

Owing to the short time in which the arrangements had to be completed, and to the impossibility of recording whether all those who had tickets issued to them under the Seal of the Earl Marshal made use of them, it was found impossible to make an accurate or exhaustive list of those present in the Abbey; but the following lists purport to contain the names of those to whom admission was granted either by invitation, or on application. The names are omitted of those whom it is known were unable to be present.
