

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1898.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 9, 1898.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen's Birthday will be Celebrated, in London alone, on Saturday, the 21st of May next, and at all other Stations, Naval and Military, on Tuesday, the 24th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 22, 1898.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 23rd May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 26, 1898.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Drawing Rooms will be held at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 10th, and on Friday, the 13th, of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms are requested to bring with them to the Drawing Room two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

The privilege of making presentations to The Queen at a Drawing Room is restricted to those Ladies who have themselves been previously presented to Her Majesty, and who are themselves present at the Drawing Room.

Under such circumstances a Lady has the privilege of presenting one Lady only at a Drawing Room in addition to her Daughters or Daughters-in-law.

This restriction does not apply to Ladies who, from official position or other circumstances, are specially privileged to make presentations to Her Majesty.

The Lady who proposes to present another must send in writing the name of such Lady to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Drawing Room, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the name to Her Majesty, when, if it be approved, presentation cards will be forwarded.

Printed Forms for this purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Ladies to be presented be very distinctly written on the presentation cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Drawing Room, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The number of Presentations at each Drawing Room is limited to 200.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

Foreign Office, April 27, 1898.

HER Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received a Notification, of which the following is a translation, from the Spanish Ambassador at this Court, dated April 25, 1898:—

"In view of the critical and special circumstances created by the present relations between Spain and the United States of North America His Majesty's Government has given orders that the ports of the Islands of Cuba, the Philippines, and Porto Rico be defended by lines of torpedoes; consequently, as soon as these ports have been closed in the manner stated, entry into them will only be possible under the guidance of the pilots of the ports, who will be in readiness with their boats, outside the lines of defence referred to, to take ships in. Moreover the Authorities of the Islands of Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippines, in view of the circumstances to which reference has been made, will give orders for the removal of buoys and the extinguishing of lights whenever it may be necessary for the defence of their respective Territories."

Foreign Office, April 27, 1898.

HER Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs received, on the 23rd instant, a Notification, to the following effect, from the United States Ambassador in London:—

"By a Proclamation issued on the 22nd of April, under Resolution of Congress, approved on the 20th of that month, the President of the United States of America announces a Blockade of the north coast of Cuba, including the ports on that coast between Cardenas and Bahia Honda, and also of the Port of Cienfuegos on the south coast of Cuba."

A telegram, to a similar effect, has also been received from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Washington, which adds that "neutral vessels now in any of the blockaded ports are allowed thirty days to leave."

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The text notes that any discrepancies or errors in the records can lead to significant complications during an audit and may result in the disallowance of certain expenses.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures that must be followed when recording transactions. It details the requirements for proper documentation, including the need for original receipts and invoices, and the importance of ensuring that all entries are supported by appropriate evidence. The text also discusses the need for regular reconciliations and the timely reporting of any irregularities.

3. The third part of the document addresses the issue of the classification of expenses. It explains that expenses must be properly categorized according to the applicable accounting standards and the nature of the activity. The text provides guidance on how to distinguish between different types of expenses, such as capital expenditures and operating expenses, and how to ensure that each entry is correctly recorded in the appropriate account.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of financial information. It notes that certain data may be subject to legal restrictions or may be considered sensitive information. The text provides instructions on how to handle such information, including the need for secure storage and the prohibition of unauthorized access or disclosure.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes by summarizing the key points and reiterating the importance of strict adherence to the established procedures. It emphasizes that compliance with these requirements is essential for the successful completion of the audit and for the accurate representation of the organization's financial position.
