200 per annum clear of income tax."

(4) Statute XII, 6.—To substitute the following for the existing clause: "The capital of the Fund shall at all times be preserved intact; and so soon as the same shall amount to a sum producing an income of £1,200 clear of income tax, no further capital shall be accumulated otherwise than by the investment of any unexpended balance on the Fund: provided nevertheless that if at any time the income of the Fund shall be insufficient to meet any liability created under the provisions of Statute III, 11, then the amount required to make the income of the Fund equal to the sum of the statutable claims upon it shall be paid out of Corporate Revenue so long as the deficiency shall continue, and no longer."

the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

STATUTES to alter the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 in relation to Clare College in the University of Cambridge such amending Statutes being duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for the purpose and held on the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven and passed at the said General Meeting by the votes of ten out of the twelve persons present and voting and now submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

We the Master and Fellows of the said College in exercise of the powers given to us by the fifty-fourth section of the said Act do hereby alter the Statutes framed by the said Commissioners in manner following, that is to say:—

1. By omitting in Statute 3 the first paragraph, namely, the words "the eight Fellows of longest standing as Fellows shall be called the Senior Fellows."

2. By substituting for Statute 12 "of the College Estates" the following Statute to form an amended Statute.

12. Of the Council and of the College Estates.

There shall be in the College a Board to be called the Council which shall consist of the Master and eight Fellows.

(a.) Temporary Provisions for the Constitution of the Council.

The eight Senior Fellows of the College on the day on which this Statute shall come into operation shall be members of the Council, and each of such Fellows shall, except as is hereinafter provided, retain his membership thereof so long as he remains a Fellow of the College. Any such Fellow may renounce his right to a place on the Council by signifying his renunciation to the Master by writing under his hand. If between two Annual Meetings of the Master and Fellows any such Senior Fellow shall not attend at least one-half of the Meetings of the Council summoned by the Master of which seven days' notice shall have been given, his place shall become vacant unless at or before the second of such Annual Meetings he shall have assigned reasons for his non-attendance which the Master and Fellows deem satisfactory. Any such Fellow whose place on the Council is vacated, either by his own renunciation or by reason of non-attendance at meetings, may be voted for as an elective member.

Whenever one of such Senior Fellows shall cease to be a member of the Council, his place shall be taken by the Senior of those Fellows, not being already a member thereof, who are entitled under Section (b.) of this Statute to be ex-officio members. If, however, when a vacancy is thus caused, all such Fellows be already members of the Council, it shall be filled up by the appointment of an elective member as provided in Section (b.) of this Statute.

The Tutor, if there be one only, and the two Senior of the Tutors, if there be more than one, and the Bursar shall, if Fellows, be ex officio members of the Council.

If either of the two Senior of the Tutors or the Bursar be not a member of the Council, he shall attend the meetings of the Council as an Assessor, but shall not have a vote.

The other members of the Council shall be elected by the Master and Fellows at the Annual Meeting to hold office until the next Annual Meeting but one; the votes not being accumulated and being given openly in writing.

If in the interval between two Annual Meetings of the Master and Fellows a member of the Council other than an ex-officio member shall vacate his place on the Council, the Council may appoint a new member to take the place thus vacated. A member thus appointed shall hold office till the Annual Meeting next after such appointment.

The Master shall, except in cases of urgent necessity, give at least seven days' notice of a meeting of the Council.

If between two Annual Meetings of the Master and Fellows any elective member shall not attend at least one-half of the meetings of the Council summoned by the Master of which seven days' notice shall have been given, his place shall become vacant unless at or before the second of such Annual Meetings he shall have assigned reasons for his non-attendance which the Master and Fellows deem satisfactory.

Any member of the Council who shall cease to be a Fellow of the College shall ipso facto vacate his place on the Council.

The Council shall have the management of the College estates, and shall administer the revenues of the College in accordance with the provisions of these Statutes.

The farms, houses and other properties of the College shall be let in accordance with the instructions of the Council, provided that no lease of any College property other than a lease from year to year shall be granted to the Master or any Fellow or Scholar of the College for a longer period than one year.

The Council may by an Order in writing delegate to the Master and resident Fellows the powers given to them by this Statute, but only for a specified purpose, which shall be expressed in the Order.

This Statute shall come into operation on the day of the Annual Meeting of the Master and Fellows which shall be held next after its approval by the Queen in Council.

3. By amending Statutes 8, 10, 13, 14, 15, 19, 24, 25, 33, 35 by the substitution of the words "the Council" for the words "the Master and Senior Fellows" wherever these words occur in these Statutes.

4. By amending Statute 16 by the substitution of the words "the Council" for the words "the Master and Senior Fellows" and for the words "the Senior Fellows" wherever these words occur in this Statute and by the omission of the fourth paragraph of the said Statute, namely,

"At a Meeting of the Master and Senior Fellows the places of Senior Fellows who may be absent shall be taken by the Fellows in residence next in order of seniority who at such meeting shall have all the powers of Senior Fellows."

Privy Council Office, May 18, 1897.

THE following Statutes made by the Governing Body of Emmanuel College in the University of Cambridge, on the seventh day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

WHEREAS Emmanuel College in the University of Cambridge is now governed by a code of Statutes made under the authority of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 and approved by Her Majesty the Queen in Council on the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two as altered by certain amending Statutes approved by Her Majesty the Queen in Council on the sixteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

And whereas it is expedient to alter certain of the said Statutes and also certain of the said amending Statutes;

Now we the Governing Body of the said College by virtue of the said Act and according to the provisions thereof do by a resolution passed at a General Meeting of the said Governing Body specially summoned for the purpose by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting make the following alterations in the aforesaid Statutes as altered by the said amending Statutes.

The following Additional Statute shall be inserted after Statute IX to form Statute IXa.

IXa. Of the resignation of the Master and of his becoming a Senior Fellow in place of Master.

1. If the Master at any time on account of ill-health or old age or other grave cause shall desire to resign the Office of Master and to become a Senior Fellow in place of Master he shall be at liberty to summon a Special Meeting of the Governing Body of which at least fourteen days' notice shall be given in the manner provided for in Section 3 of Statute III by a notice expressly stating his desire to resign his said Office and to become a Senior Fellow in place of Master for the purpose of considering such his desire. If at such meeting a majority of the whole Governing Body shall decide to accept his resignation pursuant to his said desire he shall on a day to be fixed by the Governing Body either at that meeting or at some subsequent meeting cease to be Master and shall immediately from and after the admission of his successor thereupon without election or admission become entitled for life to the position and emoluments of a Senior Fellow of the College.

2. If at the time when the Master so resigning becomes entitled to the position and emoluments of a Senior Fellow under the provisions of the previous Section a Fellowship (whether Senior or Junior) shall be vacant such Fellowship shall (notwithstanding that the difference between the number of Senior and Junior Fellowships shall thereby become greater than the maximum difference between the number of Senior and Junior Fellowships for the time being allowed under the provisions of Section 2 of Statute XIII) be the one to which the resigning Master shall be entitled unless the Governing Body shall have prior to the admission of his successor by a majority of their whole body decided that it is expedient in the interests of the College to constitute a temporary Fellowship to be filled by the Master so resigning in which case and also in case no Fellowship shall be then vacant the Master so resigning shall be entitled to a temporary Fellowship to be constituted under the provisions of Section 2 of Statute XLIV but such temporary Fellowship shall cease to exist at the expiration of one calendar month from the date when any ordinary Fellowship becomes vacant unless the Governing Body shall by a majority of their whole body within such month otherwise determine and on any such temporary Fellowship ceasing to exist by reason of an ordinary Fellowship becoming vacant the Fellowship so becoming vacant shall be the one to which such resigning Master shall become entitled notwithstanding that the difference between the number of Senior and Junior Fellowships shall thereby become greater than the maximum difference between the number of Senior and Junior Fellowships for the time being allowed under the provisions of Section 2 of Statute XIII. Such temporary Fellowship shall also cease to exist if the Fellowship held by the Master so resigning shall be constituted a Pension Fellowship under the provisions of Section 1 of Statute XLIV.

3. A Master resigning his Office and becoming a Senior Fellow in place of Master pursuant to this Statute shall take such precedence among the Senior Fellows as the Governing Body shall determine.

The existing Section 2 of Statute XIII entitled "Of the Election of Fellows" shall be repealed and there shall be substituted therefor the following Section to form an amended Section 2 of such Statute:

2. Until otherwise determined under the provisions of this Section the number of Senior and Junior Fellowships shall not differ by a greater number than three. It shall however be competent to the Governing Body at a meeting called for that purpose and of which at least thirty days' notice shall have been given in the manner provided for in Section 3 of Statute III by a resolution in which at least two-thirds of their whole number concur from time to time to declare that it is expedient in the interests of the College to alter the maximum difference between the number of Senior and Junior Fellowships and from and after the passing of any such resolution the maximum difference between the number of Senior and of Junior Fellowships shall (subject to the power of alteration hereinbefore given to the Governing Body) be the number fixed by such resolution. Provided always that the provisions of this Section shall be deemed to be subject to the provisions of Section 2 of Statute IXa and that in reckoning the number of Senior and of Junior Fellowships for the purpose of this Section Fellowships held for life under the provisions of Statute IXa or Section 5 of Statute XV or Sections 1 or 2 of Statute XLIV or Section 2 of Statute L shall not be counted as Fellowships. Subject to the restrictions contained in or authorized by this Section at any vacancy either a Senior or Junior Fellow may be elected.

The existing Section 5 of Statute XXII entitled "Of the Scholars" shall be repealed and there shall be substituted therefor the following section to form an amended Section 5 of such Statute:

5. Subject as hereinafter provided no one shall be allowed to compete for a Scholarship before commencing residence in the University if his age will exceed twenty years on the last day of the academical year in which the examination is held. Provided always that the Governing Body may offer not more than two of such entrance Scholarships for competition in any one year without restriction of age. The maximum emolument of such entrance Scholarships shall be eighty pounds

(£80) a year inclusive of room rent and all allowances.

To the existing Statute XXVIII entitled "Of the Dean" there shall be added the following Section:

5. The Governing Body may appoint a Junior Dean who shall not necessarily be in Holy Orders. The Junior Dean shall perform such duties as the Governing Body may from time to time assign to him. The provisions of Sections 3 and 4 of this Statute relating to the Dean shall also apply to the Junior Dean.

The existing Statute XLIV entitled "Of a Pension Fellowship and of the suspension of a Fellowship" shall be repealed and there shall be substituted therefor the following amended Statute XLIV to be entitled:

XLIV. Of a Pension Fellowship, of a temporary Fellowship and of the suspension of a Fellowship.

1. The Governing Body may by a resolution in which a majority of the whole Governing Body concur constitute either the Fellowship (whether temporary or ordinary) held by a Master who has resigned the Mastership under Statute IXa or the Fellowship held by any one Senior Fellow who has become discharged by length of service from holding any qualifying office into a Pension Fellowship. Thenceforward until such Fellowship become vacant five additional parts shall be reckoned in the distribution of the residue under Statute XLIII whilst the number of parts assigned to the Reserve Fund shall be diminished by three.

2. If at the time when a person resigning the Office of Master under the provisions of Statute IXa becomes entitled to the position and emoluments of a Senior Fellow no Fellowship shall be vacant or if although a Fellowship shall be then vacant the Governing Body shall have prior to the admission of his successor by a majority of their whole body decided that it is expedient in the interests of the College to constitute a temporary Fellowship to be filled by the Master so resigning then in either of such cases a temporary Fellowship shall be constituted as from the date on which the successor of the Master so resigning shall be admitted and such temporary Fellowship shall continue until the person so resigning the Office of Master shall die or cease to be a Fellow or until he shall become entitled to a Pension Fellowship under the provisions of Section 1 of this Statute or to an ordinary Fellowship under the provisions of Section 2 of Statute IXa. During the existence of such temporary Fellowship five additional parts shall be reckoned in the distribution of the residue under Statute XLIII.

3. When and so long as the annual dividend of a Fellow estimated in conformity with Statutes I and XLIII shall be less than Two Hundred pounds (£200) the Governing Body shall be at liberty the provision of Section 7 of Statute XIII notwithstanding to suspend the election to any one vacant Fellowship and for such period to omit such Fellowship in reckoning the number of parts into which the residue according to Statute XLIII is to be divided. In such case however no Fellow shall receive annually by way of dividend a sum greater than £20.

Given under our Common Seal this seventh day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.
