C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of November, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the under-mentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz. :—

SKELTON, YORKS.—Wholly and forthwith in the Parish Church of Skelton, in the county of York; and also within the churchyard except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented;

(b.) In such reserved grave spaces (limited to twelve in number) in the churchyard as have never before been buried in and which, when opened, are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families (being parishioners) to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

HINTON, GLOUCESTERSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in Hinton Church in the county of Gloucester; and also in those parts of the churchyard which lie to the west, south-west, south and south-east of the church, except as follows :—

In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing burials may be permitted on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

BOLLINGTON, CHESHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in Bollington Church, in the county of Chester; and also, after the thirtieth June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, in the old part of the churchyard (opened in one thousand eight and thirty-five) except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

CASTLE CARY, SOMERSET.—Forthwith and entirely in Castle Cary Church, in the county of Somerset; and also, after the thirtieth September one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, in the churchyard except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled and earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order viz. :—widows, widowers, parents and unmarried children as can be buried at or below that depth.

GULDEN MORDEN, CAMBRIDGE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Guilden Morden in the county of Cambridge; and also in the churchyard except as follows :—

(a.) In such wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In existing partly walled or earthen graves, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order viz. :—widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces (limited to twelve in number) now existing in the churchyard, as have never before been buried in which, when opened, are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

SKIDBY, YORKS.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Skidby, in the county of York; and also in the churchyard except as follows :—

In such reserved grave spaces (limited to ten in number) now existing in the churchyard, as have never before been buried in, which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

WELLOW, SOMERSET.—Forthwith and entirely in Wellow Church; and also in the churchyard after the thirtieth September one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her
