

to time selected by a Judge of the High Court upon the request of the High Commissioner.

(2.) Such tribunal shall report or make recommendations to the High Commissioner upon all questions relating to natives referred to it by or by the direction of the High Commissioner, or by any Judge to whom any question relating to natives has been referred by the High Commissioner. The High Commissioner may deal with any such reports or recommendations as he thinks fit.

88. In case of a revolt against the Company, or other misconduct committed by a native chief or tribe, the Administrator in Executive Council may impose a reasonable fine upon the offender. The Administrator shall forthwith report every such case to the High Commissioner, who may remit the fine in whole or in part; the Administrator shall give effect to any such remission.

89.—(1.) The High Commissioner shall transmit to a Secretary of State a report upon every case relating to natives dealt with by him under Part V of this Order, together with copies of all reports and recommendations and all documents relating to such case, and a Secretary of State may review any case and reverse or modify any decision given or order made therein, and may give such directions in the matter as he thinks fit, and due effect shall be given to such directions by all persons.

(2.) Provided that such directions shall only be binding where a Secretary of State has within twelve months after receiving the report of the High Commissioner given notice to the High Commissioner that he intends to review any such case.

PART VI.
Miscellaneous.

90.—(1.) Where the approval of a Secretary of State is required under this Order for the appointment of any officer, such officer may, upon appointment, enter upon and perform the duties of his office before such approval has been signified, but until approved or disapproved by a Secretary of State such appointment shall be regarded as provisional only.

(2.) If any such appointment is disapproved by a Secretary of State, the person so appointed shall cease to hold the office so soon as the signification of such disapproval is received by the Administrator, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done by him during his provisional appointment.

(3.) The Administrator shall forthwith report to the High Commissioner who shall report to a Secretary of State every such provisional appointment.

(4.) Notice of the withholding of the approval of a Secretary of State shall be published in the Gazette.

91. The Matabeleland Order in Council, 1894, shall continue in force until the commencement of this Order and shall thereupon be revoked, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

92. Judicial notice shall be taken of this Order and of the commencement thereof, and of any Ordinance made under this Order and published in the Gazette.

93. This Order shall be published in the Gazette and shall thereupon commence and come into operation; and the High Commissioner shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places, and in such manner, and for such time or times, as he think proper for giving due publicity thereto.

94. Her Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.
