

From the Camp before Limerick, Octob. 4. On the first instant, in the Evening, the Lords Justices arrived in the Camp; And after some farther Conferences with the Commissioners on the part of the Garrison and their Troops in the County of C'we, the Articles for the Surrender of the City of Limerick, and the Castles of Ross and Clare, with all other Castles and Places which are still in the hands of the Irish, were on the 3d finally Concluded and Signed by the Lords Justices, and the General on one side, and the French Governor and Persons deputed by the Garrison on the other; And in pursuance thereof, one of the Gates with a Stone Fort was delivered up to us the same Evening, and this day five of our Regiments marched into the Irish Town; The French, and such of the Irish as have a mind to go beyond Sea, being to continue in the English Town and the Island, till such time as Shipping can be got ready for their Transportation. Sarsfield and Sheldon design for France, but of the Troops they propose to take with them, great numbers have already left them, being too sensible of the ill Usage they have had from the French here in Ireland, to Engage again in that Service.

Falmouth, October 8. On Monday last Their Majesties Ship the Portsmouth brought in here a small Prize of about 40 Tuns.

Portsmouth, October 11. On the 9th instant Sir Ralph Delaval sailed from St. Helens with the Squadron under his command to the Westward.

Weymouth, October 13. Sir Ralph Delaval came yesterday to an Anchor in Portland Road, the Wind being at W. and by N.

Whitehall, October 13. Last night arrived here the Sieur de Meddaghe, being sent to Their Majesties by his Father the Baron de Ginckle, General of Their Majesties Forces in Ireland, with the good News of the Surrender of Limerick. And this day about Noon the great Guns were fired from the Tower, and in the Evening Bonfires, Illuminations, and Ringing of Bells, expressed the Publick and General Joy for this Happy Success of Their Majesties Arms, in the Entire Reduction of that Kingdom under Their Majesties Obedience.

There are two Males wanting from Holland.

Advertisements.

 On Monday next the 19th instant, at 3 after Noon, will be sold by Auction at the bear in Avenary-lane, near Ludgate, an excellent Collection of Ancient and Modern Books, containing great variety of Greek and Latin Authors, General Councils, Ecclesiastical Historians, Casuists, Commentaries, and the most celebrated Authors of the Reformed Religion; the Byzantine and Roman Historians, Greek and Latin Poets, Geographers, with many curious Books of Philosophical and Critical Learning, Civil and Common Law, Physick, Mathematicks, &c. Catalogues may be had at the place of Sale.

 At the Black Lion on the South side of St. Pauls Church, on Monday the 9th of November, at 2 after Noon, will be sold by Auction the Library of a Gentleman of London, consisting of Divinity, History, Philology, Mathematicks, Physick, Civil, Canon and Common Law, in Greek, Latin, and English, in all Volumes; with a considerable number of French and Italian Books, amongst which are many peculiar Subjects not usually met with in Common Sales. Catalogues are given by Mr. Miller in St. Pauls Church-yard, Mr. Wilkinton in Fleet-street, at Richards Coffee-house within Temple-bar, and by Mr. Fox Bookbinder in Westminster-hall.

The Famous OYL for giving Ease in the Gout, prepared by Richard Stoughton, Apothecary, at the Union in Southwark, Approved of, and Subscribed to, by Their Majesties Physicians, and above 20 others Eminent of the College, London, and that to be a safe Medicine, no way harmful, nor in the least repelling, is sold with a Paper of Directions and Virtues at large (and Sealed with the Author's Coat of Arms) at Manns Coffee-house at Charing-cross, at Vigures near the Parliament-house, Johns in Fellers-Rents, Wills in Covent-Garden, Richards at Temple-bar; Geraways, and Joss, at the Royal-Exchange; by Mr. Levington, Fruiterer, at the Exchange Gate; and at the Authors own House: The largest Bottles to s. the smallest 5 s. both larger now than before.

Lost on Tuesday the 6th instant, a Silver Watch made in Dublin, and three Seals joynd to it by a blue Ribbon, two of the Seals being Cornelian, one set in Gold, and the other in Silver, the Coat of Arms being a Saltire, and the Crest a Griffin; the other a Steel Seal with the like Coat and Crest, and a Cypher. Whoever brings Tidings of them (so as to be restored) to Major Ogar at his House in Jerman-street, shall have two Guineas Reward.

The Annual Feast for St. Martin's School will be held (as usually) on the Fifth of November next at Mr. John Bardonistons at the Horn Tavern over-against Doctors-Common, where Tickets may be had until the 3d of November, and at Mr. Swadlins, Silkman, next the White-Horse Tavern by Norfolk-street in the Strand; at Mr. John Marhews, Apothecary, at the corner of St. Alban's-street, Pall-mall; and at Mr. Nathaniel Hoales, Stationer, near Seijants-Inn in Chancery-lane.

An Indian black Boy, aged about 14 or 15, middle statured, short-neck'd, pretty full bodied, full eyed, pretty long Legg'd, but somewhat small, with blue Stockings, and an old Coat of mixed grey; Run away from Mr. John Daniel of St. Pauls near Roch Bar on the 8th instant. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Marmaduke Proctor, Oylman, at the Caf in the Post-office, London, shall have 10 s. Reward.

Stolen or stolen on the 25th past from Free-lands near Broms in Kent, a brown-bay Gelding 14 hands high, bob Tailed, and no White about him. Whoever brings him to Mr. Em at Free-lands aforesaid, or to Mr. Thomas Fades at the White-Horse Inn in Coleman street, London, shall have a Guinea Reward, and reasonable Charges.

Taken on the 8th instant out of the Ground, of Edmond Lidgold of St. Leonard Shoreditch Parish in Middlesex, a dark brown Gelding 15 hands high 2 years old, having all his Feet with a small Stone about his Navel. Whoever finds him, and gives notice to Mr. Lidgold aforesaid, shall have two Guineas Reward.