Whitehall, July 15, 1897.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty having attained the Sixtieth Year of Her Reign, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

An Address to Her Most Gracious Majesty
The QUEEN.

From the County Council of Kent, humbly presented pursuant to an Order of the Council made at a Meeting held on Wednesday the nineteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

WE, the County Council of Kent, humbly offer to Your Majesty our most loyal and hearty congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's glorious Reign, which under the blessings of Providence has consolidated Your Empire and brought an era of unparalleled progress to Your faithful subjects.

In witness whereof the Common Seal of the County Council of Kent was hereto affixed the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, in the presence of George Maisham, Vice-Chairman of the County Council of Kent.

W. B. Prosser, Clerk of the County Council of Kent.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

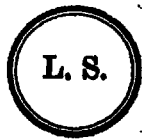

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City and County of the City of Exeter in Council assembled, humbly beg leave to approach Your Majesty with the assurance of our devoted attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Person, and to offer our loyal and heartfelt congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

Your Majesty's long Reign has through God's blessing been one of unexampled progress and prosperity, and the wonderful increase in the extent of Your Majesty's Dominions is only equalled by the progress made in Arts and Science in Education and Knowledge and in the Individual freedom and prosperity of the Inhabitants of Your Empire.

Your Majesty's life has been before Your subjects, and Your sympathy has been freely shown at all times of public sorrow or rejoicing, not only as a Sovereign, but as a wife and mother, and in all domestic relations Your Majesty's life has been a bright example which all Your subjects must admire and should seek to follow, and we know that the assurance of the Nation's love, and deep sympathy, will add to Your Majesty's gratification on this great anniversary.

We earnestly pray that Almighty God will long preserve Your Majesty's life in health and happiness and that Your people will ever gratefully acknowledge the many advantages they derive from Your Gracious Reign.

Given at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter under our Common Seal the 23rd day of June, A.D. 1897.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty The QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Bury St. Edmunds, most humbly approach Your Majesty, and sincerely offer, with feelings of joy and profound respect, our heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious occasion of Your Majesty having completed a Reign of Sixty Years over a loyal and prosperous people, an event unparalleled in the history of our country.

Under Your wise and beneficent Rule, Science, Art, Education, and Commerce have been so largely developed and advanced that Your Majesty's benign Reign will ever be chronicled as an era of unrivalled enlightenment and progress.

We fervently hope that the Almighty, in His infinite goodness, may be pleased to grant Your Majesty continued strength and wisdom to enable You long to rule over Your Majesty's loyal and contented subjects.

Given under our Common Seal this 8th day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

Edward W. Lake, Mayor.

C. E. Salmon, Town Clerk.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Chairman and Members of the East Cowes Urban District Council, humbly approach Your Majesty with the expression of our loyal and dutiful congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

We give thanks to Almighty God for the wise and just government which Your Majesty has exercised over this Kingdom and Empire; and for the happy security and peaceful progress which we, in common with all Your Majesty's subjects, have been permitted to enjoy under Your Majesty's long and beneficent tenure of the Throne.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty may yet live many years to see the continued and increasing loyalty of all Your Majesty's subjects, among whom there are none more faithfully devoted to Your Majesty than the inhabitants of East Cowes, who have been privileged to receive so many tokens of gracious kindness and sympathy at Your Majesty's hands.

Signed on behalf of the East Cowes Urban District Council.

George Groves, Chairman.

East Cowes, 15th June, 1897.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President and Council of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, desire, most respectfully to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

During that Reign, which has exceeded in length that of any of Your illustrious predecessors, the increase in prosperity of Your Majesty's subjects has been unparalleled.

This advance in the welfare of the nation has been in no small degree due to the astonishing progress of science during this period, and its application to the details of daily life; and we thankfully recognize the interest constantly displayed both by Your Majesty and by the Members of Your Royal Family in the promotion of science. Of this the acceptance by His Royal Highness the late lamented Prince Consort of the Presidency of this Association at Aberdeen, in the year 1859, was a conspicuous illustration.

That Your Majesty's subjects in all parts of the globe are united in their efforts to promote the advancement of knowledge is evinced by the fact that the Association holds its annual meeting this year at Toronto, on the invitation of one of the principal Dependencies of Your Empire, the great Dominion of Canada.

There, as here, the Members of the Association will ever pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to rule over a contented, grateful, and united Empire.

Signed on behalf of the Council,

Lister, President.

June 23, 1897.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the loyal States of the Island of Jersey:—

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the States of the Island of Jersey, humbly beg to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our loyal, heartfelt, and respectful congratulations on the happy completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

We recall with pride and gratitude the many benefits which this Island, in common with the rest of Your Majesty's Dominions, has enjoyed during the long period of Your Majesty's occupation of the Throne of these Realms.

Representing, as we do, a portion of the ancient Duchy of Normandy, and devotedly attached, as our ancestors have always been, to the Royal House of England, we desire on this auspicious occasion to renew the expression of our loyalty and affection for Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

We are deeply sensible of the wise and beneficent rule under which it has been given us to enjoy so long a period of unparalleled peace and prosperity, and of the kindly interest which Your Majesty has ever shown towards the humblest, as well as the highest, of Your Majesty's subjects, both in times of calamity, and of prosperity.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty may be spared to preside for years to come over the destinies of this vast Empire, and we implore Almighty God to grant to Your Majesty a continuance of these abounding blessings which have made illustrious the longest reign in English history.

On behalf of the States of Jersey.

22nd June, 1897.

George Bertram, Bailiff of Jersey.

Scottish Office, Whitehall, July 15, 1897.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty attaining the Sixtieth Year of Her Reign, having been transmitted to the Right
 Honourable Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the County Council of the County of Argyll, desire to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our feelings of profound loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Person, and humbly beg to offer to Your Majesty our dutiful and heartfelt congratulations upon the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's eventful Reign.

We heartily rejoice in common with all Your Majesty's subjects in the happy celebration of the longest and most glorious Reign in British history, and we pray that the continued blessing of the Almighty may rest upon Your Majesty and the nations over whom Your beneficent rule extends.

Signed and sealed by order and on behalf of the County Council,

Malcolm of Poltalloch, Convener.

Unto the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Royal Parliamentary and Police Burghs of Scotland assembled in Convention, in virtue of their Royal and ancient privileges, humbly approach Your Majesty to express their heartfelt congratulations upon the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Most Auspicious Reign over the United Kingdom, with its vast dependencies and colonial possessions.

At no time in the history of this country has the progress of the nation, in respect to all that pertains to the welfare and happiness of the people, been so great or so manifest as during Your Majesty's Glorious Reign.

The Burghs of Scotland represent in a large degree the commercial interests of that country, and they rejoice in the prosperity which they and all classes of Your Majesty's subjects have enjoyed under Your Majesty's wise and beneficent Reign.

The Burghs of Scotland humbly assure Your Majesty of their unfeigned loyalty and devotion to Your Majesty's Throne, and they earnestly pray that the Almighty may long direct Your Royal Hand in the ruling of this great Empire.

And it is their earnest prayer that the "Giver of All Good" may prolong Your Reign, and may protect, uphold, and preserve Your Majesty for many years to come, to be honoured by a loving, loyal, and prosperous people.

Signed and sealed at Edinburgh this fourteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, on behalf and by authority of the Convention, by
A. McDonald, Lord Provost of Edinburgh,
Preses of the Convention.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Members of the School Board of Glasgow, desire to express to Your Majesty our hearty congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Reign.

We unite with all our fellow subjects in cordial acknowledgment of the progress in Literature, Science, and Art, and of the commercial and industrial prosperity which have in so rich a measure characterized Your Majesty's Reign, and our experience in educational affairs leads us to recognize specially the remarkable advance made in the effective organization of education.

The direct interest of the State in education is practically contemporary with Your Majesty's Reign, and the measures taken to provide efficient instruction for every child in the Kingdom will form not the least memorable feature in the history of the last Sixty Years.

We believe that nothing has done more to increase the comfort and happiness of Your Majesty's subjects, and we are deeply sensible that in education as in everything else which would advance the national welfare Your Majesty has always evinced a warm interest.

That Your Gracious Majesty may be spared for many years to come to rule over a loyal and prosperous people is our united and earnest prayer.

Treasury Chambers, July 14, 1897.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice, that at a Trial of the Pyx, held at Goldsmiths' Hall, in the City of London, on the 7th July, 1897, in accordance with the provisions of the Order in Council of the 29th June, 1871, the following Verdict of the Pyx Jury was delivered to the Queen's Remembrancer, viz.:—

We, whose names are hereunder written, having been sworn this seventh day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, before the Queen's Remembrancer, at Goldsmiths' Hall, in the city of London, have made the Assays and Trials of Her Majesty's Gold and Silver Coins in the Pyx of the Mint, which, according to accounts produced by the Officers of the Mint, were coined in the said Mint from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, both days inclusive. We ascertained that the number of coins, both of gold and silver, in each packet produced to us, corresponded with the number which the Officers of the Mint represented it to contain; and we took ten coins from one of such packets of Gold coins, altogether ten Sovereigns or Twenty-shilling pieces, and five coins from each of such other packets of Gold coins, making altogether ninety Half-Sovereigns or Ten-shilling pieces, and we weighed each of the said coins separately, so as to ascertain whether they were within the remedy prescribed in the First Schedule to the Coinage Act, 1870, as amended by the Coinage Act, 1891. We found that the amount of variation from the Standard of Weight specified in the said First Schedule to the said Act was plus one thousandth of an ounce (.001 oz.) on the whole of such coins, and that, therefore, they were within the prescribed remedy as to weight. We then melted the said Gold coins so taken out and weighed into an ingot, and assayed such ingot, comparing it with the standard Gold Trial Plate produced by the Board of Trade, so as to ascertain whether the metal was within the remedy as to fineness prescribed in the said First Schedule to the said Act, and we found that the amount of variation thereof from the Standard of Fineness specified in the said First Schedule to the said Act was plus four hundred thousandths (or .0004), and that, therefore, the said metal was within the prescribed remedy as to fineness. We weighed the residue of the said Gold coins in bulk, and we ascertained that they were within the remedy as to Weight. We then took from such residue two Sovereigns and six Half-Sovereigns, and weighed and assayed them separately, and we found that such Sovereigns weighed respectively,—the first 123.204, and the second 123.274, and that such Half-Sovereigns weighed respectively,—the first 61.637, the second 61.637, the third 61.637, the fourth 61.637, the fifth 61.607, and the sixth 61.597. We then assayed the said two Sovereigns and six Half-Sovereigns separately, and we found the millesimal fineness of such Sovereigns to be 916.76 and 916.56 respectively, and the millesimal fineness of such Half-Sovereigns to be 916.56, 916.40, 916.56, 916.70, 916.60, and 916.80 respectively. We also took a coin from each of such packets of Silver coins, making altogether ten Crowns, thirteen Half-Crowns, twelve Florins, thirty-two Shillings, sixteen Sixpences, one Fourpence, twelve Threepences, one Twopence, and one Penny, and weighed each of the said Silver coins separately, so as to ascertain whether they were within the remedy prescribed in the said First Schedule to the said Coinage Act, 1870, as amended by the said Coinage Act, 1891. We found that the amount of variation from the Standard of Weight specified in the said First Schedule to the said Act was minus one thousandth of an ounce (.001 oz.) on the whole of such coins, and that, therefore, they were within the prescribed remedy as to Weight. We then melted the said Silver coins, so taken out and weighed, into an ingot, and assayed such ingot, comparing it with the standard Silver Trial Plate produced by the Board of Trade, so as to ascertain whether the metal was within the remedy as to fineness prescribed in the said First Schedule to the said Act, and we found that the amount of variation from the Standard of Fineness specified in the said First Schedule to the said Act was minus three ten-thousandths (or .0003), and that, therefore, the said metal was within the prescribed remedy as to fineness. We weighed the residue of the said Silver coins in bulk, and we ascertained that they were within the remedy as to Weight. We then took from such residue one Crown, one Half-Crown, one Florin, one Shilling, one Sixpence, and one Threepence, and weighed and assayed them separately, and we found that such Crown weighed 434.963, that such Half-Crown weighed 218.101, that such Florin weighed 174.499, that such Shilling weighed 87.002, that such Sixpence weighed 43.866, and that such Threepence weighed 21.935. We then assayed the said Crown, the said Half-Crown, the said Florin, the said Shilling, the said Sixpence, and the said Threepence separately, and we found the millesimal fineness of such Crown to be 924.2, of such Half-Crown to be 925.5, of such Florin to be 924.4, of such Shilling to be 924.6, of such Sixpence to be 924.2, and of such Threepence to be 924.5.

Non-existence of Orestes Rock.

ORESTES Rock, on which His Majesty's ship "Orestes" was reported to have struck in 1833, was considered to lie $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles off shore westward of Villa de Conde, the information given being very vague. It was placed on the charts at the time in lat. $41^{\circ} 19'$ N., long. $8^{\circ} 50'$ W.

The following information, relating to unsuccessful searches for this rock, has been received from the Portuguese Government:—

The danger has never since been seen, and the locality has been recently examined twice by Portuguese surveying officers, when regular soundings of 21 fathoms inshore to 27 fathoms offshore were found, generally over a sandy bottom, with boulders here and there, but no indication of a sunken rock.

The fishermen in the vicinity also declare that there is no danger in the position assigned to Orestes Rock.

Orestes Rock has consequently been expunged from the Admiralty Charts.
