BANKRUPTCY ACTS, 1883 and 1890.

MODE OF PAYING CERTAIN FEES.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Dated the 2nd February, 1899.

WHEREAS by Treasury Order dated the 19th December, 1890, it was directed that the respective fees payable under Table A of the Scale of Fees and Percentages issued under the Bankruptcy Acts 1883 and 1890 on one copy of the cash book showing assets realized, forwarded by the Official Receiver or Trustee to the Board of Trade, and on every application for release by trustees in non-summary cases, should be taken in stamps. And whereas, by Treasury Warrant dated the 13th April, 1896, it was ordered that the said fees, when paid by the Official Receiver, should henceforth be taken in money instead of stamps. And whereas it is expedient that the said fees should be paid by the Trustee in the same manner as by the Official Receiver, we the undersigned Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury do hereby order that the said fees, when paid by the Trustee, shall henceforth be taken in money instead of stamps, unless the Board of Trade shall in any particular matter otherwise direct.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1894.

CORSHAM FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Chippenham Rural District Council, that a Fair has been annually held at Corsham, on the 7th March, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871":

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas the Right Honourable Lord Methuen, K.C.V.O., &c., as lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held at Corsham on the 7th March shall be abolished.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 6th day of February, 1899.

M. W. Ridley.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

(34 and 35 Vict., cap. 12.)

BRAMFORD FAIR.

THE Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that, by Memorial dated November 18, 1898, a representation has been duly made to him by the Bosmere and Claydon Rural District Council, that a Fair has been annually held in Bramford-street on the Monday week before Whit Monday in each year, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished:

On the 9th day of March, 1899, the Secretary of State will take such representation into consideration, and any person who may desire to object to the abolition of the Fair, should intimate his objections to the Secretary of State before that day.

Home Office, Whitehall, February 8, 1899.
