At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of November, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said Majesty chapter sixty-three duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the archdeaconry of Middlesex in the diocese of London and to some of the rural deaneries within such archdeaconry.

"Whereas by a Schedule bearing date the ninth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and prepared in pursuance of the said Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-three and being under the hand and seal of the then Bishop of London the rural deaneries within the said diocese of London were set forth and arranged.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Mandell Bishop of London that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said archdeaconry of Middlesex and to some of the rural deaneries within such archdeaconry are desirable and should be carried into effect and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Mandell Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the two rural deaneries of Saint James Westminster and of Saint George Bloomsbury shall be abolished and the several parishes or cures or churches hitherto comprised within those two rural deaneries shall be transferred to and shall henceforth form part of the rural deanery of Saint Martin in the Fields aforesaid so that the said rural deanery of Saint Martin in the Fields shall henceforth comprise and consist of the parishes or cures or churches the names of which are set down in numbered order under the name of such rural deanery in the Schedule to this scheme annexed and
