

Brondesbury, and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Willesden, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Gabriel, Willesden Green, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Willesden Green.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of Saint Gabriel Willesden Green comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church, Brondesbury, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is bounded upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Cuthbert, West Hampstead in the said county and diocese, upon the north and upon the north west by the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Andrew, Willesden, in the county and diocese aforesaid (including the hereinafter described portion of such new parish) and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Willesden, from the new parish of Christ Church, Brondesbury aforesaid, at the centre of the bridge at the eastern end of the Willesden Green Railway Station which bridge carries Walm-lane over the line of the Metropolitan Railway, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the centre of the next bridge over the same line of railway which bridge is called or known as Bridge Number Nineteen, and extending thence northward and in a straight line for a distance of six chains or thereabouts (thereby following the course of an intended new road leading from such bridge into Dartmouth-road) to a point in the middle of the last-named road distant ten chains or thereabouts from Walm-lane aforesaid and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said Dartmouth-road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Dawlish-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Teignmouth-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to its junction with Mapesbury-road and extending north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to a point at its junction with Edgware-road, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Brondesbury, from the new parish of Saint Cuthbert, West Hampstead aforesaid.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Willesden, which is bounded upon the north-west by the consolidated chapelry of Neasden-cum-Kingsbury in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the north-east partly by the new parish of Saint Peter, Cricklewood in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by the new parish of Saint Cuthbert West Hampstead aforesaid, upon the south and south-east by the above described portion of the new parish of Christ Church, Brondesbury aforesaid and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Brondesbury from the new parish of Saint Andrew, Willesden aforesaid at the junction of Walm-lane aforesaid with Station-road and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cranburst-road and with Riffel-road and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Melrose-avenue and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath or roadway called Sherrick Green-lane and extending thence north-westward and in a straight line for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to a point at the centre of the bridge called or known as Bridge Number Four over the line of the Midland and South-Western Junction Railway between Dudding Hill and Childs Hill Railway Stations upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Willesden, from the consolidated chapelry of Neasden-cum-Kingsbury aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

J. H. Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of May, 1898.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish (sometime district under 'The Parish of Manchester Division Act 1850') of Saint John, Longsight, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion
