(b.) In partly walled and earthen graves now existing burials may be allowed of the widows, widowers, parents, and unmarried children, of those already interred therein provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eighteenth day of March next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said eighteenth day of March.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:-

DENTON, NORTHAMPTON. — Forthwith and entirely in the Church and in the original churchyard of the parish of Denton, in the county of Northampton.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eleventh day of March next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the church or chapel of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said eleventh day of March.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be further postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the said churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:-

In the Parish Churchyard of Hemyock, in the county of Devon, until the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

In the Parish Churchyard of Bottisham, in the county of Cambridge, until the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

In the Parish Churchyard of Wellow, in the county of Somerset, until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

In the Parish Churchyard of Hook Norton, in the county of Oxford, until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

In the Churchyard of Saint Sampson Cricklade, in the county of Wilts, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, directing the discontinuance of burials in, amongst other places, the church, and, with certain exceptions, in the
