

thence south-westward along the middle of the said footway or occupation road for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to the point on the eastern side of the house called or known as Park Gate where the same footway or occupation road is joined by the footpath leading from Lower Parkhead to Grimditch otherwise Grimdheath the said point being at or near to the source of the stream which flows through Ipstones Park into Blackbank Brook and extending thence first south-westward and then southward to and along the middle of the said stream for a distance of sixty chains or thereabouts to its junction in Blackbank Wood with Blackbank Brook aforesaid, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said brook for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts (thereby passing through the Mill Pond at Park Mill) to a point at the northern end of Whieldon's Wood upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Ipstones from the detached portion of the parish of Checkley aforesaid and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the last-described boundary for a distance of seventy-two chains or thereabouts (thereby continuing to follow generally the course of the said Blackbank Brook) to the point near Froghall Canal Wharf where the said last-described boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said parish or parochial chapelry of Ipstones from the parish of Kingsley aforesaid and extending thence generally southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing and recrossing the line of the Froghall Mineral Branch of the North Staffordshire Railway) to the point where the same boundary strikes the middle of the River Churnet and extending thence generally southward along the middle of the said river for a distance of one mile and seven chains or thereabouts (thereby following at one part the boundary which divides the said parish of Kingsley from a certain detached portion of the parish of Cheadle in the county and diocese aforesaid) to a point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Kingsley from the new parish of Oakamoor in the said county and diocese and extending thence along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of one mile and sixty-four chains or thereabouts alternately north-eastward and south-eastward (thereby following the course of the River Churnet aforesaid) and then north-eastward along the same boundary for a further distance of one mile and sixty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction at the stream flowing from Upper Cotton through Star Wood to Oakamoor with the boundary which divides the said parish of Kingsley from the parish of Alton aforesaid and extending thence north-westward along the last-described boundary for a distance of one mile and twenty chains or thereabouts to its junction at the stream known as Shirley Brook flowing to and through Shirley Hollow with the boundary which divides the said parish of Alton from the detached portion of the parish of Checkley aforesaid, and extending thence north eastward for a distance of sixty-three chains or thereabouts along the last-described boundary and along the boundary which divides the said parish of Alton from the parish or parochial chapelry of Ipstones as aforesaid to the first-described point on Black Heath or Alton Common in the middle of the road leading from Windy Harbour over Black Heath to Ipstones Edge as aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, and of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four, been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of November, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Mark Bolton-le-Moors and out of the District Chapelry of Saint George the Martyr Daubhill both the portions of such new parish and of such district chapelry so to be comprised within the said proposed district being within the original limits of the ancient parish of Bolton-le-Moors in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Bolton-le-Moors and of the said district chapelry of Saint George the Martyr Daubhill which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

And whereas we are satisfied that both the said new parish of Saint Mark, Bolton-le-Moors and the said district chapelry of Saint George the Martyr Daubhill are cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof.

"And whereas in pursuance of the power and authority given by an Order and Decree of Your