THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

RINGWOOD FAIR.

THE Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice, that a representation has been duly made to him by the Ringwood Rural District Council that Fairs have been held twice a year in the town of Ringwood, viz., on the 10th July and 11th December in each year, but that it has become the custom to extend the Fairs to the 11th July and the 12th December, respectively, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the duration of each of such Fairs should be limited to one day.

On the 29th day of July, 1898, the Secretary of State will take such representation into consideration, and any person who may desire to object to the alteration of the dates for holding the Fairs, should intimate his objections to the Secretary of State before that day.
