

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mark Harrogate, comprising :—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Pannal of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of (Saint Mary) Low Harrogate and of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Peter High Harrogate, all which cures are situate in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon which said portions are comprised within, and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the district parish of Bilton-with-Harrogate (commonly called Christ Church High Harrogate) in the said county and diocese from the new parish of Saint Peter High Harrogate aforesaid at the junction of Leeds-road with Otley-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of forty-one chains and a half or thereabouts (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter High Harrogate from the new parish of (Saint Mary) Low Harrogate aforesaid) to the junction of the last-named road with Pannal Ash-road, and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to a point at its junction with Green-lane, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of (Saint Mary) Low Harrogate from the parish of Pannal aforesaid, and extending thence first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following first the middle of the last-named lane and afterwards the middle of Leadhall-lane) to the point where the last-named lane is crossed by the stream called or known as Stone Riggs Beck, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the bridle road which leads from the house called Pannal College to the road called Almsford Bank, and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the said bridle road for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the said road called Almsford Bank and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Fullwith Mill-lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading to Crimble House, and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road over the Church Fenton and Harrogate Line of the North-Eastern Railway, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to a point at the centre of the bridge which carries Hookstone-road over the same line of railway upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Pannal from the new parish of (Saint Mary) Low Harrogate aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following generally the middle of the last-named road) to the point near to the bridge or culvert which carries such road over the stream called or known as Hookstone Beck, where such boundary meets the boundary which divides the said new parish of (Saint Mary) Low Harrogate from the district parish of Bilton-with-Harrogate (commonly called Christ Church High Harrogate) aforesaid, and extending thence first north-westward and then south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary to the point in the middle of Leeds-road aforesaid where such boundary meets the boundary which divides the said district parish of Bilton-with-Harrogate (commonly called Christ Church High Harrogate) from the new parish of Saint Peter High Harrogate aforesaid, and extending thence northward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the course of the last-named road) to the said firstly hereinbefore mentioned point at the junction of such road with Otley-road aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February, 1898.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Bishopricks Act, 1878, of the Bishoprick of Bristol Act, 1884, and of the Bishoprick of Bristol Amendment Acts, 1894 and 1896, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Bishopricks Act 1878 of the Bishoprick of Bristol Act 1884 and of the Bishoprick of Bristol Amendment Acts 1894 and 1896, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the Bishoprick of Bristol.

"Whereas the Bishoprick of Bristol aforesaid was reconstituted by an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven and published in the London Gazette on the ninth day of the same month which Order was made in pursuance of the said Acts and which Order, as appears by the terms thereof came into operation on the said ninth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

"And whereas by the same Order it was ordered that the diocese of the Bishoprick of Bristol shall consist of a certain part (in the same Order described) of the then diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"And whereas the said diocese of the Bishoprick of Bristol is situate partly within the
