

London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Aidan Manchester.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Aidan, Manchester, being:—

"All that part of the parish (sometime district under 'The Parish of Manchester Division Act 1850') of Christ Church Bradford within the original limits of the parish of Manchester in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester which is bounded upon the west by the parish of Saint Silas Ardwick in the said county and diocese upon the south and upon part of the east by the parish of Saint Barnabas Openshaw in the said county and diocese and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the remaining part of the east and upon the north by an imaginary line commencing in the middle of Mill-street at or near to its junction with Moody-street upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Barnabas Openshaw from the parish of Christ Church Bradford aforesaid and extending thence northward along the middle of Mill-street aforesaid for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Chatham-street and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of twelve chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with Wellington-street and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Albert-street and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of twenty-three chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Christ Church Bradford from the parish of Saint Silas Ardwick aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parish of Christ Church Bradford out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

J. H. Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of May, 1898.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Gabriel Willesden Green situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church, Brondesbury in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Christ Church, Brondesbury, and of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Andrew Willesden, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which said extremities lie contiguous, one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Christ Church, Brondesbury, and of the new parish of Saint Andrew, Willesden aforesaid, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Gabriel, Willesden Green, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Mandell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and also as one of the alternate patrons in right of his See of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Willesden, with the consent of the Right Honourable Arthur James Balfour, the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown as the other alternate patron of the same vicarage, and with the consent of the Reverend Charles Dale Williams, of the Rectory, Willesden-lane, in the said county of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders now rector of the rectory of the said new parish of Christ Church Brondesbury, the patron of the same rectory (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Christ Church,
